

ALBANY IS PREPARED FOR THREE DAYS' FUN FEATURING ROUND-UP

Thrilling Scenes of Old West to Be Reenacted at Linn County Celebration.

FOURTH IS THE BIG DAY

Patriotic Observance of Mousing Character Will Be Staged on Independence Day—Portlanders Invited.

Albany, Or., June 26.—Albany is anxiously awaiting the opening of her annual Western Oregon Round-Up, which will be held this year in connection with the big patriotic celebration, July 2, 3 and 4.

The Round-Up grounds and buildings have been remodeled this year, the grandstand enlarged, more bleachers built, and ample arrangements made to care for record breaking attendance.

The quality of show that will be presented will be equal to any that the northwest has ever seen. Over 100 of the ablest cowboys in the west, from Canada to the California line, are here, and in the group are winners in prize contests from every show of note between here and New York.

Manager Clarence Adams, who successfully handled last year's Round-Up, has invited the southwest in including high class talent to come to Albany this year, and riders and ropers who have never before appeared in the northwest will be seen in action.

Among them are Silver Harr, Hank Potts, Claude Elliott, "Skeeter Bill" Robbins, Dorothy Morrell, world's champion cowgirl; Walt Whitmore, "Goldie" Campbell, Buff Jones, Rube Fisher, Clarence Jones and "Pee Wee" Holmes, all of Los Angeles, whose ability has won them places in such aggregations as Ringling's and Barnum's, and Bailey's circuses, Miller Bros., 101 Ranch wild west show, Buffalo Bill's wild west, and other noted attractions.

Array of Notable Talent Art Brunelster of Cheyenne; "Spike" Speckman of Klamath Falls; Art Riving of North Yakima; Dan and Louise Thompson of Montana; Ollie Osburn of Union; Guy, Bill and Elsie Ray of Airline; Broncho Bob Hall of Independence; Roy Ritter of Prineville; Everett Wilson of Tugh Valley; Tracey Lane, Jim and Frank Roach, Bertha Blanchett Miss Billie Clifford and 8-year-old Mary Clifford, George Fletcher, Babe Ewing, John Tayche, Earl Newquist, Jimmie Taylor, Lloyd Saunders, all of Pendleton; Anita Engle of Redding, Cal., are among other well known artists of the rope and spur.

Not only is the collection of cowboys a fine one, but the cowgirls represented are the best in the country. Katherine Wilkes, who last year won the cowgirl broncho busting at Cheyenne, Pendleton, Albany and other well known shows, is on hand. Bertha Blanchett of Pendleton, one of the most popular women performers in the west; Dorothy Morrell of Winnipeg, world's champion all around cowgirl; Louise Thompson of Judas Gap, Mont.; Anita Engle of Redding; Ollie Osburn of Union; Billie Clifford of Pendleton, and little Mary Clifford—all are artists of a high order in feats of thrilling and daring horsemanship.

Ollie Osburn is the only woman in the state who bulldogs a steer. Jim White and a band of Umatilla Indians have their tepees pitched downtown, and will take part in the Indian features of the Round-Up.

Horses, like riders, gain reputations for performances, and there are at the Albany Round-Up some of the worst buckers and some of the fastest cow ponies in the west. Paddy Ryan, owned by Manager Adams, is a thoroughbred, and holds the world's record for the quarter mile. Among the bad bucking horses are Sunfish Molly, Wild Mustard, Arrah-go-wan, High Binder, Yellow, and Double Jack Diamond, Powder River, Dynamite, Spider and many others. The bucking contests promise to be among the most exciting events on the program.

Varied Program of Events There are 23 scheduled events on the program daily, besides innumerable specialties by a squad of comedy artists engaged by Manager Adams. Rube Fisher, "Pee Wee" Holmes, Hank Potts and Goldie Campbell, who do funny things in western "stuff," for the movies around Los Angeles, will relieve any tedium that may befall the crowd.

Take Me Back to Old Montana, cat-ties songs and double act with Rube Fisher. The bucking burro, Spike and Logan, the noted movie oxen, which are trained to do tricks, and other features add life to the events.

The events on the program, in which the cowboys and cowgirls will compete for $4000 in cash prizes and three championship saddles from the Powers shop in Pendleton, valued at $800, are as follows:

Cowboys' pony race, fancy roping, cowgirls' pony race, maverick race,

ladies' bucking horse contest, pony express race, steer roping (humane style), Indian pony race, bull riding, cowboy relay race, bulldogging from an automobile, chariot race, Indian Roman race, bulldogging contest, cowboys' novelty race, bareback riding, cowboys' Roman race, Indian relay race, trick and fancy riding, ladies' relay race, wild horse race, contest for best allround cowboy.

Leading Citizens in Charge

The Albany Round-Up is an organization of prominent business and professional men who are concerned with the promotion of the city's best interests. The reading of the Declaration of Independence will be a feature. Carnival attractions, street dances and all sorts of merry-makings will keep the crowds busy.

The evening of the Fourth there will be a special night show for the benefit of the Red Cross, which will furnish ample amusement for the crowds. It will be in the nature of a wild west show with many side features thrown in.

Monday will be Salem, Lebanon and Brownsville day; Tuesday is Eugene, Corvallis and the west side day, and Wednesday is Portland day.

Telegraph Battalion Trains at Monterey

Intensive Work by Eighth Battalion Begun; Entire Force Drawn From Pacific Tel. & Tel. Co.

San Francisco, June 30.—(U. P.)—Intensive training was begun at Monterey today by the Eighth Telegraph Battalion of the signal reserve corps of the United States army.

Officers and men comprising this unit were drawn entirely from the employes of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company.

