INDIAN SHOOT ENDS IN TIES FOR FIRST AND SECOND PLACES

Washington and Oregon Gunners Match Up Even; Mrs.
Schilling Is High Woman.

Oregon and Washington divided honors in the practice day shoot of the Portland Gun club yesterday.

Frank M. Troch of Vancouver, Wash., and Peter J. Holohan of Portland being tied for first place in the 100 bird practice event of the tenth annual Pacific Indian trapshooting tournament. Each broke 95 out of 100 targets.

J. W. Seavey of Portland and L. H.
Reid of Seattle tied for second honors, each breaking 95 out of 100. Abner Blair of Portland also broke 95 per cent, but in view of the fact that he did not remain for the shoot-off Seavey and Reid were offered the trophies.

Woman Gets 92
Mrs. Ada Schilling of Portland was high among the women contestants, with the score of 92 out of 100. Miss Gladys Reid of Portland was second, and Mrs. D. Bales of Tacoma, Wash., was third.

The annual meeting of the Pacific Indians, originally scheduled for Tuesday night, will be held tonight at the Imperial hotel at 8 o'clock. Tomorrow night the Portland Gun club will honor the visiting Indians and their wives with a dance at the Portland Automobile
