The freshmen reception to their parents and teachers was held last Friday afternoon in the school gymnasium. Miss Mills, freshman adviser, and Miss Phipps, principal, were in charge of the program which consisted of musical selections, addresses and readings. Miss Doyt, a member of the school faculty, was in charge of the refreshments. This event is a semi-annual affair that provides an opportunity for the parents of first term students to become acquainted with the members of the faculty.

The regular assembly was held last Tuesday morning. It was decided that students and teachers should salute the flag. This salute will be conducted every time the students gather in the assembly room. A huge American flag has been permanently fixed in the assembly room.

The Latin play, "The Captives," to be presented by the Latin students of Lincoln, will be staged in the school auditorium on Friday evening. Two performances will be staged, a matinee and an evening performance. Admittance will be free to either performance. The play which is written by Plautus will be produced with the classical setting, but will be given in the English translation.

A war orphan is to be adopted by the members of the June 17 class. At a meeting held last Tuesday evening it was definitely decided to support one war orphan for one year. The class is also making arrangements for a "county fair," which will probably be given in the first week of May. A committee of 15 has been appointed to arrange the event.

A tag sale will be held in the near future by the June 17 class, to raise money to be used in defraying the expenses of sending the school debating team to Spokane. The Lincoln debating team will journey to Spokane to battle with the North Central high school of Spokane, affirmative team, on March 20. The Walla Walla high school negative team will debate in Portland, against Lincoln's affirmative team, while Spokane's negative team will battle with Walla Walla's affirmative team at Week Way. All three debates will be held on the evening of March 20.

The first issue of this term's Cardinal was distributed last Wednesday afternoon. The paper, which is devoted to the freshmen, is snappy and contains several excellent stories and poems, besides many good jokes and exchanges. The staff drew the cover design. Those whose short stories and poems were accepted are: Celia Isenstien, Ernest Haycox, Bessie Welch, Marion Marks, Max Simons, Raymond G. Nelson, Eleanor Allen, Frances Habershon, Emily Yeakey, Hazel Peary, Ruth Alderman.

The "Tempest" club's "Low Jinks" will be held Friday evening, March 16, in the school gymnasium. This affair is really one of the only occasions at which only the boys of the school can attend. The program will be of a novel and have real good time. Low Jinks all the new members are always initiated, much to the enjoyment of the older members. Besides the initiation, there will be games and tests of skill between boys of the different manual training classes. At the last meeting a committee was appointed to see how the school board would like to purchase a motion picture machine in the school auditorium so that most of the educational pictures which pass through the city could be shown to all students at a minimum cost.

Mr. Wedemeyer, accompanied by Mrs. Thomas, entertained the students at a special assembly on Tuesday. The assembly was held in the gymnasium and was presided over by Mrs. Curran, a member of Jefferson faculty. Her topic was "Our Philosophy of Life." The talk was splendid and greatly appreciated by all those present.

George Beggs was appointed chairman of the committee to decorate the June 17 section at the class play. The committee has made a program of decorating the section, which will be commented upon by a large number of the audience. "Bring two pounds of candy, or you will be fined 50 cents," were the words the seniors told the juniors at the meeting. One of them brought the candy, which was sold on Friday evening during the performance. The candy sale was a great success, as was the one held on Tuesday.

The Pi Delta Epsilon Debating society has decided to place an act in the Live Wire vaudeville which will take place at the school auditorium. Last Wednesday Mr. Weaco, whose system of writing has been adopted in the public schools, and his assistant, Mr. Poore, explained the science of the relation of numbers, letters, etc. Next Wednesday Miss Ransom, teacher of music in the grammar schools, will talk. Mr. Weaco has a teacher's writing class every Wednesday evening for the teachers and the teachers-to-be. The teaching classes of all schools are invited to attend.

The Portland Symphony orchestra invited the students of Washington to attend the rehearsal of their last concert this season. The students will hear the rehearsal March 23.

After a meeting of the board of directors of the girls' league, a report of their work was given in a girls' assembly Thursday morning. The gymnasium is at the girls' disposal Tuesday and Thursday afternoons. Plans are being made for the entertainment of each class, to be carried out as soon as possible. Miss Elizabeth, a member of the faculty, spoke on "What is Necessary to Be a Citizen." Her talk was much appreciated by the girls, for she is a general favorite among all boys as well as girls.

