BEES TAKE DOUBLE TOLL FROM BEAVERS AT SUNDAY MATINEE

Buddy Ryan Whales Them in One After Another, Though Willie Is There, Too.

CRANDALLL'S HOMER WINS

Bee Infielder Finishes Great Day at Bat When He Makes Homer in Fourteenth Inning Off Penner.

By R. A. Cronin.

Carl Crandall's home run in the fourteenth inning of the second game, off Ken Penner, gave Salt Lake the doubleheader Sunday by scores of 7 to 2 and 7 to 6. Crandall went on a hitting rampage in the double bill, getting eight hits in a dozen times up, and most of them in the pinches, off Fincher, Gardner and Penner.

The Bees won five out of the seven games, due mainly to poor pitching on the part of the Portland hurlers and defective defense.

The Salts made enough runs in the first inning of the first game to clinch the contest. With two down, Sheely walked and Ryan singled to right. Crandall followed with a crash to left, the blow scoring Sheely. Quinlan batted in with a triple and the other two counted.

Grigg's Drive Is Longest

The Beavers showed signs of a battle when Willie tallied on a walk, William's single and Griggs' double to right. The Portland first sacker's homer over the left field bleachers in the seventh was the only other run for the locals, the drive being the longest of the season in the local parks.

A succession of safe drives and scratch hits gave the Bees their other four in the fourth. Hannah doubled to the center field fence, Evans was safe on a fielder's choice, Orr beat a bunt to Griggs, Hannah scoring. Sheely walked and Ryan forced Evans at the plate. Then Crandall swung on one on the outside and it was just out of Willie's reach, rolling to the fence for a triple that cleaned the bags.

Buddy Ryan was the lion rampant for the Salts in the second contest, being mixed up in every run but the last, besides getting a flock of hits. In the second inning he homed over the right field fence. Then Crandall doubled to left. Fisher tried to pick him off, the ball hit Crandall and he went to third under such a violent protest from D. Wille of Denison that Umpire Held chased the outfielder to the showers.

Ryan Brings 'Em In

In the third Ryan's double scored Tobin and Sheely.

The Beavers came to life in the fourth, when Gus Fisher moved Griggs and Siglin along with a hit and Penner chased them home with a drive past Sheely.

In the fifth Ryan scored Orr from second with a single. After Siglin's sacrifice, which moved Griggs and Farmer along in the sixth, Fisher provided the smack that scored the pair.

Singles to center by Williams, Griggs and Farmer tied the count in the seventh.

Ryan scored for the visitors in the tenth on his walk, Qinlan's double and Rath's sacrifice fly. Fisher's single, Hollocher's hit, which caused the replacing of Hughes by Levereng, and Hunter's out, tied the count. The scores:

Seals and Tigers Break

Los Angeles, Aug. 13.—(I. N. S.)—It was a tolerable good walloping that the Tiger gentlemen handed the San Francisco baseball Seals the past week, five games out of seven.

The afternoon show was enlivened when Gus Gleichmann made a popular move to "take a punch" at Umpire Norman Brashear. Enraged over a so-called "raw" decision, Gus made a flying leap for the umpire and had to be dragged bodily off the field by Manager Stovall. Brashear was "in bad" throughout the game, and a friendly policeman flanked his final retreat from the field. The scores:

Oaks Take Two

San Francisco, Aug. 13.—(I. N. S.)—The pennant holding Angels were forced back into third place by Sunday's double header, the fast coming Oaks taking both games, the morning affair by the shutout score of 8 to 0, and the afternoon battle by the one run lead of 6 to 5. Curly Brown was lifted in the second inning of the afternoon game, after two runs had been scored with no men out and the bases filled. Hogg pulled the inning out with no more scoring.

Prough was the whole thing in the morning game, though supported by timely hitting by his team mates and by indifferent slab work of Hall and Seaton. The score:

Norman Ross Wins Golden Gate Cup

San Francisco, Aug. 13.—(I. N. S.)—Norman Ross, formerly of Portland and now Olympic club champion and holder of world's records, Sunday morning won the cup race, held under the auspices of a local newspaper, across Golden Gate.

