Churchmen Are to Be Guests of the Pastor at Dinner

Next Friday evening at 6:30 clock, in the First Christian church parlors, the pastor, Rev. Harold H. Griffis, will enter-tain at dinner for the men of the church. A program of special addresses has been pre-pared. Plans for the season's work will be presented for the consideration of the men and an effort will be made to en-list the cooperation of all the men of the church towards making the coming year the best in the history of the First Christian church.

How one may know he is disciple of Christ will be explained in the sermon delivered by Harold H. Griffis at the First Christian church Sunday morning, his subject being "The New Testament Marks of a Genuine Christian." In the evening the discourse will deal with the authenticity of a Divine Being or "The Testi-mony of Subpensed Witnesses,"

Church Efficiency Will Be Discussed

Sunday morning Dr. Hinson will discuss the question, "Is the Church Worth While?" He will ask the question whether in the present re-arranging of values, the church is of insufficient value to be really worth saving. And if the answer of some be true, that the church is a spent force, and no longer an asset at Highland Baptist Church life of man, what substitute for the church is worthy of acceptance by ice to an extent that makes its existence desirable, wherein does that usefulness of the church to the good of man rest?

At night Dr. Hinson's topic will be the suggestiveness of the sign "For Rent Being Round Upon the Human Soul," the "Tragedy of the, Empty House" in the realm of the spirit of man. This theme will evidence that the general, war now being raged is the outcome of individual conflicts within the spirits of certain men and it will bring to light the fact that the tenents of the soul determine all outward manifestations of conduct.

Man's Higher Self Theme for Sermon
