President of Wc. 1 Conference Is Returning From Tour of China, Japan and Korea

The Seventh-day Adventists of Western Oregon have already begun preparations for their mammoth campneeting to be held in Portland again his year, when between 1500 and 2000 persons will live in the tented city from May 29 to June 10. The encampment will consist of about 250 dwelling tents, and a dozen or more large pavilion tents to be pitched in Mclowan grove on the Mt. Scott car line. For the convenience of those from the ity who attend, the streetcar company has arranged to stop their cars n front of the grounds during the ne of the encampment. This will be known as Campground station. Several of the leading clergymen of he denomination will be in attendance rom different parts of the world. One whose presence will be quite conspicuous will be Elder Arthur G. Daniells, of Washington, D. C., president of the world conference of Seventh-day Adventists, who is now somewhere on the Pacific ocean returning from a seven months' tour of China, Japan and Korea, in the interests of the extensive missionary operations now be Portland Bible institute will hold its ing carried forward by his church in these countries. He is scheduled to arrive in San Francisco May 15, and plans to spend four or five days in Portland on his way east. While here he will give several illustrated lectures on his travels, and on the missionary activities in the orient

Elder H. W. Cottrell, president of the western Oregon conference of Seventh-day Adventists, says he expects this to be the largest and most important gathering of this people ever held in the Pacific Northwest, Services will be held each day in the English, German, Swedish, Danish and Norwegian languages, at $11, 2:30 and [45 o'clock. The evening meetings will be especially for the general pub lic, to which all are cordially invited

SUNDAY SCHOOLS OF

STATE TO HAVE TWO

Judging from the plans now practically consummated for the big twin conventions of the Oregon State Sunday School association, the gatherings are destined to be the biggest undertakings of their kind attempted in this state.

The array of speakers secured in cludes some of the most noted clergy men of Portland and of the state, Rev Joshua Stansfield, Rev. Calvin B. Wal ler, Rev. E. H. Pence and Rev. Dr. D. Springston are among the Portland ministers to address the delegates t the convention at Newberg and at Pendleton. The dates for the convention of the western Oregon town are May 16 to 18, inclusive, and for the convention in castern Oregon, May 18

The feature of the conventions will consist in having Marion Lawrence of Chicago, international general secretary, to speak.

His many friends in Portland have expressed themselves wager to see him again after an absence of more than nine years.

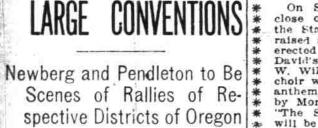

The delegates notifying Mrs. Walter Terill of their intention to attend the convention at Newberg and Mrs. S. Lowell of their intention to go to Pendleton, have been large.

Proves Interesting

The series of Sunday evening discourses at Westminster church, by Dr. Edward H. Pence, is proving very in-Dr teresting and attractive, as evidenced by the large attendances. This series of six discourses is a consideration of God in the Moral Crises of the Human Race." 7:45, the third of these discourses will be given on the subject; "The Strug-Dr. gles of Civilizations and Barbarisms." Every thinking person should take advantage of these studies by Dr. Pence, it is asserted, because of their profit to the human mind. At the morning service, at 10:30, Dr.

Pence will speak on "Keeping the Great Securities Safe." The communion of the Lord's supper will be observed. as also the receiving of some 40 membera into the covenant relation
