

"IT'S ALL HERE
and IT'S ALL TRUE"

Oregon Daily Journal

DAILY
SHE FLIES
ON HER OWN WINGS

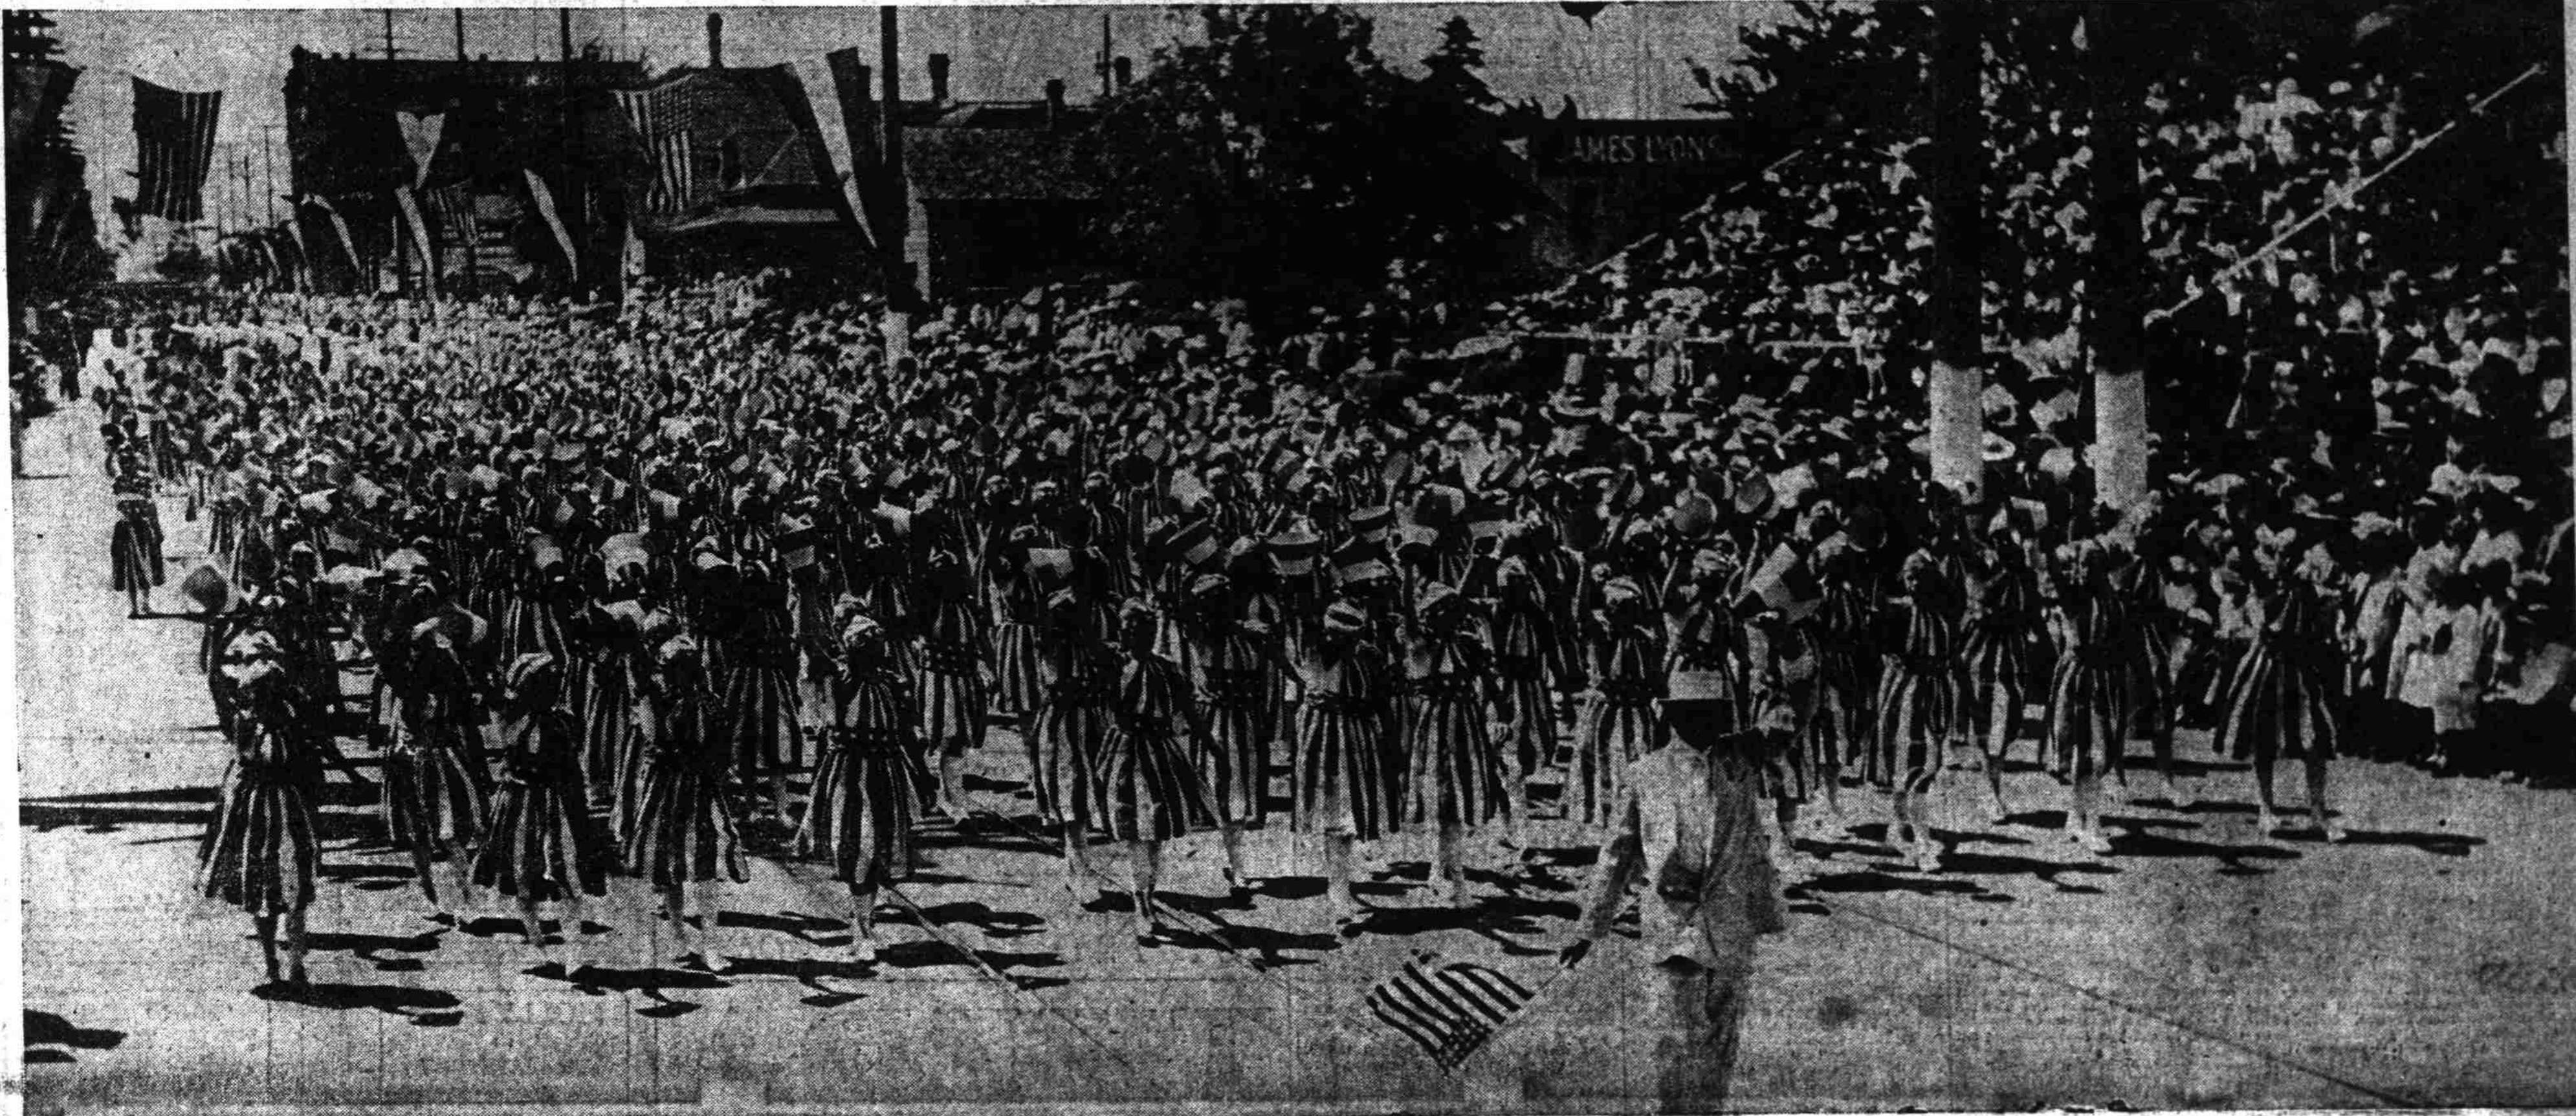

THE WEATHER
Fair tonight and tomorrow; easterly winds. Humidity, 25.

