BEAVERS SPLIT EVEN WITH SEALS, HOUCK'S PITCHING TAKING ONE

Then Chief Johnson Comes Back With a 3 to 1 Sunday Victory for the Visitors

By R. A. Cronin

When Byron Houck spitballed the Seals into a 2 to 9 defeat in the header, the Beavers made it five out the series. Then Chief Johnson came back with a 3 to 1 victory and the visitors broke even on the day. Red Oldham and Ken Penner were the losing hurlers, although against different kind of pitching each might have gathered.

From the first until the eighth inning the Scals were unable to gather a bingle off Houck's wicked spitter in the first contest.
