

PERTINENT COMMENT AND NEWS IN BRIEF

SMALL CHANGE

How many ladies who will read this are going to scan the column of the Congressional Record to find out what Congressman Rankin has to say? Now is the time to subscribe.

Some see in the "Austrian U-boat" note a convenient backdoor cut by Germany to expedite a getaway. If Uncle Sam's appearance at the front door, with a gun.

The very best way to start a war is to start a revolution. It is the only way to start a war. It is the only way to start a war. It is the only way to start a war.

If the Congressional union picketing incident is to be properly closed, let some statisticians figure up the time spent, and how much it would amount to in terms of some staple product of the country. The waste there was in the entire filibuster.

"There is a prevailing suspicion that the Thaw case is a mere money racket. A second time in the Thaw case to get the man out of the toils of the court, the Thaw case is a mere money racket. A second time in the Thaw case to get the man out of the toils of the court, the Thaw case is a mere money racket.

Tom Daly of the Philadelphia Ledger says that he has talked about the opportunity. "Did you know that when there was a vacant Massachusetts seat in the senate almost exactly 90 years ago the friends of Daniel Webster feared that if he left the house of representatives he would lose in prestige? Yes! But, said Edward Everett at that time, it is a comfort that the senate can never fall lower than it is now."

From the Christian Science Monitor. The United States has passed out of one of the most eventful and remarkable epochs in its history. It is not a new epoch, but a new epoch.

OREGON SIDELIGHTS

Work in improving the various streets of Heppner will be started, the Gazette Times says, just as soon as the weather moderates and some of the larger mudholes have dried up. The city has on hand $3000 for this work.

Beginning with its issue of March 8, the Gazette Times will be under the management of M. C. Athey, former editor and publisher of the Harney County Tribune. It will be his "constant aim to help make Jefferson county the most prosperous part of Oregon."

The taxes of Heppner, Wilson, a blind man residing in the vicinity of Melrose and who owns a small cottage in that vicinity, have been ordered cancelled by the county court of Douglas county, the Roseburg News says, as it was shown that he was unable, on account of his affliction, to pay the amount, which was not large.

"Children on roller skates may skate on the sidewalks but they must keep off the streets," was the sentiment of the city council last evening," says the Pendleton East Oregonian. The council has decided that the city walks developed that the children have some warm friends in the council, "Cordell Murphree, who is a fairly emphatic that he would not be a party to barring the kids from the sidewalks."

"It is not often that interest in community affairs exceeds expectations," says the Albany Herald in an editorial. "The Albany Commercial club, but last night, while it was expected that possibly 75 might attend, the number present was 154, and the number responded to be exact, 154 persons sought admittance to the meeting and a few had to be turned away because the hotel was not large enough."

The Sixty-fourth, like the Sixty-third congress, has enriched the statute book. President's legislation has been demanded by the whole House and the country, has been a much larger extent than the country realizes, has been accepted. Because other leadership hesitated, the Sixty-fourth congress has been a much larger extent than the country realizes, has been accepted.

Rather! TWO Massachusetts towns were building a bridge jointly, and a joint town meeting was being held to arrange the distribution of the financial burden. A small snail, taking the Evening Post, every man from Blakely was bound to look keenly after the interests of his own town and nobody from Peru could possibly be expected to do anything over words were exchanged between the watchdogs of the treasury on either side. Motives were questioned. In short, there was language. In short, there was language.

Whereupon a selectman of Peru replied: "Well, you've got your father."

A Clever Burro. A friend tells us the following about "Rowdy" burro he bought as a foal in Colorado and brought home to Massachusetts for his children, says Our Dumb Animals.

Rowdy was now an aged pensioner, but he has been a clever little pet and servant as one could wish. His friendship for the family cow has been one of the things which have helped his career. They used to stand side by side in the stable, and in the pasture would actually play tag. The cow began years ago with her rough tongue to lick Rowdy's neck, when he attempted to reciprocate the courtesy, his smooth tongue made no impression. This then is what we have seen him do a hundred times. He would stand by the cow, and with his teeth, and scratch the cow all about the eyes, and ears and horns.

"Can anyone call this instinct? Was such an idea tickled away in Rowdy's brain when he was a foal? Or was it his inheritance from generations of ancestral burros? That would seem out of the question. We are inclined to think that Rowdy thought out the stick idea for himself.

Team Steady; Wagon Skittish. While hauling a load of bark up Fourth street last Saturday morning the driver of a team of horses, says the Toledo Leader, as he was nearing the top of the hill, by Ira Wade's place, the wagon hammer worked out, allowing the driver to take a complete loose. The wagon, released from the horses, started on a mad rush down the hill. George sent out the "8. O. S." and jumped for safety. After a time the wagon, having slowed down, slowed out of the road, cranked short around, broke off a front wheel, and stopped, and stood patiently waiting while George approached and caught it.

The Sensible Course. Jimmy giggled when the teacher read the story of the man who swam across the river three times before breakfast.

"You do not doubt that a trained swimmer could do that, do you, Jimmie?" the teacher demanded.

"I wondered why he didn't make it four times and get back to the side his clothes were on."

"Never Is, but Always to Be." It looks as if we are going to live in our present home for a long time, says Claude Callan in the Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

"I wonder why he didn't make it four times and get back to the side his clothes were on."
