

HAPPENINGS IN SOCIETY

MRS. DORSEY B. SMITH AND SON. PHOTO BUSHNELL.

KEY TO THE PICTURES

MISS FRANCES GILL, whose photograph is reproduced today, is the daughter of J. K. Gill. She has devoted her time largely to music and writing, and Portland society will be interested in her book of poems which will be published this summer.

The Saturday Subscription club, made up of about 30 young married couples of Rose City Park is giving a series of dances at Vincent Hall. Mrs. L. P. Richardson is president of the club.

One of the popular young matrons of Portland society who recently removed to her new home on Portland Heights and who is popular in the social affairs of that fashionable community, is Mrs. Dorsey B. Smith, whose photograph is reproduced today, with that of her little son, Dorsey von Behren Smith.

Mrs. Emerson McMillan (Hazelbelle Kelly) is a bride of the past week.

The Girls' National Honor Guard activities in Oregon are taking on more and more importance in these strained times, and hosts of prominent girls are taking an active part in their Red Cross and First Aid classes. Miss Lucile Danforth, second vice president of the Oregon chapter, who because of her recent illness, found it necessary to drop her duties for the present. In her recruiting campaign in Oregon towns, Miss Danforth has been most successful.

The dancing contingent in the school set was much interested in the Fleur de Lis Frolic which was given at the Irvington club house last evening. The committee was made up of representatives from the various high schools and colleges. Miss Imogene Seton was on the committee representing Reed college.

are stopping at the Multnomah hotel. They are taking up their residence in Portland and will be at the hotel until they are settled.

C. E. Arney, western immigration agent of the Northern Pacific railway, accompanied by Mrs. Arney, is registered at the Hotel Portland from Spokane.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Hogan (Agnes Albers) are receiving messages of congratulation on the arrival Thursday, March 15, of a baby daughter. Mrs. Hogan is at St. Vincent's hospital.

Jerome J. Day, one of the proprietors of Hotel Portland, and G. P. Mix, a prominent mining man, both of Moscow, Idaho, are registered at Hotel Portland.

Mrs. Rosecoe Pawcett, accompanied by her little son John, has returned home from a week's visit with her mother, Mrs. John W. Abbott, at Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gates of Astoria, are being felicitated on the arrival of a baby boy Wednesday, March 21. Mrs. Gates is with her mother, Mrs. Maud R. McMillan, at 1133 Cleveland avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Chitty, formerly of 269 Sherman street, of this city, have removed to Centralia, Wash., where they have purchased a home.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Karpfen and Miss Karpfen of Chicago are guests at Hotel Portland. Mr. Karpfen is a wholesale furniture dealer.

Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Rosenberg are being congratulated on the arrival of a son on Monday morning at the Portland Maternity hospital.

Miss Blanche Clapp of Grand Rapids, Mich., is the honor guest of Mrs. Lulu Ball, 1534 East Twelfth street north.

Mrs. H. Winkelman and daughter, Chester Adwen is visiting his grandfather, Thomas Farnham, in Los Angeles.

Mrs. William D. Scott has returned home from an extended visit at St. Paul.

Hurd's, Crane's and Whiting's stationery, Klumpp's, 326 1/2 Washington.

WEDDINGS

Albany, March 24.—The marriage of Miss Vesta Amelia Senders and Louis D. Summerfield was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents in this city at 8 o'clock Sunday evening, March 18.

The home was beautifully decorated with potted palms and the color scheme of pink and white was carried out by the use of white carnations and pink sweet peas.

The bride wore a beautiful gown of white charmeuse with veil and orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley.

Promptly at 6 o'clock the bride's sister, Mrs. Murray Marshall, sang "Oh, Promise Me." Then followed the Lohengrin wedding march, and the bride entered with her father, preceded by the bridesmaids, the Misses Helen Solomon and Carol Summerfield, the maid of honor, Miss Carrie Senders, and the flower girl, little Mary Virginia Marshall. The bridesmaids and maid of honor carried shower bouquets of pink sweet peas.

