

W. WARREN APPEALS TO VOTERS TO SERVE THEIR CITY AT POLLS

Forget War Long Enough to Go to Polls and Vote; Vote for Someone, Advice.

FULL VOTE IS ESSENTIAL

Candidate for Mayor Issues Appeal to People of Portland, and Points to Patriotic Duty.

Will H. Warren, one of the seven candidates for mayor, today issued the following appeal to citizens to go to the polls and vote next Monday:

To the People of Portland: I call your attention to the fact that the issues of the election are before you for decision at the election to be held next Monday.

I am not speaking merely as a candidate for mayor, but fully as much as a citizen who has a deep interest in the welfare of Portland to be of great concern to all loyal citizens.

Therefore, I trust that what I have to say here will be taken in the spirit in which it is given and that it may result in some good in that city.

War Diverts Attention

Owing to the war and the general condition which has prevailed for a long time, this city election has been sorely overlooked by large numbers of our citizens; they have been so busy with other things that they have not voted to it anywhere near the study that former elections have received.

It was apparent that there is a general lack of that intense interest which has prevailed in other years at election time. The crowds at meetings have not been large, thus indicating that there is a very large number who have not been in attendance, although all of the candidates have spoken scores and some of them hundreds of times all over the city.

People Urged to Vote

While I am one of the seven candidates for mayor, my main purpose in addressing the people at this time is to urge the necessity of every man and woman going to the polls next Monday and registering their votes on that day.

There should be a heavy vote; matters of such great importance as choosing a mayor and two commissioners and deciding measures of perhaps even weightier import should receive careful attention. The crowds at meetings, I believe, should be nearly as large as at the time of the last election.

No special effort will be made to induce these persons to obey the law, the provisions of which they all apparently understand, but the letters will all be turned over to the department of justice and if the writers do not register next Tuesday they will be arrested at once.
