

QUERY, 'DO YOU CLAIM EXEMPTION?' CAUSES STORM OF PROTESTS

Congressional Action for Its Elimination From Draft Blanks Is Possible.

EFFECT ON DRAFT FEARED

Judge Advocate General of Army, Who Prepared Blank, Will Answer Critics, to Alleviate Ill Feeling.

Washington, May 24.—(U. N. S.)—An avalanche of protests against the question, "Do you claim exemption?" in the registration blanks for conscription swept into the capital today. Congressional action to eliminate the obnoxious query and prevent its unpopular effect upon the draft is probable. Many senators and representatives joined with Senator Chamberlain of Oregon, chairman of the senate military affairs committee, in condemning the question. They took the view that the question violates the spirit and the purpose of the conscription bill by "passing the buck" to the individual. The conscription bill was designed to leave the question of liability to service to the government to decide and to relieve the individual of the responsibility of determining his military obligation.

Senator Chamberlain declared that the answers to the first 11 questions in the registration blanks automatically determine a man's liability to service and the only possible effect of the twelfth question would be to stamp him as a "slacker." General Crowder, judge advocate general of the army, who directed the preparation of the registration blank, is preparing an answer to the criticisms of the question and hopes to allay the ill feeling in congress before it takes form in the adoption of a resolution calling upon the war department to recall the printed blanks for redrafting.

General Crowder says that the answers to the question are intended to serve as a guide to the local tribunals in deciding liability to service. Senator James Hamilton Lewis, Democratic whip of the senate, has frequently warned the senate that unless some of the erroneous impressions prevailing through the middle west are promptly dispelled the administration will have a very serious handicap in executing the draft in that section.

EXEMPTIONS WILL BE GRANTED ONLY AFTER DRAFT IS COMPLETED

Washington, May 24.—(U. P.)—Exemptions from army service will be granted after registration and draft and not before. Everyone between the ages of 21 and 30, including those who register, the latter limit ends only with the thirty-first birthday. With registration day plans well under way, the war department has turned attention to exemptions, exclusions and discharges from the draft. Exemptions claims will be considered by special boards appointed by the president. These boards will function under the law and under regulations prescribed by the president. No exemptions will be made until the registration is complete. Determination of exemptions, the war department emphasized today, "is a second step, quite separate from registration." The provost marshal general said regarding exemption machinery: "From the lists of persons registered names will be subsequently be drawn by lot by the fairest system that can be devised."

"Persons whose names are drawn and others interested will be given an opportunity to present claims for exemption, exclusion or discharge from the draft and to support such claims by evidence." "Regulations governing the determination of exemptions, exclusions and discharges will, when promulgated, be made available to all concerned at the offices of the local boards. Until such regulations have been promulgated, further information cannot be given, as it might later prove misleading, and even after the regulations have been made public, the decision concerning exemptions, exclusions and discharges in individual cases cannot be made by this office (provost marshal general) since the law provides that all such cases shall be determined by the boards to be established for that purpose."

President of China Dismisses Premier

Peking, May 24.—(U. N. S.)—President Li Huan Hung Wednesday issued a mandate dismissing Premier Tuan Chi Jui. The reason given was that the entire cabinet had already resigned and that without a ministry the premier's position was untenable. Immediately after the dismissal of Tuan Chi Jui the president appointed Dr. Wu Ting Fang, former minister to the United States, to be acting premier. The latter was authorized to organize a new ministry. In some quarters the president's action was heralded as bringing to an end the hesitating policy with regard to a declaration of war on Germany. Since the decision, however, is in the hands of parliament the view prevails in well informed circles that the action will not materially change the situation.

Superfluous Hair, Roots And All, Quickly Go!

(Absolutely New Home Method) For the first time in a hundred years a genuinely effective method of removing unsightly hairy growth has been discovered. The new phelaine process does not mean taking off the hair-ends; it actually removes the roots! It does this instantly and harmoniously, without using anything like the depilatory, electrical or other methods. Phelaine is non-odoriferous, non-poisonous, non-irritating. Follow the simple instructions, and have the satisfaction of seeing the roots themselves removed at last. If not perfectly satisfied the purchase price will be returned to you.

PUPILS TO HEAR GRAND ARMY VETERANS

Memorial day speeches by the Grand Army of the Republic veterans, which have become an annual feature in Portland's public schools, will be made this year with special impressiveness. Next Tuesday at 1 o'clock delegations of the old soldiers will visit each of the schools, excepting St. Johns, Central and North and East schools, which will be visited Friday, May 25, at 11 o'clock; and Portsmouth, Peninsula, Oakley Green and Kenton schools at 2 o'clock on that day. Student talent will furnish entertainment features for the speakers.

Pendleton Cavalry Troop at Strength Mounted Unit Reaches Peace Footing and Now Awaits Inspection and Acceptance; Will Become Troop B. Pendleton, Or., May 24.—Pendleton's troop of cavalry, actual recruiting for which began Monday, reached full peace footing Wednesday and will become Troop D, second battalion, O. N. G. as soon as Captain Joyce arrives to inspect it. A number of other volunteers who had been in Athena and Pilot Rock country working, came in to bring the total to 70. A number of others will probably be taken in Thursday in order to give margin for rejections after physical examinations.

Franklin Students Cleanup Campus Sophomores won the prize for the best work done about the campus as well as coming off victorious in the class rush of "Clean Up" day held at Franklin high school Wednesday. The work done by the sophomores was on the driveway running from the stadium and back of the gymnasium and which was filled with a large amount of debris. The prize offered for the work was ice cream cones for the whole class paid for by the student association. In announcing the winner, Professor M. H. White, chairman of the judging committee, said the work was mostly done by the girls. In the class rush the sophomores succeeded in placing their flag in the top of a tall fir tree near the gymnasium and successfully defending it against the onslaught of the other classes. Professor J. A. Van Gress was chairman of the faculty committee in Arrests Made as Forest Fire Result St. Paul, May 24.—(U. P.)—Arrests have been made and more are expected to follow on charges of starting forest fires which have destroyed thousands of dollars' worth of timber in northern Minnesota. This was revealed after a secret session of the public-safety commission with St. Forester Cox, who has been personally investigating rumors of incendiary charges of the work, consisting of Miss A. H. Collier, Miss Mary Betz and J. M. Dillon. The members of the judging committee were H. W. White, J. A. Melendy and Emily Johnston. In making their decision, method, organization and number at work were taken into account. The students who aided in supervising the work were: S. Rodgers, captain of the freshmen; Clifford Reed for the juniors; William Marill for the sophomores and Arthur Mackenzie for the seniors. In the afternoon an interclass track meet took place.
