Music for dancing will be furnished by the Parker-Jazz Band orchestra.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Church Giesy (Edith I. Edminson) will leave Saturday for California, where Mr. Giesy will enter the officers' training camp at the Presidio, and Mrs. Giesy will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Edminson, in Oakland, until August.

The following note about prominent California society folk, which appeared in the San Francisco Chronicle last week, will interest their many Portland friends: "Mrs. Carter P. Pomeroy, who has been in the east for several months, will not return before the first of June, according to present plans. She is now with relatives in Morristown, N. J.

"Mrs. Thomas Scott Brooke (Christine Pomeroy) is motoring in the southern part of the state with friends."

Mrs. J. B. Montgomery will arrive in Portland, to pass the summer months, within a few weeks. She has been visiting during the winter with her daughters in New York and with relatives in Washington city.

Miss Sallie Hart entertained Thursday afternoon at her home in Riverdale with an informal bridge of two tables in compliment to Miss Helen Ladd. The house was decorated with sprays of fruit blossoms and spring flowers.

Mrs. John Rupp of Saginaw, Mich., and her daughter, Miss Betty Rupp, arrived last week, having come west for the marriage of her son, Norman Rupp, to Miss Margaret Mears, which will be a fashionable event of May 22 at Trinity church. Mrs. Rupp and her daughter will join Mr. Rupp at the Alexandra Court. Miss Mears Rupp, who has been visiting her brother for some time and has been sharing in the many prenuptial parties given for the bride-to-be, is the house guest of Miss Jean Mackenzie.

Mrs. John Napier gave a bridge tea yesterday afternoon at her home in Riverwood for Miss Genevieve Brooke, who with her mother, Mrs. Edward H. Brooke, is visiting the latter's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Hunt C. Lewis. Mrs. Brooke and her daughter have been in the east and south during the winter months. They will leave next week accompanied by Mrs. Lewis for Del Monte for a two weeks' stay and will return to Portland to visit until the end of June when they will go east to pass the summer at Lake Placid club in the Adirondacks. Mr. and Mrs. Richard V. Look (Marguerite Brooke) of Toronto, Canada, will join them there for the summer.

There is much interest in Portland in the marriage which took place in Chicago Thursday afternoon, when Miss Irene Pokorney Stein and Herbert L. Frank of Portland were married at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stein, 929 Lake-side place, at 4 o'clock. Only relatives were present and the couple stood under a simple, as the bridegroom is in mourning for his father, the late A. L. Frank of San Francisco.

Mr. Frank is a prominent Portland man with hosts of friends here. He is a brother of Mrs. Henry Ottenheimer. His bride will be welcomed back to Portland by a host of admiring friends, as she recently left Portland, after a three months' visit with her uncle, Ludwig L. Pokorney. She was feted continuously and made scores of friends, who are anticipating her return to the city to make her home. She is an exceptionally pretty and charming girl.

Mrs. John D. Twoby gave a luncheon of 10 covers Thursday afternoon in a most charming manner. An orchestra will play for the interpretative dancing. The date will be announced later.

For Miss Katherine Ecob of New York, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sawyer gave a dinner dance Wednesday evening at their residence on Portland Heights. About 25 guests were in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. John Daly left Friday for a few days' visit at Gearhart park and Seaside.

Monday evening, following the lecture by Dr. Ralph C. Matson, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Starr entertained the following guests at the supper dance at the Multnomah hotel: Mr. and Mrs. J. P. O'Brien, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman O'Gorman, Miss Sarah Patrick and William Healy.

Trinity Episcopal Church guild held the annual meeting and election of officers last week, when Mrs. Warren Keeler was elected to the presidency for this year. Mrs. George B. McLeod vice-president, Mrs. M. H. Lamond secretary, and Mrs. I. D. Peters treasurer. The last meeting of this year will be held on the first Wednesday in June. The guild has decided to spend the summer sewing for the Red Cross, and in the fall will carry on its usual plans for the annual bazaar, unless it is found that some other work is more necessary.

Saturday, May 5, was an extremely busy day at the Portland Hunt club in Garden Home. The last scheduled paper chase of the season had its start from the club grounds, and at the conclusion of the ride quite a few came back for tea. Tuesday, May 5, Mrs. Morris H. Whitchose entertained with a bridge luncheon. Her guests were Mrs. George Marshall, Mrs. C. H. Davis Jr., Mrs. Clarence Jacobson, Mrs. Chester J. Murphy, Mrs. Ralph C. Matson, Mrs. Gay Lombard and Mrs. J. A. Dougherty.