The Phrenoid Debating society held an interesting alumni program last Friday afternoon. The program opened with a solo song by Olive Snyder. The debate, "Resolved, That Phrenos Should Increase to Numbers (of membership) from the present number of 40 to 75," followed. A piano solo by Gretchen Dickinson, and a vocal solo completed the program. All these numbers were given by Phrenos no longer in school. The Phrenos program last Tuesday afternoon: Contest for greatest number of words made from the letters in the name "Johanna Wolfgang Von Goethe"; a piano solo by Helen Libby, Olive Powell, Helen Elliott, and Frances Vera Henderson; Harriett Shoemaker; description of length of German words; by Magdalena Neese, and a play entitled "She can't read," with Elaine Ober, Alvina Alderman, and Anton Leist as the cast. The room was filled to overflowing, and the program proved well worthy of the large attendance.

The June 17, class meeting was altogether a hot battle of arguments. The class play decision was forcibly changed from "The Crisis," by Winifred, to "The Bunty Pulls the Strings," by James Ruff. The play had been definitely decided upon but, on the receipt of the manuscript, it was found the characters were not what the class desired.

The Scotch play, "Bunty Pulls the Strings," was adopted and the first tryout in search of material was held Thursday afternoon by Don T. Orput, with the assistance of Helen and Frances Neff. Several interesting stunts were planned for the game. Fred Jones and Katherine Mackenzie were appointed a committee to originate a song for the school. The song, "The Pirates of Penance." The Post collectors also assisted the pep club in selling the tickets for the Salem game.

Marion Dunsmore, as captain, with Charles Kreyer, John Smith, Edmondson, Marie Marcy and Marie Stearns present. A new program; Dorothy Schafer, as captain, with Willis Wilson, Edmund Kugel, Hugh Whisler, Lenore Kilton and Marie Stearns present. A new play, "The Ghost of an Idea," by Burgee, as captain, with Susie Lindley, Merle Harrington, Louis Dunsmore and Clarence Gilstrap, gave "The Latin" novel.

At the regular meeting of the boys' glee club on Tuesday afternoon a constitution was adopted and officers for the term selected. Everett Day was elected president, and Fred Satterlee secretary.

The first term domestic science girls made a most interesting journey through the Log Cabin bakery on Friday evening at Franklin as a new project of the Parent-Teacher association. The park commission offered to furnish an instructor whenever the girls were present. The classes now number more than 100. A musician is supplied by the members. Any one is eligible who does not attend high school. The girls are now instructed by Mrs. Woodworth.

A call for track members went out last week. Over 30 boys responded, and a good showing will be made this week. The basketball will be started on baseball this week.

A very enjoyable party was held last week at the home of Gertrude McIntosh. Those present from Franklin were: Verna Brown, Harriet White, Raymond Powell, Charles Reynolds, Wesley Hawley, Walter Keller, Mabel Corbett, Frances Neff, Nellie Saunders, Helen Johnson, Ruth Weidner, Edna Lind, and Helen Houta. Grace Locke, Helen Mincemeyer, Ruth Smith. It was a patriotic party and the house was decorated in red, white and blue. Refreshments were served in a unique and original way.

The Goggles held a meeting last Thursday. A hike to Kelly Butte was planned for next Thursday. A refreshment committee was appointed to look after the lunch for the hike. Ruth Weidner was appointed chairman, with Ollie Reade, and Marguerite Wheeler assistants. A short debate was held on the subject of "Resolved, that English course is more essential than the commercial course to a girl." Muriel Nichols and Dorothea Anderson gave a reading.

The Modos held their program in room two last week instead of in their regular place because they desired the use of the piano. Carl Sibley, favored the members with a piano solo. A debate was held on the subject, resolved, "That All Women Teachers Should Be Paid on a Par with Men." The European War. In the business meeting the society decided to have pins. A committee was appointed to investigate and report. They are Cecil London, chairman, Miss Ophelia Goodman and Miss Blanche Walker. It was also decided to take a hike within the next three weeks. The committee appointed Mrs. Edna Lind, Carl Sibley, Dickson and Miss Blanche Duncan.

Discussion in the economics classes led to a difference of opinion on the value of women as teachers, and so the subject is to be debated by members of the class on resolved, "That men are better teachers than women." The question of equal salary rights will probably also enter into the discussion.