VOL. XVI. NO. 27.

PORTLAND, OREGON, WEDNESDAY EVENING, JUNE 13, 1917.—EIGHTEEN PAGES.

PRICE TWO CENTS. ON TRAINS AND NEWS
STANDS FIVE CENTS

Beautiful Human Rosebud Parade Is Great Event of Festival's Opening Day

OREGON QUOTA FOR BONDS NOW IS OVER FILLED

Total for State Certain to Exceed $10,000,000 or Far in Excess of Amount Required of Oregonians.

*****
Effect Abroad Important
It is no more than we expected that the loan is over-subscribed, said B. Lee Barnes, vice president of the United States National bank, in commenting on today's figures. "The most important feature of the over-subscription is the impression it will give our allies abroad, and conversely, the impression it will give our enemies. There would be some strange comment about the United States, should the nation fail to subscribe this loan."
*****

Oregon's quota of the Liberty loan has been largely over-subscribed and there is no doubt that tonight's recapitulation will show that the state has contributed more than ten million dollars to the government's war budget.

At noon partial reports from a number of west side banks added to the total subscriptions from the city and the state up to midnight Tuesday gave a grand total of $9,728,550, leaving less than two hundred and seventy-five thousand dollars for the balance of the day in order to make $10,000,000.

Corporations to File Lists
This amount was assured. The O. W. R. & N. railroad, the General Electric company, the Northwest Steel company and the S. P. & S. railroad all promised to file their subscriptions with the banks Wednesday afternoon. It was anticipated that the total subscribers of the first three will equal $175,000. The S. P. & S. railroad furnished a tentative estimate of nearly $80,000 as its total. These subscriptions are for the most part the individual amounts taken by employees of the concerns mentioned.

All of this stands above the great volume of regular business from the public at large that was going through the banks. All the banks had one or several clerks doing nothing else but taking Liberty loan applications Wednesday.

Buyers Stand in Lines
Would be buyers were lined up 10 and 12 deep waiting to file out the blanks. It is certain, from bank reports, that the total from these regular sources will go above $200,000.

Portland's showing in comparison with the other big cities of the Pacific coast is a splendid one. No other
(Continued on Page Sixteen, Column Two)

France Ready To Sign Treaty With Russians

Formal Announcement of Policy Follows Request for Statement of Aims in War.

Petrograd, June 13.—(U. P.)—France formally notified Russia today that she stands ready to make new agreements with the democratic government covering the two nations' future cooperation in the war.

The notification is in response to the provisional government's recent call upon old Russia's allies to restate their war aims and remodel the treaties which the czar's government signed with them. England, France and the United States have already formally re-stated their war terms. England has announced, through a note, her willingness to negotiate new agreements if desired. Italy has formally approved President Wilson's statement of war aims as her own.

Round Up Nets 164 Alleged Slackers

Duluth, Minn., June 13.—(U. P.)—Federal agents rounded up 164 alleged slackers in the Mesabe iron range district today. More arrests are to follow. Many under arrest admit they have not registered. It is said.

"Thorns and Roses"—Ideal for Newlyweds

For Sale—Miscellaneous—19
COPYRIGHTED and published poem "Thorns and Roses" by Lou Ellen Barrell Cornell, a Portland writer, daughter of Oregon pioneer.

Lost and Found—21
LOST—Lady's gold flexible watch, initials "F. S." on miniature iron. Keepsake of dead mother.

Launches and Boats—24
FOR SALE—30 foot cruising launch, halibut schooner type; berths, galley, speed 7 miles. Am going on farm and must sell at once. Consider trade for auto or diamond.

Autos for Hire—22
RELIABLE auto service; 5, 7 cars, highway. Mt. Hood, any service; reasonable; competent drivers.

Poultry, Pigeons and Pet Stock—37
POULTRY and equipments for sale on leased land. Sales from Jan. 1 to June 1, $1783.70; sales now $300 per month. Let's hear from some one that means business, others need not answer.

Apartments—23
Furnished and unfurnished—23
NORTHAMPTON APTS. 407 Hal. We have three 3 room apts. and one 2 room. All outside rooms, in cleanest condition. Ideal for newlyweds or small family. Reasonable.