Wednesday, Mrs. W. L. Wood had a party of six for tea. Miss Flandels, Mrs. Montague, Mrs. Nicol and Mrs. M. L. Flandels also enjoyed a cup of tea after a pleasant ride around Garden Home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Scott (Nancy Zan) have returned from their wedding trip and are domiciled at the Mallory.

Saturday evening, May 5, the Heilig theatre was filled to capacity with an enthusiastic audience for the complimentary recital given by pupils of Mrs. Rose Courson-Reed. The singers, many of whom made their debut in song recital before a Portland audience, were accorded a splendid reception and were showered with flowers. The Treble Clef club, an organization of many years' standing which has a decided place in Portland musical circles, assisted with several groups of songs. Mrs. Reed directing. Mrs. Reed, too, received beautiful flowers, the occasion rivaling a graduation in the wealth of lovely blooms which were banked on the stage behind the singers. The boxes were filled with groups of guests and many line parties were also noted.

A program of unusual interest will be given at the Louise circle, Monday afternoon, from 3 to 5 o'clock, at the Virginia Hill hotel, Fourteenth and Jefferson streets.

Among the numbers on the program are solos by Mrs. Fay Huntington, Mrs. Herman Bohmann and Charles Arthur. Violin selections by Miss Barbara Lull and readings from her own book of poems by Miss Frances Gill. All friends of the circle are invited to attend the tea.

At a dancing party Thursday evening, given by Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Ralston, at their residence on Portland Heights, the engagement of their daughter, Miss Hazel Ralston, to Ensign Arthur D. Struble was announced. About 30 young people, friends of the couple, were present, and the announcement caused a ripple of surprise among the guests, as the engagement was not expected at this time. Mr. Struble is on the U. S. S. Glacier, supply ship for the Pacific squadron, and the wedding will take place within a short time, although the date is not yet set. Miss Ralston is a beautiful girl, with hosts of friends. She was graduated from the old Portland academy, later attended Mount Vernon seminary, and finished at the University of Oregon, where she was graduated. She is a Delta Delta Delta sorority girl. Mr. Struble is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Struble. He is popular in a large circle of friends in Portland, where he attended school, winning his appointment to Annapolis before he finished his course at the Lincoln high through his exceptionally high standing in his studies. Mrs. Ralston and her daughter left Friday for San Francisco, where the wedding will take place within two weeks.

A novel and enjoyable party was given Monday afternoon by Mrs. Charles E. Runyon at her home in Ladd's addition. She had 10 tables at military whist with every detail of the decorations and the dainty collation served at tea time carried out in patriotic red, white and blue. Intermingled with the many flags that adorned the room were clusters of cherry blossoms and dogwood. The honors at cards went to Mrs. A. E. Jackson, Mrs. William A. Shea, Mrs. Frederick Austen, Mrs. Harvey Wells, Mrs. William F. Flebig and Mrs. W. F. Wiggins.

The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Flebig, Mrs. Bert W. Denison, Mrs. B. Runyon, her mother, Mrs. Bishop, and her sister, Mrs. Richard D. Cannon.

Mrs. Isaac Patterson Richardson entertained recently at her home in Rose City park with seven tables at military whist. Flags of all nations decked the rooms and were used for scoring at the card tables. The winning fort was held by American flags, high score being won by Mrs. Rockwell Carey, Mrs. Charles Neil, Mrs. Frederick Drake and Mrs. Bert W. Henry. Mrs. Richardson's guests included: Mrs. W. H. Ambler, Mrs. S. Allegrain, Mrs. E. C. Ashbaugh, Mrs. B. E. Brooks, Mrs. R. W. Carey, Mrs. J. B. Camathan, Mrs. George Carlson, Mrs. C. B. Duffy, Mrs. S. C. Elliott, Mrs. B. J. H. Thomson, Mrs. W. R. Whitaker, Mrs. Oglesby Young, Mrs. C. F. Zeutebauer, Mrs. C. F. Neil.

Misses Florence and Mary Holmes, daughters of Mrs. Edith Knight Holmes, left Friday for Corvallis, where they will be extensively entertained at week-end affairs planned by O. A. C. Saturday evening they were guests at the formal dance given at Cuthorn hall and Saturday morning they attended the breakfast given at the Dick Kiger country place, near Corvallis, by the girls of the Zeta Alpha Omicron sorority of O. A. C., of which Miss Florence Holmes is a member. The latter affair was planned as a compliment to Bishop Walter T. Sumner. The Misses Holmes will be guests at the Kiger home over Sunday.

