

What Society Is Doing

BY NONA LAWLER

Mrs. George L. Baker, who will be one of the patronesses for the Portland Social club O. E. S. dance Saturday evening, September 20, at Masonic Temple.

ANOTHER engagement is added to the list today. Miss Mary Brownlie and Charles Francis Larrabee of Hellingham are the latest couple to tell interesting news. Mrs. Alan Green (Helen Ladd), who was a bride of July, made known the engagement this afternoon when she gave an informal tea for a few of the most intimate friends of the bride-elect. Miss Brownlie is a delightful girl, both pretty and charming, and counts her friends by the score. She is the daughter of Mrs. Alexander J. Brownlie and a sister of Mrs. Walter Telford (Jean Brownlie) and Arthur C. Brownlie. She attended Portland Academy and later was graduated from Reed college. Mr. Larrabee is the son of Mrs. Charles C. Larrabee of Beaverton. He is also a Reed graduate and the romance had its beginning there. He is well known among the young people of Portland and popular in a large circle of friends. The wedding date is not announced as yet, but it will be an event of the very near future.

Conservatory Faculty to Receive

The Valair Conservatory of Music and Art Dramatique, Madame Lucie Valair, director, has sent out invitations for a reception for Sunday afternoon, September 23, from 3 until 6 o'clock, at 234 and 236 Tenth street, corner of Main. The faculty will receive with Madame Valair.

Engagement Announcement

Mr. and Mrs. Olof Olson announce the engagement of their only daughter, Miss Sophie C. Olson, to Charles Davis of Cusick, Wash. The bride-elect is known in musical circles here, as she was a music teacher in this city for a number of years. Mr. Davis is a well known business man of Cusick, Wash. The date of the wedding has been set for December 23.

Harlow-Grady Hall Opening

The weekly supper banquet will be opened at Harlow-Grady hall Saturday evening with an informal party. Mrs. Harold Grady, who has been visiting in San Francisco for the last 10 days, will return home Saturday afternoon, and Mr. and Mrs. Grady will receive the guests. Mrs. Frederick Harlow will remain for a few weeks in San Francisco, where she is in charge of the kindergarten dances at the St. Francis hotel.

Move in From Rivera

Mr. and Mrs. Ira F. Powers have moved in from their country residence on Palatine Hill and have taken the Charles Morros residence of their officers. The grand guardian will receive $5000 a year; grand clerk, $4500; grand banker, $3600. The members of the board of managers will receive $120 a year and expenses attending regular or special meetings.

Rose City Field Social—Rose City camp, M. W. A., had a social and dance Wednesday night that was well attended by many young people. Cards were played until 10 p. m., when the floor was cleared for dancing. The camp has decreed some social event of that nature twice a month through the season.

Mayor Revisited by Royal Circle—Owing to the neighbors of Woodcraft Grand circle still being in session, the members of Royal circle held a brief meeting Wednesday night and adjourned. Mayor George L. Baker was initiated Wednesday night, October 3, instead.

Samaritan Confers Degree—Samaritan lodge, I. O. O. F., conferred the second degree Wednesday night before a large attendance of members at the Odd Fellows' temple. Next Wednesday the third degree will be given. K. J. Nolan, degree master, is securing the cordial cooperation of members in the team work.

Lents Neighbors Visited—J. W. Simons, deputy head consul for Oregon, visited Lents camp, M. W. A., Wednesday night and participated in a pleasant gathering of the neighbors.

Club News

Research Club to Meet—On Thursday, September 27, at 12 o'clock, the Portland Women's Research club will hold its first luncheon for the season in the Gold Room of Hotel Multnomah. Mrs. G. L. Buland, chairman for September, is arranging an interesting program for the affair.

Following the luncheon the regular monthly business meeting of the club will be held and all members are asked to be present, as there are a number of important matters in connection with the club's work for the coming season to be discussed and voted on.

At a recent session the club's board of directors decided to devote the second Thursday of each month to Red Cross work and on that day the members will gather in the tea room of Olds, Wortman & King for tea and to make Red Cross supplies. On the fourth Thursday of each month during the season the club will hold a luncheon in Hotel Multnomah, when the members and their guests will enjoy instructive and entertaining programs consisting of talks by able speakers and music.

Mrs. Ford to Talk—Mrs. Mary Handford, Chicago, art lecturer, is spending a few days in Portland, and tomorrow she will be the honor guest at a reception to be given at the home

Bed Time Tales

BY CLARA INGRAM JUDSON

Enter Fatty Caterpillar
IN THE very back part of the garden behind the flower beds, the lettuce border ad the asparagus patch, were two long, straight rows of cabbages. Ned had set them out weeks ago when they were just tiny, gray-green plants only two inches high. But such good sunshine and so much rain did they get, that now they were grown fat and big and plump, and their silky greenish white leaves glistened in the sunshine.

Across the top of the biggest, fattest one of the lot, there slowly crept a great, fat, woolly caterpillar. And as he crept, he ate and ate and ate! Very good eating these," he said to himself between bites, "very good eating. I only hope that gardener boy does not come and find me here. I would not like to be killed for I feel sure that if I keep on eating all the lettuce I will live and some day I will be as beautiful as you."