FRENCH GREET PERSHING WITH SHOUTS OF JOY

Commander-in-Chief of the American Expedition Is Object of Ovations in Boulogne and Paris.

*****
Will Be Under General Pershing
Washington, June 13.—(U. P.)—General Pershing will operate under General Foch, the French generalissimo and not under the British commander. What portion of the French front the first American contingent will take up will not be known for some time.

General Pershing's headquarters at the French front will be in direct confidential communication with the war department here. Arrangements have been made, it was learned today, for precedence to be given his dispatches and the department's messages to Pershing over the Atlantic cables.

Paris, June 13.—(U. P.)—A Paris frantic with enthusiasm, streets massed with throngs waving the American and French flags greeted Major General John J. Pershing and his staff here at 8:30 this evening.

Marshal Joffre, Vice Premier Viviani, Minister of War Painleve, American Ambassador Sharpe and a score of other dignitaries greeted the American commander and his officers at the Gare du Nord.

It was conservatively estimated that 100,000 people thronged the streets along the route of the parade to cheer Pershing.

Wilson Note Scored By German Papers

Amsterdam, June 13.—(I. N. S.)—President Wilson's note to Russia, setting forth the war aims of the United States, is attacked by the German press with cynical criticism. Monday night, when a rancher homeward bound from town stopped over with Cutler for a time and advised him of what was going on "outside."

GRAND AVENUE TURNED INTO A FAIRYLAND BY PARADE OF CHILDREN

Rising Above Frolic Was a Dominant Note of Patriotism, Thrilling Throngs.

This forenoon they appropriated a stretch of Grand avenue, waved a magic wand, and converted it into a bit of Fairyland. For an hour or two elves, fairies and sprites sported in that little transformed world, a unique spot secluded from the bustle and roar of the city, yet within the city.

In the setting of the scene the rainbow gave its colors, the world of fairy fancy its imaginative conceits and to carry one into Wonderland, little Queen Nina reigned over the picturesque scene of the children's homage to the carnival of roses. As daintily performed as the rose itself was the atmosphere of the several thousand children who, in the annual frolic of the roses, ushered in the festival season.

Note of Patriotism Prevails
It was a playday, but rising above the frolic was a note of patriotism that carried into and then welled up from thousands who jostled, crowded and backed into solid masses that lined the street.

Lads of the schools, natty clad in white that was the relief background for the starred and striped caps, sent a thrill through the onlookers when in their marching and maneuvering they

Deschutes Rancher Does "Paul Revere" So He Can Register

Bend, Or., June 13.—One Paul Revere, of "listen my children and you shall hear" note, had nothing on one Roy A. Cutler, who rode horseback all night, in order to register for military service for Uncle Sam.

Mr. Cutler for some time has been employed on a ranch in the northern part of Deschutes county, away from the railroad and far from a postoffice and other abominations of civilization. He knew nothing of registration requirements until Monday night, when a rancher homeward bound from town stopped over with Cutler for a time and advised him of what was going on "outside."

Mr. Cutler jumped a horse, rode all night, and was allowed to register here Tuesday morning even though the day of grace had expired.

ALEXANDER HAS TAKEN OATH OF OFFICE AS KING

Chancellor of Exchequer Bonar Law Makes Announcement in House of Commons; Is Pro-Ally.

*****
U. S. Given Credit
London, June 13.—(I. N. S.)—The entry of the United States into the war was today credited with being largely responsible for the abdication of King Constantine of Greece, in favor of his son, Prince Alexander.

Paris, June 13.—(U. P.)—Ex-King Constantine of Greece is going to Switzerland in his exile, according to authoritative information received today from Athens.

London, June 13.—(U. P.)—Prince Alexander is now king of Greece. Chancellor of the Exchequer, Bonar Law announced in the house of commons. Alexander has formally taken the oath of office as monarch at Athens.

Constantine I, king of Greece, was forced to abdicate because he had lost the support of his people and brought his nation almost to ruin through insistence that Greece join with German intrigues. His successor, the second son of the monarch, is Prince Alexander, liberal minded, not subject to the intense pro-Germanism of his royal father and acceptable to the allies.

Dispatches from Athens today declared the change in rulers had been effected with an utter absence of disorder. Demands voiced on behalf of the allies by Mr. Jonnart, a French senator and special envoy to Athens, that a constant step down, were acquiesced in by that monarch without more formal protestation. He refused to permit his partisans to fight against the allies' ultimatum that he resign.

