Harold Blekum Wrecked as She Heads for Home Port and Safety.

TERRIBLE TRIP RECALLED

Vessel Had Been Since Movember Delivering Single Cargo to Folk on Modiak Island; All Safe.

Seattle, Wash., March 6 - (P. N. S. "Schooner Harold Blekum ashore Eagle Harbor rocks, Kodlak island. night March 3. Captain, crew camped on beach"

This brief message to the offices here of W. J. Erskine & Co., of San Francisco, owners of the vessel, indicated today that the Blekum was a total loss

It is said that Captain Kohlmeister, First Mate Cavanaugh and the crew of eight men would never have deserted the Harold Bickum "till the last dog was hung" few miles from her goal-Kodiak. On November 7 the Blekum set sail and returned here December 24 with rags for sails and a crew worn to exhaustion fighting wind, waves, sleet and snow. Before she sailed from San Francisco with a full cargo for Seward and Kodiak, but after reaching Alaskan waters encountered gales that fought her back so strenuously that the vessel was defeated. The vessel then was coated in icc. the crew working in relays with axes. chopping it off the rigging and sides.

January .20 last-this time to her final defeat by Alaskan waters.

ALL ALONG THE WATERFRONT

Cracked rudder'stock and bent wheel were the damages sustained by the harbor patrol launch Elidor when she hit a submerged beacon in the lower river. The vessel was lifted on a crane at the Port of Portland drydock. The steamer Daisy, carrying a full cargo of lumber, sailed for San Pedro With her hold full of freight and fair passenger list, the steamer Rose City sailed for San Francisco and Los Angeles.

The steamer Northern Pacific parted from Flavel for San Francisco The torpedoboat destroyer Goldsborough arrived up after a stormy trip from Bremerton

The wind having died down appre clably, the motorship Astoria, Captain Swanson, got away for Port Pirie. For painting and cleaning, the schooner Alumna was lifted at the Oregon drydock.
