IT WAS SOME GAME, BUT---WHISPER IT, BO! THE BEAVERS LOST IT

There May Have Been Jinx in That Brunette in the Grandstand—Perhaps So.

By R. A. Cronin.

Holy smoke! What a ball game! There are more sore lungs and ruined vocal cords in Portland today than if Woodrow Wilson had come to town. Even if the Beavers did not make it five straight, the fans got a run for their money. They saw nearly all the ball players in uniform in action; they saw Jack Ryan throw ball after ball, and they saw Bill Fincher, with two out in the tenth, explode like an incendiary shell and, finally, they saw the Angels break a losing streak of eight straight games and the Beavers a winning streak of seven.

Yes, indeedy, it was SOME ball game and the score was 8 to 5.

Vat Is der Reason?

Maybe the jinx was the flashy brunette in the back part of the grandstand, who rolled out to the park in a big car all dolled up in white and cerise and who slept through the whole performance until the titanic outburst in the last half of the ninth awakened her. Between craning necks at the ball players and the vision in the pinkish raiment, the offices of the osteopaths will be full today.

Frank Chance had apparently solved the "Mystery of the Three H's"—Houck, Harrington and Helfrich up to the ninth, when suddenly Brown took an ascension and Ryan could do no better, leaving it up to the ancient and honorable Otis Crandall to pull the game out of the flames after the Beavers had tied the count at 5 to 5 on a hit, an error and four walks.

They're Off, Neck and Neck.

Both clubs got away with a brace of runs in the first inning. Maggert cracked one to center off Houck and "Comrade" Vaughn sacrificed. Schultz, who was a batting demon, doubled to center and scored on Ellis' single to center.

For the locals, Hollocher walked and Pinelli, who started the game at third when Rodgers arrived late from an auto demonstration trip, laid down a beautiful sacrifice. Wilie scratched a hit through Brown and Stumpf, playing right field in the general shifting due to Farmer's lame ankle, moved the pair along with an out, Holly checking in. Wilie scored on Borton's single to center.

Angels Hop on Houck.

The Angels hopped all over Houck in the sixth and apparently had the game iced. Schultz and Meusel singled to center and Ellis sacrificed. Bassler was purposely walked. Then Gleichmann raised a long fly to Wilie in left and Schultz beat the throw home. Bobby Davis delivered a single to left center and two more runs were counted. Brown made the third out.

McCredie resolved to take a look at Lefty Harrington in the seventh and eighth and the southpaw pitched shutout baseball until Farmer unsuccessfully pinched for him in the eighth, striking out. Helfrich retired the Angels in the ninth and that leads us up to Portland's section of that fateful frame.

Beavers Take a Brace.

It didn't look promising after Stumpf fouled out and the Beavers were three runs to the bad, but Borton poled his third single to center. Williams drew a pass and Davis messed up Siglin's grounder, filling the bases. Then Old Man Pandemonium broke loose.

Brown went up in the air and could not get the ball over to Sepulveda, forcing Borton home. Bill Fincher was announced as batting for Helfrich and Chance came back with old Jack Ryan as the pitcher.

Thereupon McCredie sent Fincher to the "bull pen" and heliographed Fisher to do the batting. Gus raised a fly to Muesel, but nobody could advance. Then Ryan went all to the wild and wooly, walking both Hollocher and Rodgers and tying up the count.

Otis Takes the Mound.

On came the grizzled O. Crandall with his spitball. A strike was called on Wilie. Then Dennie fouled off a high one that might have gone for a ball. Three balls were pitched in succession and then, with the runners on the bags hitting it up at full speed, Crandall got a spitball over that Wilie swung on—and missed.

Now we are in the tenth and Schultz is out from a pop fly to Fincher and Hollocher has thrown out Meusel.

Biff! Biff! Biff! Biff! and the echo —Biff! Biff! Biff! Biff! as four solid smacks from the bats of Ellis, Bassler, Gleichmann and Davis hit the outer garden turf or fence. Those of Rube and Gus were doubles. It was mostly first ball hitting and three runs were over when Crandall came up to bat and retired the Seraphic side.

Kenny Lets Them Go.

Crandall caused Stumpf and Borton to hit up in the air in the tenth and Williams, with two strikes, fouled off half a dozen. Finally Otis shot one across, Ken held his bat on his shoulder, military fashion, and, after a slight hesitancy, Umpire Phyle called it a strike.

The Beavers won four out of five and the two clubs are now enroute south, the Angels to pick on the Vernonites and the Beavers to cross bats with the Seals. The score:

San Francisco, May 14.—(I. N. Block and Doty starred for the Maroons.

In a nip-and-tuck battle the Camas Blues defeated the Kirkpatrick Stars Sunday at Camas by the score of 4 to 3. Smith and Duback formed the battery for the winners and the Boland brothers did the heavy work for the lodgemen.