Early entry of Greece into the war on the side of the allies is not expected. Prince Alexander, the new ruler, who
(Continued on Page Two, Column One)

Piersol Is Charged In Keet Baby Crime

Springfield, Mo., June 13.—(I. N. S.)—An information was filed Tuesday night against Clyde J. Piersol, charging complicity in the kidnaping and murder of Baby Lloyd Keet. Other charges were filed against Sam McGinnis, Taylor Adams, Mrs. Allie Adams and Cletus Adams, alleging conspiracy in the attempt to kidnap C. A. Clement. The prisoners are all being held in Kansas City.

Air Raid Takes Death Toll of 41, Injures 121

Fifty German Airplanes Take Part—One Is Brought Down by British.

London, June 13.—(U. P.)—Germany's fourth airplane raid over England in recent weeks today claimed a death toll of 41 and injured 121, according to Lord French, commander of the home defense forces, who said that the figures are incomplete.

Fifty hostile airplanes formed the raiding squadron, Lord French, commander-in-chief of home defenses, declared. They crossed the Essex coast, he said, in the vicinity of Nore, about 11 o'clock, and proceeded south, separating halfway between there and East London, which was attacked and bombed.

Chancellor of the Exchequer, Bonar Law announced in the house of commons this afternoon that one of these had been brought down.

The German raiders appeared over the Essex coast shortly before noon in broad daylight. In the east end of London, one bomb dropped by the air pirates struck an elementary school, killing 19 children and injuring 50.

British anti-aircraft guns and defense planes vigorously fought off the invaders. Special constables were hurriedly called out and the damaged areas roped off to keep back the curious crowds.

King George and Minister of War Derby went to that part of London which had been struck in an automobile almost immediately after the raid, inspecting the wrecked buildings and offering their sympathy to the relatives and friends of the victims.

Thirteen bombs in all were dropped over the East End of London, Law said.

The royal flying corps airmen instantly took to the air on the first report of the aerial invasion and unimpededly prevented further damage by driving off the Germans in a thrilling fight. One British airman successively chased three Boche planes, endeavoring to bring them into a light.

This afternoon it was stated that a non-military train, carrying a number of passengers, had been struck by bombs dropped by one of the German fliers.

BIG CROWDS TAKE PART IN OPENING DAY'S EVENTS OF PORTLAND'S ROSE FESTIVAL

Principal Amusement of the Morning Is Wonderfully Beautiful Human Rosebud Parade Which Attracts Thousands to East Side of River Where It Winded Its Way Along Grand Avenue.

*****
Today
7:30 p. m., Festival Center—Concert.
8 p. m., unveiling Statue of Liberty by President Wilson presiding button at White House.
Thursday, June 14
7 a. m., Festival Center—Sunrise gun.
10 a. m.—Meeting of Oregon Girls' Honor Guard, Multnomah hotel.
2 p. m.—Grand patriotic pageant.
Irvington tennis tourney.
2 p. m., Irvington Courts—Prize, June 15
Portland central tennis championship.
7 a. m., Festival Center—Sunrise gun.
2 p. m.—Grand floral parade.
2 p. m., Irvington Courts—Portland central tennis championship.
7:30 p. m., South Park blocks—Great community sing, 4000 trained voices.
8:30 p. m., Cottillon hall—Royal Rosarian ball, invitation.

*****
When dawn touched the hilltops this morning Nature was smiling and in her proudest mood gave to Portland a perfect day. It was her contribution to Portland's festival of the seasons, the Carnival of Roses.

It did not take the sunrise gun to boom in the eleventh hour of the festival. The festival began before the night shadows had been melted. Little Queen Nina, a dainty bit of royal femininity, bright-eyed, watched the festival day break; her royal court held vigil, and the loyal subjects of Portland, who will pay homage during the three days' reign, welcomed the assured signs of the happy dynasty of the floral queen.

Little by little the city's Rose Carnival became a thing of reality. For days past decorators have transformed the streets into masses of color. Gardenners have broken out in a riot of color, and when Battery A, Oregon field artillery, swung its four guns into the Court of Patriotism in the Festival Center to fire its salute, everything was in complete readiness for the holiday of the city.

The big feature, of course, of the forenoon was the Children's parade held on the east side and reviewed by Queen Nina, her royal consort, King

Putnam, Secretary To Governor, Quits

Salem, Or., June 13.—George Palmer Putnam, private secretary to Governor Withycombe, has resigned, and the resignation has been accepted by the governor. The resignation will become effective August 1. It is understood that for the time being Miss Esther Carson, assistant private secretary, will succeed Putnam. It is probable that Putnam will return to Bend to again take active management of the Bend Bulletin, his newspaper, and of his other properties there.

There has been friction for some time between the governor and Putnam, and open rupture has been expected by capitol attaches.