

AMERICAN ALLIANCE FORMS STATE BRANCH AT SALEM COUNCIL

President of University Is to Sign Charter Membership of New Movement.

SECOND MEETING DATED

Public to Be Given Chance to Sign Pledges at Willamette Chapel Tuesday.

Salem, Or., Oct. 5.—At a meeting of the Salem Trades and Labor council Wednesday night, a branch of the American Alliance for Labor and Democracy was organized, with 21 persons signing the membership roll. Another meeting, to which the public is invited, will be held next Tuesday night in Willamette University chapel.

Carl G. Coney, president of the university, headed the list of members who signed Wednesday night. At the next meeting everyone will be invited to sign the membership pledge, which is as follows: "The undersigned hereby affirms that it is the duty of all the people of the United States, without regard to class, nationality, politics or religion, faithfully and loyally to support the government of the United States in carrying on the present war for justice, freedom and democracy to a triumphant conclusion, and gives this pledge to uphold every honorable effort for the accomplishment of that purpose, and to support the American Federation of Labor as well as the declaration of organized labor's representatives, made March 12, 1917, at Washington, D. C., as to 'Labor's Position in Peace or in War,' and agrees that this pledge shall be his right to membership in the American Alliance for Labor and Democracy. Any deviation on my part from the above pledge shall in itself sever my membership in the alliance."

New Roadway Sought

Salem, Or., Oct. 5.—A delegation of citizens from Woodburn and Mt. Angel interviewed State Highway Engineer Nunn Thursday afternoon, asking for a survey for a new road from Woodburn to Silverton, by way of Mt. Angel. They desire to have the road constructed as a post road through district and county and state matching funds with the government's post road allotment. In the delegation were Joseph J. Eber and O. D. Eber of Mt. Angel and Fred Dease and N. A. Hatford of Woodburn.

Duty of Washington State in War, Topic

Council of Defense, Assembled in North Yakima Hears Patriotic Address by Governor Lister.

North Yakima, Oct. 5.—Washington's duty in winning the war and how that duty was being met by the patriotic citizens of the state, was the subject of a rousing address by Governor Ernest Lister at the armory, where a large crowd gathered to hear what the members of the state council of defense had to say on questions concerning the war.

The meeting was presided over by O. A. Fechter, chairman of the county council of defense, and music was furnished by members of the Comara club. Other speakers of the evening were Charles Hebbard of Spokane and Dr. Henry Suzzallo of the university.

Banks Cannot Block Liberty Bond Sales

Washington, Oct. 5.—(I. N. S.)—Comptroller of the Currency Williams Thursday afternoon refused to sanction the plan of national banks to increase the interest rates on deposits from 3 to 4 per cent to discourage withdrawals for the purchase of Liberty bonds.

Pennsylvania Line To Increase Fares

Washington, Oct. 5.—(I. N. S.)—Increases in passenger fares on the Pennsylvania from New York to Ottawa, Canada, and from New York and Philadelphia to Richmond, Va., were approved by the Interstate Commerce commission today. The commission also approved the action of the Pennsylvania railroad in canceling through fare rates to points in Cuba.

Shoes for Belgians Object of Campaign

San Francisco, Oct. 5.—With 15,000 pairs of old shoes collected at the Gerard meeting Wednesday night as a nucleus, the San Francisco Ad club Thursday announced that it would conduct a campaign for a month for the purpose of sending 100,000 pairs of shoes to Belgium. Work of sorting and packing the shoes gathered at the meeting in the municipal auditorium is under way, the wholesale and retail shoeshops lending experts to the club for this purpose. Repairs will be made to all the shoes that need them, so that every pair sent to Belgium may be worn.

Somnambulist Fails To Cheat War Draft

New York, Oct. 5.—(I. N. S.)—Abram S. Sromwasser made a novel plea for exemption from the national army Thursday. He claimed to be a somnambulist and expressed a dread of walking into a German trench in his pajamas some night. His plea was denied by the board.

MRS. SWOPE HEADS W. C. T. U. OF OREGON AS ITS CHIEF OFFICER

She Is Elevated From Office of Vice President, Relieving Mrs. Jennie M. Kemp.

Albany, Or., Oct. 5.—Mrs. M. Frances Swope of Portland Thursday afternoon was elected president of the Oregon Woman's Christian Temperance union for the coming year. Mrs. Swope, who has served actively in the work for a number of years, was the retiring vice president, and is one of the best known members in the state. Her choice was unanimous. Mrs. Jennie M. Kemp, retiring president, was elected vice president; Mrs. Madge J. Mears of Shedd, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Stephen A. Lowell of Pendleton, recording secretary; Mrs. Ada Jolly of Portland, treasurer;

Mrs. Scroggs of Portland, Y. P. B. secretary; Mrs. Jane Donaldson of Portland, L. T. L. secretary. National Delegates Named. Mrs. Henrietta Brown of Albany was named delegate at large to the national convention in Washington, D. C., in December, and the following others were named additional delegates: Mrs. Mary Russell of Portland, Mrs. Stella Leavitt of Ashland, Mrs. S. A. Lowell of Pendleton, Mrs. M. L. T. Hadden of Portland, Mrs. Lucia F. Addison of Portland, and the four state officers, who are delegates ex officio. The second day of the convention was a busy one for the delegates, who filled the auditorium of the First Presbyterian church. Among the busiest members is Mrs. Lucia F. Addison of Portland who attended the first convention in Portland 24 years ago, and since that time has not missed a meeting and has served in some sort of an official capacity ever since. She is looked upon as an authority on all matters connected with the work. Patriotic Exercises Are Held. The morning session was devoted mostly to routine work, committee reports and detailed work of the association. The patriotic exercises were the feature of the afternoon session. Mrs. G. L. Euland of Portland paid a tribute to Frances E. Willard, for 25 years at the head of the W. C. T. U. Patriotic songs were also featured. The thanks offering service, led by Mrs. Henrietta Brown, was well supported. In the evening the exercises were turned over to the county presidents, with Mrs. Madge J. Mears, president of Linn chapter, presiding. The convention will close this afternoon. The place of next year's meeting will be chosen then.
