Concrete Men to Be Urged to Go After Contracts on Next Batch of Paving.

. Salem, Or., Aug. 14.-In all the highway paving jobs let by the state highway commission this year, why have there been no bidders for cement concrete pavements?

This is the question asked by Herbert Nunn, state highway engineer, of the directors of the Oregon Portland cement company. Nearly all the jobs have been awarded for bitulithic. This office has been somewhat sur

Coos Bay Is Busy

Salem, Aug. 14 .- Industry is humming in the Coos Bay country, says Frank J. Miller, chairman of the public service commission, who returned Sunday from spending several days in that section of the state. From two to three million feet of lumber is being shipped from the bay each week, he says, while shipbuilding is rushing. Two vessels have been completed and launched, three are now on the ways, and four new ways are being built. He learned also that 200,000 feet of spruce timber for aeroplane stock is being cut in that district every day.