Mrs. Herbert Garr Reed has as her house guests her sister, Mrs. Edwin Glenn Drain of Tacoma, with her two children, Madeleine Sue and Edwin Glenn Jr. They will pass two weeks with Mrs. Reed, leaving the end of next week. Mrs. Drain is the mother of Miss Helen Drain, who has been passing the winter with Mrs. Reed.

The Saturday Dinner Dance club will meet Saturday evening of this week at the Hotel Portland. The affair will be formal and most of the guests will attend the dance to be given later by Mr. and Mrs. George C. Love at Murlark hall.

The choir of Immaculate Heart parish tendered a delightful surprise for Miss Esther Hogan at her home in Irvington last Wednesday evening. "500" was played, the prize winners being Mrs. Catherine Covach-Fredrich, and Stanley Bacon. After refreshments the guests enjoyed singing and dancing. Miss Hogan is a popular and well known contralto soloist and has been heard in several concerts recently. Those who enjoyed the evening were Mrs. C. L. Hogan, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Fredrich, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Nonken, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thomlinson, Misses Ethel Mahony, Marie Marpet, Catherine Frayne, Addie Thayer, Christie Deslata, Helen Hogan, Cora Jones, Irvine, Miss Veila Winner, Mr. and Mrs. C. Bouton, Mr. and Mrs. N. U. Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Howland and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. George Arnold.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Love's dancing at Murlark hotel Saturday evening, May 5, was a most enjoyable affair. Two hundred guests were assembled. The ballroom was gaily decorated with blossoms of spring and society features were introduced. At midnight taps were sounded and the party brought to a close by all standing at attention and singing the "Star Spangled Banner." A committee brought forth requests that another party should be given, so Saturday evening, May 19, was chosen as the date for an extra party. Patrons and patronesses for the last party were Messrs. and Mesdames Robert Krohn, Robert S. Farrell, C. B. Clarke, Charles

A. Shea, W. G. Lloyd, Fred L. Hartman, Ralph H. Mitchell, C. E. Erwin, A. W. Brookings, Dr. and Mrs. William Shea, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Miller, Dr. and Mrs. M. G. McCormick, Jack F. Hoban, W. H. Guild, W. E. Kieran, B. C. Darnall and F. S. Penfield.

Miss Nina Louis Greathouse presented Miss Beth Ludlum in a short story recital at her studio, 512 Columbia building, West Park and Washington streets, Saturday evening, May 13, at 8:15. Mrs. Bernice Donald Stewart, vocalist, assisted Miss Ludlum. The program was as follows: Monologue, "In a Restaurant"; "How it Happened" (Marjorie Benton Cooke), (a) "Little Cousin Jasper," (b) "The Woman's Wednesday," Miss Ludlum; vocal solo (selected), Mrs. Bruce Donald Stewart; Mrs. Roy T. Brookings, accompanist; "Miss Civilization" (Richard Harding Davis), "The Lie" (Annie Hamilton Donnell), "Unforgotten" (Robert Service), Miss Ludlum.

Thursday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Hickey entertained with a dancing party for about 60 friends at the Harlow Grady hall. Assisting in receiving were Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Stings and Miss Nellie Beth Hickey. A few tables were arranged at cards for of the ushers, but he was called to the officers' training camp in San Francisco.

Dr. Otto F. Keeping Business Going for Our Country's Sake

This is the patriotic slogan recently published in all the eastern papers by the world-famous merchant, John Wanamaker. He appeals for sanity in American business during the early days of the war. He urges that we KEEP MONEY IN CIRCULATION! KEEP EMPLOYMENT FOR EVERYBODY! KEEP WAGES GOOD! KEEP ON MAKING MONEY THAT WE MAY HAVE MONEY FOR WAR SACRIFICES!

He says that the worst thing that could happen to the world these days would be business depression in our United States. This is indeed true and for that reason we are coming to you at this time with this appeal. KEEP UP THE PROSPERITY OF THE NORTHWEST. There are many ways in which this can be done, but by far the greatest of these is the spending of our money in the section in which it is made.

Now we as merchants of Portland urge you to spend your money this year for the things you need as you would if conditions were different. It is imperative! The business of this great Northwest can grow and remain healthful only when the people of this section buy and keep money in circulation — the money put in circulation here will make money here.

Let us, therefore, work for each other's interests—we will keep our prices as low as possible with a legitimate profit—we urge you to do your part. Let us increase our employees' salaries to meet the present conditions—let us all advocate the KEEPING UP OF THE PROSPERITY OF THE NORTHWEST FOR EACH OTHER'S SALES.
