JAPANESE TO INTENSIFY THEIR FARMING OPERATIONS

Hood River, Or., March 19.—That the Japanese of Hood River county will give themelyes to intensified farming and make the most from the lands they own and have under lease, is certain from the report of "Kay", he local Japanese, who has been employed the local Japanese, who has been employed by local fruit interests to secure contracts from the Japanese in the valley for the handling of this season's strawberry crop.

"Ray" stated that he has secured contracts for the shipment of about 20,000 crates of strawberries for the Fruit Growers' Exchange this year. Heretofore, the local Japanese have been required to sign the English contracts but this year "Ray" has had contracts printed in the Japanese language which the berry growers understand and sign readily "Ray" stated that all of the Japanese will utilize the land between the trees in the orchard for the growing of various kinds of vegeables as good markets have been found for the various kinds to be grown. Heretotofore, nothing, practically except weeds, has been grown between the trees.
