

ROOSEVELT INVADES WISCONSIN AND FLAYS SENATOR LA FOLLETTE

Two Rousing Rallies Are Held in Racine and People 'Shame' Their Solon.

Racine, Wis., Sept. 28.—(I. N. S.)—Invading Senator La Follette's territory Thursday night, Colonel Theodore Roosevelt delivered a heavy onslaught on La Follette and pacifists in general before two large audiences here.

He was introduced by Governor Philip at the auditorium and later at Danish Brotherhood hall.

"I have the word of your governor, a true American, that the attacking Wisconsin for sympathy and reassurance represent the real sentiment of Wisconsin toward the war," declared Colonel Roosevelt.

Cries of "shame" followed his reminder that La Follette lately condemned the soldiers of the Lusitania.

He was cheered mightily many times. If there were any pacifists in either audience they were well disguised.

"Wisconsin Spirit Is Loyal" "Wisconsin's record in the civil war has been clean up to now," the colonel went on.

"I have often come to Wisconsin for sympathy and reassurance when I felt that there was something wrong with Americanism in other states. I feel like a Wisconsinite because I am the product of its soil."

He told of his ancestry, German, Dutch, Welsh and English Quaker.

"Fortunately," he said, turning to Governor Philip, "I have partly gotten over my Quakerism."

"As a principle to govern future immigration he advocated barring from this country any person whose grandfathers would not be willing to have marry ours."

Here, as in all his speeches lately, he took a fling at the Wilson administration for barring him from raising a volunteer division.

"Only Americanism Wanted" "The position of the copperhead in the Civil war was precisely the same as that of today's copperhead."

"The time has come when we should insist that any man who believes in Germanism or any other 'ism,' except pure Americanism, is a foe to the United States. There is no room here any longer for fifty-fifty allegiance."

The former president had bitter words for newspaper editors, especially those who are urging peace.

"Those who demand peace without victory for the right," he asserted, "are endeavoring to weaken and embarrass the United States in this war. This is treason."

He renewed his attacks on the Wilson administration for slowness in preparing for war.

"In the last three years," he declared, "Germany has perpetrated worse crimes than George III committed against us in his day. It seems inconceivable that any man could have failed to see that we were destined to be swept into the war even so far back as February, 1915, when Germany invaded Belgium."

Students Are Being Weeded at Presidio

San Francisco, Sept. 28.—Weeding out of men temporarily or physically unfit to hold officerships in the new national army continues at the second officers' training camp at the Presidio. Two candidates found to have physical disabilities, were discharged from camp Thursday.

Two others, who could no longer stand the rigors of training, were discharged at their own request. A fifth man was discharged when it was found he was a native of Australia and had not taken out his final citizenship papers.