MOTOR REGATTA FULL OF THRILLS FOR SPECTATORS

Willamette Bug Carries Off Honors in Free-for-All Event.

The opening regatta of the Portland Motor Boat club Sunday was a huge success. Over 1000 people witnessed the events, which provided a number of thrills.

Orlo Kendall's Willamette Bug walked off with the honors in the free-for-all event, second place going to the Pacifica coast champion, Vogler Boy III, which was unable to travel at top speed on account of a broken gasoline pipe. In an exhibition run later the Vogler Boy III averaged 55 miles per hour.

In the runabout handicap for boats of the 15 mile and over class, Jane K, owned by C. H. Nye, was first, and Gus Gade's Gee Whiz was second. Doughnut, owned by A. A. Hoover, won the runabout handicap for boats in the under 15 mile class. Thistle was second and Neverin third.

M. B. Henderson's cruiser, Elsinore, won the cruiser handicap by a margin of two laps, with the Sea Wolf second and the Peggy II third. In a special match race the Sea Wolf defeated the Elsinore. First place in the backing up contest was won by the Golden West. Neverin was second and Wawego third.

Miss Emma Royle was first in the surfboard riding contest, and second honors were won by Miss Connie West.

"Ted" Meredith believes Howard Berry of University of Pennsylvania is the greatest all-round performer the track game ever has produced.

Forty Prisoners at Mt. Angel Ball Game

Mount Angel, May 14.—Mount Angel college won another victory in a clash with the Grays of the Oregon state penitentiary. The game was nip and tuck all the way through, with the crowd of fans ready to swarm the field in their excitement. It stretched out to 10 innings until Coghlan's spectacular home run in the last of the tenth won the game for the collegians. There were several costly errors on both sides that might have been avoided. Sohler and Chapel were the battery for Mount Angel, Davitt and Hunt for the Grays. Score: Mount Angel 7, Grays 6.

It is without precedent that a crowd of 40 leave the state penitentiary with only a superintendent and two wardens. It is the result of the honor system lately reintroduced. The men behaved like gentlemen in every respect, and took and gave much good-natured raillery. Although defeated, they left in high spirits after their holiday. Superintendent Murphy has made a great success with his honor system, as such incidents clearly testify.

Racing Pigeon Race Close.

The Oregon Racing Pigeon club race from Tenino to Portland Sunday was one of the closest in the club's history, C. Torgensen's bird winning from Jimmy Dunn's entry by a narrow margin. The results:

C. Torgensen	840.19	E. Kinderman	784.00
Jimmy Dunn	840.10	E. A. Schaefer	743.00
E. H. Bauer	824.00	A. Jorg	705.00
C. E. Hinshaw	791.00

Nebraska Is Winner.

Minneapolis, May 14.—(I. N. S.)—Nebraska defeated Minnesota Saturday in a dual track meet, 66 to 59, in what will be the last inter-collegiate event at Minnesota this season, and probably the last until peace is declared. The Gophers fought the Nebraska men up to the relay, which decided the contest in favor of the visitors.

GIANTS AND RED SOX LEADING IN MAJOR LEAGUES

Eastern Teams Off in Front; Western Clubs Must Show More Class.

By H. C. Hamilton.

New York, May 14.—(U. P.)—On top of war and weather, the walloping east is now threatening baseball. The Giants and Red Sox are making a runaway affair of the two big league races the early spring going, when it is generally recognized the west must break into the world series again if this classic is to be kept alive.

The New Yorkers have uncoiled a percentage of .722 and the Cubs, in second place, are plodding along at .684 today. The Red Sox are even more predominant, with a record of .714 against the Yankees' .571.

War conditions are bad for baseball; weather conditions are kicking the grand old game. But a world series between these two eastern teams would do more than either of these agencies to lower popularity.

Not since the days of the old Cubs and Pirates has a western club had a crack at a world's pennant. Western fans have sworn off paying railroad fare to the east for their world series games.

The White Sox gave promise and the Cardinals and Cubs have been wandering around the top of the percentage list, but an actual slant at the happenings really gives them little chance at a championship unless they produce more than exhibited to date.

400,000 of those spunky neighborly alarm clocks — the cost $1,000,000

Surely 400,000 of us like to pound the pillow o' mornings and beat the time-clock by a second's fraction. For $1,000,000 the 400,000 of us could be up bright and early. Ready—for work.

But let us see what $1,000,000 will do for us in our pleasure hours. Take the OWL Cigar whose mellow fragrance is insured by an investment of $1,000,000 or more.

$1,000,000 worth of reserve leaf must be constantly curing in the OWL Warehouses. For, you know, it takes long months to make OWL leaf "ready" in fragrance. And no less than $1,000,000 would suffice to keep that pledge—always.

A nearby cigar store holds forth its invitation to try an OWL—for 5c. And we join our "thank you" to the "thank you" of the man behind the counter.