At the altar the bride was met by the bridegroom and his best man, Hugo Bettman. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rabbi Jonah B. Wise of Portland. Following the ceremony a wedding supper was served, Mr. and Mrs. Summerfield left on a late train for San Francisco

MRS. EMERSON McMILLAN (HAZELBELLE KELLY)

Forest Grove, became the bride of Henry Booth of Portland.

The ceremony took place in their own home, which the bridegroom had furnished and which was decorated for the occasion. The Rev. J. J. Staub, pastor of the Sunnyside Congregational church, officiated. The bride wore a charming gown of satin with an overdrape of spangled net and carried an arm bouquet of bride roses.

After the ceremony a buffet luncheon was served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roberts, Miss Wanda Austin and Master Vernon Austin of Forest Grove, Mrs. Kate Roberts, Mrs. Charles Booth, Mr. and Mrs. Will Booth, Miss Janet Booth, the Misses Ida, Helen and Kathleen Booth, all of Portland also Sam Weaver of Portland and Mrs. Jack Booth and Miss Betty Booth of Eugene.

The bride was a resident of Portland for many years, but of late has lived at Forest Grove. She has a wide circle of friends there.

The bridegroom is well known in Portland, having worked for the Portland Railway, Light & Power company for eleven years.

Mr. and Mrs. Booth will be at home

J. L. Bryan, Miss Isabel Chalmer, Miss Esther Hawkins, Miss Emily Roberts, Miss Dorothy Waugh, Miss G. A. Orth, Miss Lolah Barker, Miss Grace Bridge, Miss Keturah Likely, Mrs. Edna Allen, Mrs. Jean Park McCracken, Miss Zella Hazelton.

A St. Patrick party was given March 17 by Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Johnson at their home, 850 Woodworth avenue. The evening was spent in cards, after which luncheon was served. Selections were sung by Harry E. Hudson, accompanied by Mrs. Carl W. Ross. The honors fell to Mrs. J. L. Cordes and William Scougal. Those present included Mr. and Mrs. Ed Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Ross, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Looker, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Benson, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Cordes, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Perry, Miss May Moran, Miss Pearl Moran, Hovey E. Hudson, William Scougal, Miss Bertha Palmor and the host and hostess.

Mrs. Bentley and J. A. Westerlund, proprietor of the Holland hotel of Medford, were guests at Hotel Portland during the week.

Dr. and Mrs. Clayton Seaman are enjoying two weeks' vacation at Nye Beach, Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. Albion Kahler of Ashland, N. H., arrived in Portland Sunday, to spend some time with Mrs. Kahler's sister, Mrs. Maud C. Gilman.

W. E. Hacker, a prominent attorney of Tacoma, accompanied by Mrs. Hacker, is stopping at Hotel Portland.

Mrs. H. Winkelman and daughter,

Chester Adwen is visiting his grand-where they are spending their honeymoon.

Both young people are well known in this city. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Senders, and is a beautiful and talented young lady. Mr. Summerfield, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Summerfield, is a prominent young business man.

Guests from other cities were: Mr. and Mrs. Sig. Cohen, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Senders, the Misses Amy and Anita May, Mrs. G. Senders, and Mrs. Lois Senders, all of Portland; M. S. Cohen, Vancouver, Wash.; Phil Davies, Roseburg; the Misses Lena and Vada Newton, Corvallis, and Mrs. S. Cohen, Clarence, and Isabelle Defries, Mars.

Julian and Hugo Bettman, of Portland, Morris Summerfield, is a prominent young business man.

A pretty wedding took place March 17 when Miss Birdie Austin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roberts of to their friends at 500 East Thirty-sixth street after March 25.

A very pretty home wedding took place Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Moton, when the youngest daughter, Lulu, was married to Chester J. Seely, the Rev. Mr. Bowersox of the United Evangelical church officiating. Only the immediate relatives and friends were present.

