SOUTHERN PACIFIC RAILROAD REPORTS GOOD CROP OUTLOOK Hymna H. Cohen

NEW POTATOES ARE STEADIER WITH OLD

Well at 4 1/2 c at 5c a Pound.

With the practical withdrawal of old po-tatoes from the leading markets of the coun-try, there is a steadler tone shown for new stock at leading centers, even though increased supplies are shown from the earlier producing at 4% to be a pound generally for the day with white stock in logs and garnets in sacks at the lower price and garnets in lugs at 5c Valley Hay Weak;

There is still a rather fair call for old potutoes from the middle west and the south-west but the local trade has quit shipping and no additional carlonds can now go forward lithout incurring too much expense in as-The new points crop in Gregon is looking There will be no early stock from local sections and acre for acre the crop will not be as beavy as a year ago although with the increased area the total production will be somewhat heavier.

LARGE HALIBUT IS SCARCE While there are quite fair supplies of small sized, hallbut coming from off the Oregon coast.

Wire nails show an advance of 50c a keg for the day.

Gooseberries are selling well at 3 to 5c pound.

Merced tomatoes in good demand around $1.75qf2.15 for best.

Fresh talmon market remains firm, with shipments from Puget Sound, Southern Oregon and California.

California cabbage is holding steady here at 8c for the best.