His time for the distance, about seven eights of a mile, was 21 minutes 13 and one fifth seconds. This is 29 and one fifth seconds behind the gate swim record held by Walter Pomeroy.

The sea was choppy, with a heavy current running in the channel. Under these conditions Ross' performance is considered remarkable.

BATTERY A PUTS POWDER BEHIND ITS BIG BULLETS

Defeats Kirkpatrick Stars in Thrilling Game by Score of 4 to 1.

Gunners Smith and Schroeder held the Kirkpatrick Stars to a lone ace while Battery A was marking up four counters for their third consecutive victory since the call, July 25. The game was the feature of the K. and L. of S. picnic at Crystal Lake park Sunday. Before the game the battery was presented with a loving cup by the Knights and Ladies, and afterward, as victors, they received a red, white and blue pennant.

Boland of the Kirkpatricks received poor support and was not as effective as the battery gunners in the pinches. Kracke, Driscoll and A. Boland pulled off some fielding stunts that were hair-raisers.

In the second inning two errors resulted in two scores for the man from Clackamas, and a walk and a double by Heffron resulted in another in the fifth. In the ninth inning, a double by Bilod, followed by Pitt's single, gave the last score to the artillerymen. Two hits and an error produced the lone tally of the lodgemen in the sixth inning.

YESSIR, IT'S MIGHTY GOOD THING SHERLOCK H. WAS NOT CALLED IN Old Sleuth Would Have Lost Reputation Trying to Solve Lee Magee.

New York, Aug. 13.—(I. N. S.)—Sherlock Holmes was some ferret in his prime. There was nothing too mysterious to baffle him, and he tossed more moths on the Hindoo stuff than anybody who ever played headliner in the dime novels.

But for the good of Sherlock's rep it is a lucky thing he was never called on to solve the mystery that is pestering Lee Magee, who was recently traded to the Browns by New York.

The old brain cracker about Ann's age is a mere trifle compared to the Magee mystery, because Magee has all the ear marks and the native characteristics of a great ball player, enjoys the best of health and is one of the most willing workers who ever wore a big league uniform, yet has failed miserably as a hitter in the big leagues since he became a member of the New York club. With the Browns he may return to form, but that remains to be seen.

He Cost Small Fortune.

Ruppert and Huston paid $22,500 for the title to Magee when they purchased his release from the Brooklyn Federals. His record in the big show as a member of the Browns and in the Federal league with Brooklyn indicated that he was a bear of a sticker, and he looked well worth the price, considering the fact that several other major league owners were breaking their necks to bid for him.

But just as soon as Magee was made a member of the Yanks his hitting began to dwindle and he seldom delivered a hit in the pinches. He finished the 1916 season with a batting average of .257, a very poor average for a player rated as one of the greatest outfielders in the game; a player who had hit close to the .300 mark in other years.

Tried to Figure Reason

Some of the baseball scribes who were taken back by Magee's poor showing tried to figure out the whys and wherefores of his slump, and finally decided that it was caused by overanxiousness to make good. But when the Yankees started the season of 1917 and Magee showed no signs of improving, the mystery regarding his poor hitting deepened, and no one has been able to solve it to date.

Magee was benched no less than 14 times this season because he was not hitting the ball. The first time he was relegated to the long timber, Bill Donovan placed him there at his own request. Lee is a conscientious player and he knew he wasn't of much use in the lineup, so he asked Bill to plant him on the bench for a while and see if he couldn't start hitting the pill after a short rest.

Took Long Vacation.

After a vacation of several weeks, Magee felt as though he could come back with the bat, for he began to sting the ball in batting practice and wanted to see what he could do playing regularly. So Wild Willyum injected him into the lineup a second time, with the same disappointing result. The third trial given Magee came shortly after the Yanks returned from their first western road trip, and for four or five days Lee smashed out his hits regularly, only to fall back into the same old rut. Recently, at St. Louis, Donovan placed Lee on the bench for the fourteenth time, and his failure to hit led up to the trade for Marsans.

Williams made seven extra base hits during the week, three home runs and four doubles. Griggs made a double, triple and a homer and Crandall of the Bees duplicated this feat.
