WORKMEN IN BOHEMIA START MOVEMENT TO SECURE CONCESSIONS

Revolution Reported Brewing in Prague, Controlled by Teutons.

Paris, June 20.—(I. N. S.)—Prague, the capital of Bohemia, has been the scene of a strong revolutionary movement for several days, said a dispatch to the Matin today.

The entire Austrian cabinet, headed by Count Camillo Martini, resigned late yesterday. Dispatches received from Vienna via Amsterdam today emphasized the difficulties which the government must overcome in order to obtain a cabinet which will receive sufficient support from the various factions in the empire to survive.

Formal announcement by the Poles that they would refuse to deal with Cam-Martini's ministry was directly responsible for the resignations of those advisors.

German propaganda has been spread in Spain ever since the early days of the war.

German Intrigue Suspected

Paris, June 20.—(I. N. S.)—Strong indications that German intrigue may have been partly responsible for the revolutionary unrest in Spain is contained in dispatches from Madrid today.

DEBATE ON BILL FOR CONTROL OF FOODS OPENED

Reed and Gore Employ All Their Oratory to Block the Measure; Gore Sees Famine if Power Is Delegated.

CANNON IS OPPOSING BILL IN LOWER HOUSE

Chamberlain, Kenyon and Others Plead for Speedy Action to Save Food.

Washington, June 20.—(U. P.)—While allied food buyers remained idle and neutral nations continued importing grain and food, debate began on the food control bill in congress today.

The few senators who oppose it denounced the measure which would permit the president to conserve the nation's food supplies for the allies and America.

Reed and Gore in the senate and Representative Joe Cannon in the house employed all their oratory to block the measure.

"This bill will bring famine in 1918," shouted Gore. "Hoover admits wheat and flour didn't go up until last year's crop was used up and until men of his ilk began their cry of famine," Reed shouted.

Export Control Not Enough Gore contended the bill will cost wheat growers $200,000,000 and the corn growers $500,000,000.

To the argument the president could stop shipments of food to neutrals who are transshipping it to Germany through execution of the embargo section of the espionage law, which he has now signed, advocates of the food control measure replied:

BAILEY GATZERT, WITH 125 ON BOARD SHOOTS RAPIDS AT CASCADES

Big Steamboat Makes Fast Time as It Plows Turbulent Waters.

The steamer Bailey Gatzert shot Cascade rapids Tuesday afternoon carrying 125 passengers, the first passage of the rapids by a passenger steamer ever made.

The big steamer covered more than 2000 feet at a speed faster than 30 miles an hour.

Not since 1893, when the steamer D. S. Baker, Captain Martineau, towing a wharf barge, made the run, has a steamer negotiated the rapids.

Passengers Enjoy Sensation The passengers aboard highly enjoyed the sensation. The craft passed up stream with only 5 inches more rise in the Columbia needed before the middle locks could not be operated.

"Aren't we going to go through the locks?" asked one woman. "I have always wanted to be able to say that I had been through the locks."

"Madam, you will be able to tell your grandchildren that you were one of 125 people who have shot the Cascade rapids," answered Purser Kingsbury.

Captain Archie Geer, veteran of many years' service, entered the select circle when he piloted the big steamer through the rapids, only five men had achieved the honor.

Other Trips Recalled. Captain John McNulty was the first man, taking the steamer R. R. Thompson through in June 3, 1887.

MANY ARE VIOLATING CORRUPT PRACTICES LAW OF THIS STATE

Statute Requires Treasurers, Candidates and Others to File Statements.

B. S. Josselyn and W. H. Warren, two of the candidates for mayor in the recent municipal election, filed their lists of campaign expenses as required by law with the city auditor Tuesday afternoon.

John M. Mann, commissioner-elect, reconsidered his statement that he would not obey the statute, and filed his list with the city auditor during the afternoon.

Norman S. Richards and W. L. Brewster, candidates for commissioner, also filed during the afternoon, pursuant to the statements made by them.

None of the other candidates, or their treasurers, none of the various friends and supporters of candidates, and none of the backers of any of the various measures on the ballot have filed their statements as required by the law.

City Auditor Barbur has made no request, as required by the statute, that the candidates, their treasurers, or other persons expending money for political purposes, or backers of measures, comply with the law.

According to the opinion of City Attorney La Roche, given to the city auditor at his request, candidates are not required to file expense statements under the amendment of 1913 to section 3496 of Lord's Oregon Laws, the original corrupt practices act.

SUFFRAGETTES START NEAR RIOT AT WHITE HOUSE WITH BANNER

Words Displayed to Attract Russian Mission Offend and Crowd Attacks.

Washington, June 20.—(I. N. S.)—A near riot in front of the White House, was precipitated today when the Russian mission band led the team workers to the great Red Cross clock at Sixth and Alder streets, where the dial was adjusted, showing new totals.

With the first day's totals up to $93,144, and nearly one half of the $200,000 goal reached, the solicitors went at their work today with a vim and determination to make another record dash against pocketbooks, private savings banks, strongboxes and other receptacles for coin.

"The house-to-house canvass must put the finishing touches to the total which has been initiated by the heavy artillerymen," said General Chairman Ayer. "My appeal to the people of Portland is to give freely and abundantly."

The sign was held aloft by Miss Muey Burns of New York and Mrs. Lawrence Lewis of Philadelphia. When a crowd of 800 persons that had gathered to see the Russian envoys saw the sign, they rushed the women and tore it down.

"This is treason," one woman cried, as she wrested one end of the banner from Miss Burns.

"We give our sons, and then you do this," another shouted. The women who held the banner were jostled, but were not injured.

The day's action was replete with daring charges over the financial papers, the heavy artillery of the attacking forces clearing the way for the advance of General Henry E. Reeda's house to house besiegers.

Prominent firms and individuals gave donations today as follows: George Lawrence company, $1000; A. Bern, $1000; Clifton & Devos, $1000; Olds, Wortman & King, $2500; Liljman, Wolfe & Co., $2500; Meier & Frank company, $5000; Fleischner Mayer & Co., $1500; Everding & Farrell, $500; Blumauer-Frank Drug company, $250; J. With the first day's totals up to $93,144, and nearly one half of the $200,000 goal reached, the solicitors went at their work today with a vim and determination to make another record dash against pocketbooks, private savings banks, strongboxes and other receptacles for coin.
