Disposition in Some Quarters Is to Leave Answer to President Wilson.

London, Aug. 17 .- (U. P)-The allies will not reply to the peace appeal of Pope Benedict until after consultation in which all the entents powers will have a part.

At the same time there is some dis-position in certain quarters to leave AMBULANCE SERVICE the answer to President Wilson. The statement that all of the entente nations and their allies will be consulted before a reply to the Vatican is decided on, was made by Lord Rolert Cecil to lay. He was unwilling to comment on the proposals of the pope, pending official decision.

Washington, Aug. 17-(U. P)-President Wilson's cabinet will voice its views on the pope's peace plea at its views on the pope's peace plea at today's cabinet session. That the Young Men Who Can Defray tenor will be for rejection is undoubted

There is strong disposition, however, to have the president make America's position and aims in the war unmistakably clear. His advisers deem it wise that this government should let fight is not greedy, but instead arises kaiserism and its frightfuiness.
