British Attack Germans Upon Right Bank of Somme After Drum Fire.

Berlin, March 6 .- (I. N. S.) - (via Sayville wireless.)-Following an intense drum fire on the right bank of the Somme, English troops attacked east of Bouchavesnes but were repulsed, it was officially announced today. German successes in reconnoitering operations in the Caurierres wood, the Verdun front, were also reported. The text of the official statement follows:

"Western war theatre-On the right bank of the Somme, towards evening, the artillery duel increased to great After drum fire the Engish attacked again east of Bouchavesnes. The attack was repulsed.
