Indiana Attorney and Candidate for Mayor Escapes When His Auto Driv. er Speeds Away From His Pursuers. Evansville, Ind., Aug. 6.-(I. N. S.) -An attempt was made to lynch Frank Lamonte, an attorney and candidate for mayor on the Socialist ticket of this city Saturday midnight. Lamonte, who has been making speeches throughout southern Indiana in which he is said to have attacked the selective draft and the national administration, spoke at Elberfeld, Ind. Saturday night about 20 miles north of here six young men from this city went to Elberfeld in an automobile and it is said it was their purpose to lynch Lamonte. They gave chase to the automobile in which Lamonte, wife, baby and two friends were rid-

They overtook the machine and commanded Lamonte to get out. The man in Lamonte's car, however, opened the throttle of the car and made good his escape, and the people took refuge in a farmhouse, where they spent the night. Feeling, where Lamonte has spoken She notified the men at the locker against the draft, is said to be bitter.