"Such a fool idea," cried Billy Robin disgustedly. "You can never be beautiful if you glutton. You are ugly and fat. And he flew on his way to his nest."

Beautiful Friend Cardinal flew overhead and noticed the caterpillar. "How sorry I am for you!" he cried; "here on this lovely day, you do not sing, you do not even look at the sunshine and flowers! You only eat and eat and eat! How stupid you are, poor thing!"

Down underneath the cabbage, in the moist shade of her broad sides, Mr. Snail stopped for a rest. He heard what the cardinal said and raised his shell enough to look up the side of the big round cabbage and see the caterpillar eating his way across the top. "Oh, you great lazy creature," he called, "I name you Fatty Caterpillar."

of Mrs. Alice Welster, corner of Fifteenth and Siskiyou streets, in Irvington, when she will speak on some phase of art development and appreciation. Mrs. Ford is recognized as one of the most fascinating and versatile speakers in this country, speaking on a wide range of both modern and classical subjects of both a literary and ar-

"Do you never think of friends? Do you always and forever eat?"

For you eat and eat though you are already fat enough to burst. Do you never think of friends? Do you always and forever eat?"

"Why shouldn't I eat?" asked the caterpillar. "I eat to grow. Some day I will be a beautiful creature and you will be glad to know me. Of course I eat—because I must."

"You be a beautiful creature," chimed in Tommy Sparrow who happened to fly by just in time to hear what the caterpillar said. "You will never be anything but a fat, greedy guttler! You are not even good for you arm yourself with such furry, poisonous stickers. If you will take these off, we may like you better."

And he flew away, chuckling at his own little joke.

Did Fatty Caterpillar care about the teasing? Did he mind the nickname and the tormenting? Did he feel sad, because nobody liked him? Not he! He ate alone across the top of the cabbage with never a thought about the creatures around him. He ate and ate and ate, and as the day wore on, he dreamed of what he was to be.

Tomorrow—Fatty Caterpillar Goes to Sleep.

Aid society of the Woodlawn M. E. church will be entertained Thursday afternoon by Mrs. George Thornton and Mrs. A. Bales at the home of the former, 1455 Lenoir street. There will be election of officers. Ladies are requested to bring their thimbles to work for the Red Cross. Refreshments will be served.

Georgetown Club to Meet—The Georgetown club of the Y. W. C. A. will meet in the Y. W. C. A. auditorium at 8 o'clock Friday evening, September 21. All girls who have been at the Georgetown camp are invited and are requested to take along any kodak pictures that will be of general interest.

There will be election of officers. Plans for the winter will be made.

East Side Central—The East Side Central Y. W. C. A. will meet with the president, Mrs. Hattie Wilson, 493 East Ash street, at 2 o'clock, Friday, to ratify the appointment of delegates to the state convention and to close up the year's work.

Holiday Association to Meet—The first meeting for the season of the Holiday Parent-Teacher association will be held Friday in the assembly hall at 3 o'clock. Committees will be announced, the year's work planned and a program by the children given.

Yakima Girl Wants "Tipperary" Profits

New York, Sept. 29.—(U. P.)—"Tipperary," the song which sprang into popularity in the early days of the war, was stolen from a tune written for the purpose of boosting apples grown near North Yakima, Wash., Alice Smith, Yakima Jay alleged in the supreme court today. She declared she wrote the original booster song in 1905. Miss Jay is suing the publishers of "Tipperary" for all their profits.

DAILY SHOPPING GUIDE

VOL. 1 NO. 5 THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 1917 WASHINGTON ST. AT TENTH

Moderately Priced
$10.50

It comes in a pretty shade of blue serge, cut on new Fall lines. The full back is held in place by a belt which fastens at the side front under a buttoned flap. Several tucks between the pleats at the side add an effective touch. This would be a splendid service skirt for every purpose.

SUITS ARE ATTRACTIVE

We are now showing a very lovely assortment of Fall Suits. Many are profusely trimmed in fur, others are more simply arranged. There is surely a suit here for you, and at just the price you want to pay.

IT IS A PLEASURE

If you just knew how our salespeople really enjoy pleasing the customers, how it means just so much to them to show one who is "just looking" as it is to make a sale, you would feel perfectly free to come into the Eastern whenever you have a minute. New things arrive daily, we would like to show them to you.

New Today

Ladies' Coat of gunmetal silver tip. Semi-high waist, full under-arms. Handsome racoon collar. Fully lined in self color. Priced at $72.50.

Trench Coats

for men are the last word in style. See our complete line in Men's Shop.
EASTERN OUTFITTING CO.,
Washington St. at Tenth

Style Tips

A decidedly higher décolleté is shown this season in gowns for dinner and evening wear than has been fashionable for many moons. Low necks are only moderately so, coming slightly below the shoulders in the back and to a modest V in front.

Dressy Separate Skirts are to be popular. The overskirt, with narrow under petticoat and the long tunic is much in evidence. Low side drapery is very much used, while the drapery caught up in the back, suggestive of the bustle, is one of the new ideas.

All Dressed Up

What woman doesn't enjoy wearing the new Fall things while they are new. There is no reason why you shouldn't buy as later, and there are lots of reasons why you should.
