BEAVERS WIN FIRST GAME OF WEEK WITH LINEUP OF MISFITS

Hollocher Is Hit on the Right Elbow and He Will Be Laid Out of Game Some Time.

COURAGE IS DISPLAYED

After Hurly-Burly Start Los Angeles Loses Grip and Visitors Do Some Stiff Playing.

Los Angeles, July 28.—(I. N. S.)-The Beavers won their first game of the week, but not until after the jinx had caused Hollocher to be hit on the right elbow with a pitched ball, which may keep the spectacular shortstop out of the game for a period of weeks. After this hurly-burly start the Portlanders took the field with Hunter, a recruit hurriedly called to the colors, on short; a pitcher, Penner, on third, and Gus Fisher, a catcher, in right field. With this misfit lineup the Beavers displayed unexpected jazz and won the game under wraps.

favor of Charlie Hall. For seven rounds James held the home folk well in hand, but in the Portland eighth he walked a couple and Mc-Credie sent "Slats" Fincher to the rescue. The champions treated him real roughly in the ninth, counting at will.