(Continued on Following Page)

Pretty New Easter Clothes That Seem Made Just for "You"

Paris-Inspired

A Special Showing of Trimmed Hats Monday

$10.50

Would Regularly Sell for More

IF you're in search of the smartest and most becoming hat you ever bought for about Ten Dollars, surely it is worth coming to the Emporium Monday.

Our Store Is Crowded With Pretty Hats at All Prices!

Fully two thousand trimmed hats are displayed in our Main-Floor and Third-Floor sections. Surely there are not so many hats shown elsewhere in Portland? High-crown Hats with drooping brims seem most in favor now. You will find them made of Georgette crepe with tagal straw facings. This last week our trimmers have evolved a number of clever new hats with Leghorn facing, harbingers of Summer. Dainty flowers in wreath effects, combined with silk foliage, make the prettiest trimming.

You'll find our salespeople always glad to show hats without importuning you to buy. Welcome to the Emporium Monday.

THAT'S what "exclusiveness" means, isn't it? For seven years we have studied the whims of Portland women. Never were we so wonderfully prepared as this season, with just the suits, the dresses, the coats, the hats, that you want now. Visit the Emporium Monday!

This New Silk Sport Suit $29.50

Just as sketched. Printed colors in the new sports silks, resembling Khaki Kool. Large, pointed collar, new pouch pockets, sash belt, are some of the distinctive features.

A charming suit at $29.50.

Navy Blue Suits $19.50, $24.75, $29.50, $35

Scores of them—the most practical suits of all. We show them in tailored, semi-tailored and novelties. All the new style-touches. A wide assortment.

See the New Georgette Frocks $29.50

A beautiful frock of Georgette crepe, embroidered with silk floss and beading. Pearl gray, chartreuse, gold and bisque. $29.50.

Crepe de Chine Sports Dresses, $19.50

Smart combinations. White pleated skirt with a smart little coatee of rose or emerald. Very striking! $19.50.

A Handsome Coat at $35

Of chartreuse poplin, full lined, with heavy peau de cygne. Two box pleats at back give a stunning effect. Large collar, embroidered in black and gold. $35.

Jersey Sports Coats $15.50

The high school and college haunts will be gay with them! Clever style, green or gold, stitched in white. Deep pockets and belt.

In the Blouse Shop

You can always expect to find something new here!

Paisley Georgette Blouses $5.95

New Paisley effects, with vestee and trimming of maize. Large square collar, $5.95.

New Voile Blouses $2.45

Three very dainty new models ready Monday. Large flat collars embroidered and edged with lace. Another allover embroidered. Splendid value at $2.45.

How Many Want $100 Suits?

WE try to make this the store for the women who choose apparel that is neither low priced or extravagant.

If you are looking for a suit at $100, the Emporium cannot supply your needs. But if you want the widest selection and best value in a suit for $20, $25, $35 or $40, we know of no store which can better serve you.

The same will apply to our Millinery, our Coats, our Dresses, our Skirts. You have no doubt read of Skirts for $50. Now, really, who would want to wear a $50 Skirt? The Emporium has no $50 Skirts, but if you are looking for the prettiest Skirt at $5, $10, or $15, you'll find many of them here.

—Waists—the garment that every woman must have enough of for all occasions. Yet, you hear of Waists for $40, $50 and $60.

No. The Emporium does not and will not carry such exorbitantly priced goods. Many stores think they must buy them for show purposes. Usually they are sold at a loss, and the difference made up on lower-priced lines. You pay for no such foolishness at The Emporium.

Z. Swett

Wedding

Days ahead from mothers. High grade stock and work.

Engraved Wedding Invitations and Announcements. Social and Business Cards. Steel Die Embossed Personal, Lodge, Professional and Business Stationery. State kind of samples desired.

Phone Main 4-4542

Nitham

Northwest Corner Old St.