PORTLAND ASKED TO AID

EPWORTH LEAGUE TO

BEGIN "BIG DRIVE"

CAMPAIGN MAY

14

Missionary Department Is Receiving Calls From South America and Even Turbulent Mexico.

The Epworth league of the Methodist Episcopal churches throughout the world will begin what is known as a "big drive" on anniversary day, May This drive will last for two years and will close on anniversary Sunday, 1919. May 15, 1919, will be the thirtleth anniversary of the organization of the Epworth league, so the number 30 will appear several times in the drive's objective.

The goal that is aimed at is to (1) bring the total number of senior and junior chapters up to 30,000; (2), to secure 300,000 new membrrs; (3), to place 30,000 on the morning watch enrollment; (4), to secure an attendance of 30,000, at the annual league institutes; (5), to enroll 60,000 in mission and other league study classes; (6), to organize 2000 chapters into "Twenty-four Hour Day" leagues; (7), to secure 30,000 new subscribers to the "Epworth Herald"; (8) to secure 30,000 new subscribers to the devotional topic notes; (9), to enroll 60,-000 as Christian stewards or tithers: (10), to organize 1500 junior chapters into "Twenty-four Hour Day" leagues; (11), to secure 3000 new subscribers to the "Júnior Quarterly"; and (12), to secure 3000 life work pledges for the ministry or mission field work.

Portland Asked to Aid. This plan will probably be introduced in Portland when the district convention comes next month. There are about 400 Epworth league districts in the United States and the Portland district has been asked to assume its share.

There are about 10,000 Methodist roung people's organization in them. Many of these churches are in the country, but the plan of the drive also provides that workers shall be sermon we sent into the field to organize some Heb. 2:3. of these small churches.

"Twenty-four Hour Day" league is one that organizes its finances on the duplex envelope system, with one side for home work and the other for important business considered. Among less members, with 10 or more members giving two cents or more a week, on each side of the envelope, will be placed on the list of "Twenty-four Hour Day" leagues. Larger leagues took charge in October of last year will be counted in the same ratio, with 169 members have been added to the 10 on the honor roll for every 50 church roll.

South America Sends Call.

In the missionary department the church is planning for greater things at the close of the war. The central office of the league states that a cal for workers has now come from South America and that even turbulent Mexico is anxious for workers. Over 50,000 Epworthians reside in India and it is necessary to provide for the support of the ministers there. The general secretary of the league writes: "At the close of the war we shall have to reorganize our league work in Europe. It will need our utmost resources to meet the crying needs of that sorely smitten continent. Now if 3000 chapters will put themselves on this 'Twenty-four Hour Day' league basis for the world-wide work of the league we can make the league a world power. Never have we had such an opportunity as now."
