

OCEAN PARK

Ocean Park, Wash., July 21 .- Ocean Park is fast becoming the mecca for automobilists. Every Sunday Ocean Park is visited by many motorists from other points along the beach. The broad expanse of beach, which extends from the Fishing rocks to Ocean Park, affords an unexcelled automobile drive for a distance of 15 miles. From the north motorists come from Nahcotta, Raymond and South Bend, stopping on their way to visit the wreck of the steamer Alice or the barnacle covered bow of the once famous Salona.

Among the motorists who stopped at Ocean Park last Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Jacobs of Spokane and party, consisting of Mrs. P. Howard, Howard and daughter Melvina Howard.

LONG BEACH

Long Reach, Wash, July 21 - Fas coming into prominence as the social center for the young folks of north beach is Long Beach, which is every day attracting more and more young folks from the cities. Dances, skuting parties and merry bonfires are the most prominent social affairs at this lively summer resort.

Last week was ideal for crabbing and clamming, better weather conditions could not have been made to order. A stiff northwest wind was blowing almost all week and sent in hundreds of crabs for the early ris An early morning party which