Two companies comprise the unit, D company, recruited in California and Nevada, and E company, recruited in Oregon, Washington and Idaho. All of the men have had years of experience in practical wire work as engineers, wire chiefs, linemen, switchboard men, installers, daughters, mechanics or clerks.

Major A. H. Griswold, plant engineer of the telephone company, commands the battalion. Lieutenant William H. Fairbanks is adjutant and Lieutenant Allen J. Galloway supply officer. Captain Charles H. Moore commands D company and Captain W. C. Barbour, E company.

Socialists to Be Arrested Berlin, June 30.—The Berliner Tagblatt reports the German government is considering the arrest and prosecution of four well known radical Socialist leaders for high treason.

W. T. Cobb, 64, was attempting to cross swollen stream on horseback; body recovered in short time.

Baker, Or., June 30.—W. T. Cobb, 64, pioneer rancher of Eagle valley, drowned near his home at New Bridge last night while attempting to cross Eagle creek on horseback.

The management is certain that automobiles can easily take the turns of the mile and a half track, especially as the straightaway has been shortened and the curves are the regulation two mile turns.

Another item which shows that the "speed 'em up" has come to stay is the raising of the purse from $1000 to $1500. Last year but one motorcycle race in the United States had a larger purse than La Grande's $1000.

The long marathons of the past have been abandoned, as they proved to be tedious affairs and tiresome to the spectators, and 25 and 50 mile events will be a feature this year.

Single Liquor Sale Costs Man $4300 Burlington, Vt., June 30.—It cost Soliman Zeekind just $400 to sell one bottle of liquor here, Soliman has a saloon, but under the law he is not allowed to sell anything to be drunk away from the premises.

Paving to Start Tuesday Pendleton, Or., June 30.—Actual laying of "hot stuff" on the Wild Horse road out of Pendleton will start Tuesday of next week, according to announcement made today by the Warren Construction company, which received the contract yesterday from the state highway commission.

To Hit High Cost Denver, Colo., June 30.—When the Colorado general assembly meets here in July in a special session, it will be asked to authorize cities and towns of the state to establish municipal coal yards, bakeries and grocery stores.

SPEED EVENTS WILL BE BIG FEATURE OF LA GRANDE FOURTH

Motorcycle Race Program to Be Augmented by Automobile Entries for Prizes.

La Grande, Or., June 30.—All is in readiness for La Grande's annual Fourth of July "Speed 'Em Up" program of motorcycle races, and there is more than usual interest in the events this year because automobile races have been added to the events, and for all numbers substantial prizes have been hung up.

The management is certain that automobiles can easily take the turns of the mile and a half track, especially as the straightaway has been shortened and the curves are the regulation two mile turns.

Joseph G. Wilson Was the First Circuit Judge in All Eastern Oregon Territory.

FAMILY IS WELL KNOWN

Incumbent Succeeding Late Judge Bradshaw Made Record in Handling Williams Murder Case.

The Dalles, Or., June 30.—A son, succeeding to the position occupied by his father more than 50 years before, is the unusual coincidence which marks the recent appointment by Governor Withycombe of Fred W. Wilson of The Dalles to succeed the late Circuit Judge William L. Bradshaw.

The present Judge Wilson's father, Joseph G. Wilson, was the first circuit judge in eastern Oregon. His territory comprised everything in the state east of the Cascade mountains.

He was a son of an honored pioneer family. He was born at College Hill, Iowa, September 10, 1837, while his father was at Washington representing his district as United States senator from Oregon.

He studied law in the offices of Huntington & Wilson in The Dalles and began practice in The Dalles in 1860. He has practiced continuously here since.

He was elected district attorney in 1898 and held the office four years. Case Attracted Attention

At that time the district comprised Wasco, Hood River and Crook counties. His name was prominently mentioned throughout the state through his prosecution of the Norman Williams murder case, which at that time excited a great deal of interest, inasmuch as the bodies of the mother and daughter Williams was charged with murdering

Seattle Professor Is Alleged Pro-German

Exception Taken to Statements Made During Lecture at Public Session of State University Summer School.

Seattle, June 30.—(U. P.)—Charging that Professor Frederick Meinest, state university professor, spread German propaganda under the guise of an academic lecture, protests have been filed with President Suzzallo of the university.

The lecture was made at a public evening session under the auspices of the summer school. Six persons hissed the speaker and left the room.

When the professor declared that Germany had done more for municipal government than any other nation someone yelled: "Louvaine, for instance!"

Dr. Suzzallo says he is not yet convinced Meinest said anything scurrilous. Meinest explains his statements by saying he "wanted to show what a strong government the United States is fighting against."

Hagen Jury Disagree Seattle, June 30.—(U. P.)—The jury failed to agree, after standing nine to three for acquittal for 10 hours yesterday in the case of Ed Hagen, policeman, charged with accepting a $10 bribe for protecting bootleggers.

Hagen was suspended from the force, but was later reinstated for playing an important part in capturing four bank robbers.

Double Wedding Is Event at Freewater Freewater, Or., June 30.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Johnson of West Side was the scene of a pretty function Thursday evening when their two daughters, both teachers in the local school, were married at the same hour.

Tell Your Wife Corns Lift Off Doesn't hurt a bit to lift corns or calluses off with fingers. Not a twinge of pain or soreness before applying, or afterwards. This may sound like a dream to corn sufferers and to the women who have been cutting, filing and wearing torturous plasters. Yes! Corns lift out and calluses peel off as if by magic. A small bottle of freezons costs but a few cents and is available everywhere. Apply a few drops directly upon your tender corn or callus, and instantly the soreness disappears; then shortly the corn or callus will be so loose that it lifts off. Freezons die instantly. It doesn't eat out the corn or callus, but just shrivels it up so it lifts away without even irritating the surrounding skin. Women should keep a tiny bottle handy on the dresser and never let a corn or callus ache twice. Adv.