The business knowledge class did not take its regular weekly trip on Monday. The class will probably also enter into the discussion.

The boys who directed the school paper last term were all graduated and left the school without anyone to take their place. The student body officers sent out notices asking students who desired to be elected to the offices to file their names. The faculty met and approved of the following being appointed to the respective offices: Scott Simpson, editor; Custer Rust, business manager; and John Ray, assistant business manager. The rest of the staff has as yet not been selected, but several of the students are campaigning for places on the different department staffs. The editor announced that he expected to issue the first number by April.

An important meeting of the men was held soon, probably Monday evening, to decide on matters pertaining to the baseball team. It is also expected that a baseball manager will be elected at this meeting. The team will practice on the grounds of the new Benson school.

The letters for the basketball men have arrived and will be presented to the owners within a few days. The team expects to play one more game this season before the season is closed. The Vancouver team will be invited to play at the school. Those in charge are endeavoring to have the game played within the next two weeks at the very latest. Interest in the game is increasing. About 30 boys are working hard on the pieces that they intend to render at the concert to be given some time in May. Practice is being held on Tuesday and Thursday evenings.

The "freak costume" party given by the June and February '18 classes on Friday, March 2, in the girls' school, was a success. About 50 boys were present and nearly all were dressed in costume. The spirit of the occasion was entered into, which added much to the enjoyment. Miss Helen Lind won a box of chocolates for having on the best girl's costume, and Robert Downing won first prize among the boys. Downing was dressed in a Chinese costume. The first part of the evening was spent in eating and dancing followed. Twenty-five parents were present. The faculty supervisors of this novel affair were Mrs. Graham, Mr. Anderson and Mr. Ottlinger. Light refreshments were served by the girls.

The Benson-Teach Boosters' club seems to have proved one of the most popular organizations of the school. At the last business meeting held on Friday, March 2, 1917, 107 members were admitted, bringing the membership up to 20, which is the maximum limit. Mr. Law of the mechanical drawing department, was elected by the boys to be the club's faculty adviser. He will meet with the club at their meeting tomorrow evening, when definite plans for the future work will be discussed.

C., April 6 to 12. Miss Perkins will work for the admission of University of Oregon graduates to the association, for which she returned in September to her position in the faculty.

As a part of the community work done by the extension division of the University of Oregon, Dean Allen, Allen, the school's journalism made an address in Dallas Wednesday evening on "The Relation of the Press to the Community." Dean Allen's address was the first of a series of lectures to be delivered in Dallas. Later a series of extension lectures will be delivered in other Oregon cities.

J. Bothwell Avison of Salem, owing to the absence of the professor of geology, will address the bricklayers' convention, which is to meet in Eugene March 16.

Dr. E. S. Conklin, professor of psychology, is back in his classrooms after a long absence. He has been engaged in Oregon, during which he visited Baker, La Grande, Pendleton and Hood River.

Next of raising funds for the relief of college students held in war prison camps of Europe is going forward actively on the campus. By the middle of the week more than $500 has been raised for the relief of these students. That more than double that sum will be in hand within the next few days. The high price of chemicals is both a blessing and a curse for the chemistry department of the university. Many valuable chemical necessities are difficult to obtain at any price and the instructors find themselves forced to use their own resources in providing satisfactory substitutes.

CASCARETS
CANDY CIGARETTES
10¢

Tonight sure! Remove the liver and bowel poison which is keeping your head dizzy, your tongue coated, breath offensive and stomach sour. Don't stay bilious, sick, headachy, constipated and full of cold. Why don't you get a box of Cascarets from the drug store now? Eat one or two tonight and enjoy the nicest, gentlest liver and bowel cleanser ever made. Cascarets never gripe or bother you all the next day like calomel, salts and pills. They act gently but thoroughly. Mothers should give Cascarets to their children. Children a whole Cascaret a day. They are harmless and children love them. (Adv.)

Man's Letter Answered

Dear Sir: In the year 1913, month of March, I read in my paper, a notice for a contest and had it filled, as I was in run-down health and was particularly weak. I had to go through a course of treatment. I was able to work part of the time. I had a good rest and my energy will power is now restored and have felt like a "new man" since I have recently. Have lost the rattle and am now enjoying my life. Your publishing it again for my benefit and others needing such help, would be greatly appreciated. H. H. B.
