

WIVES OF THE SOCIAL WORLD

News for publication in the Sunday Journal must be placed in the office by Friday afternoon.

By Noëa Lawler

THE marriage of Miss Elizabeth Jones and Richard Maurice Dooly Jr. Wednesday evening at the residence of Mrs. William Jones, mother of the bride, will be foremost in social interest for this week. The entertainment of the last few weeks has largely revolved around these two popular young people, and Miss Isabella Macleay and her fiancé, Lovelle Merrill, prospective marriages planned for October 27. Both ceremonies are to be simply arranged but will nevertheless be of widespread interest.

On the distant horizon is the Allied bazaar, looming up as one of the biggest affairs in the history of the city. There is a network of committees and subcommittees in charge, which embrace society in all its cliques and circles and cement the interest of the city as a whole in the affair. The first week in December is set for the event to run just three days.

In the near future there is the week of grand opera at the Auditorium, when the La Scala Opera company will present at its most interesting repertoire beginning October 15.

Many informal affairs are being given in compliment to Mrs. Thomas Scott Brooks of San Francisco, a former Portlandian who is planning several weeks in the city. She is with Mrs. Thomas Robertson this week and has been the guest of Mrs. D. W. L. MacGregor for the 10 days previous. Later she will visit Mrs. Thomas Kerr. Mrs. MacGregor was a luncheon hostess in her honor week before last. Monday of last week Miss Flanders gave a luncheon in her honor. Tuesday Mrs. Sherman Hall presided at a similar affair for the visitor. Wednesday Mrs. Guy Webster Talbot planned a picnic luncheon out on the Columbia river highland with the Talbot summer place near La-tourail as a destination.

Mrs. John Forrest Dickson entertained for Miss Elizabeth Jones and Miss Isabella Macleay, both popular and much feted October bride-to-be, with a luncheon at the Waverley Country club, Thursday afternoon. Seated around the charmingly decked board were: Mrs. Frederick L. Macleay, Mrs. Cameron Squires, Mrs. Heilist, Mrs. Norman N. Rupp, Mrs. Alan Green, Miss Maisie and Miss Allie MacMaster, Miss Harriet Cumming, Miss Virginia McCully, Miss Dorothy Lambert, Miss Ruth Teal, Miss Gladys Pitts of Victoria, B. C., Miss Esther Jones, Miss Katherine Laidlaw, Miss Sara McCully, Miss Dorothy Stroubridge, Miss Jones, Miss Macleay and the hostess.

Announcements have been received in Portland of the wedding at Great Neck, Long Island, of Miss Dorothy Susan Merrill and Edward Aaron Davis, U. S. N. R. F. Sunday, September 18, at All Saints church. The bride is the daughter of Bradford Merrill of the New York American and Mr. Davis is the son of Mrs. William Henry Davis of New York.

In compliment to Miss Elizabeth Jones, bride to be, Miss Ruth Teal gave an informal tea Wednesday for a number of the friends of the bride. Presiding at the prettily decked tea table were: Mrs. Cameron Squires (Claire Wilcox), Mrs. Alan Green (Helen Ladd), Mrs. Robert Scott (Nancy Zan) and Miss Polly Young.

Among the many pretty affairs planned for the pleasure of Miss Isabella Macleay, bride-elect, was a luncheon at the University club Wednesday, at which Mrs. Lester Brice (nee Whitmore) presided. Later the guests made up a box party at the Orpheum.

Mrs. Helen Ekin Starrett left recently for New York, where she will pass several months before returning to Portland after the holidays. Mrs. Starrett had planned to leave the middle of this month but has had her departure owing to the illness of her eldest son who resides in New York.

Celebrating the thirty-seventh anniversary of the organization of their society, the women of St. Ann's charitable society and their friends gave one of the most enjoyable receptions of the season Thursday at the residence of Mrs. A. M. McGinn on North Twenty-third street. Mrs. McGinn, with the officers of the society, presided. They include: Mrs. P. J. Flynn, president; Mrs. James Dunbar, vice president; Mrs. Catherine Cook, secretary, and Mrs. Honora M. Lawler, treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Honeyman and Mrs. David T. Honeyman left Tuesday morning for New York, where they expect to pass a month or six weeks. Mrs. Honeyman is expected to have gone with them, but has deferred her departure until a later time, when she will visit her daughter, Mrs. Frank Vincent du Mont.

The Portland Flower Mission and Day Nursery will give a tea, or house warming, at its new home, Tenth and Madison streets, on Tuesday, October 14, from 1 to 5 o'clock. All friends of the mission are cordially invited to attend.

Society was in attendance Wednesday evening at the concert by Madame Meisner at the Heilig. Among the box and line parties were: Mrs. Dr. and Mrs. Charles Edwin Sears, Dr. and Mrs. Wilson Johnston, Mrs. W. S. Babson and Miss Abbie Whiteside, Dr. and Mrs. Edward Cookington and guests, Mr. and Mrs. L. Samuels and Mr. and Mrs. Walter John Burr.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Edwards entertained with a dinner party prior to the concert. Their guests later making up a box party at the Heilig. Those included Mr. and Mrs. William D. Wheelwright, Miss Maisie MacMaster and Anthony Euwer.

Mrs. and Mrs. Arthur M. Meares were hosts at the theatre party Wednesday evening, honoring Miss Elizabeth Jones and her fiancé, R. M. Dooly Jr.

For the soldiers' Christmas box fund all society attended the Heilig Friday afternoon when a benefit movie performance was given under the auspices of Mrs. Holt C. Wilson, Mrs. William D. Wheelwright and a committee of assistants. Among those who took boxes were Mrs. Joseph N. Teal, Mrs. Thea E. Wilcox, Mrs. L. Allen Lewis, Mrs. E. E. Thompson, Miss Sallie Lewis, Mrs. Wheelwright and Mrs. Wilson. An especial feature was the orchestra contribution. The Musicians' Mutual association donated the orchestra, and two large affairs in Portland some years ago, first at the armory and later at the Heilig, both memorably successful performances artistically and financially.

MRS. SANDIE FOULHOX AND DAUGHTER ANITA.

Miss Dorothy Condon left Monday for Los Angeles, where she will enter the Immaculate Heart convent at Hollywood. Miss Condon is the daughter of Mrs. D. J. Condon of Irvington and will be missed by hosts of young friends in Portland this winter.

A big subscription dinner dance is planned by a number of the dancing set for Thursday evening at 6 o'clock at Hotel Portland, following which the guests will attend the dance to be given by Mr. and Mrs. George E. Love at Muriark hall.

Miss Hazel Phillips of Canyon City, Or., one of the Zeta Alpha Omicron girls of the Oregon Agricultural college, passed last week in Portland at the George H. Kelley residence in Johnson street, the guest of Miss Jean Kelley. The sorority is a local organization at Corvallis that is petitioning Chi Omega for a chapter. A number of the girls came down recently for the Chi Omega dance at Muriark hall and have been visiting friends in the city for the last week.

Among the prominent Portlanders who left for California on the steamer Beaver Tuesday were Mrs. Edgar E. Courson and Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Donohoe. Mrs. Courson will be joined by Mrs. A. M. Curtis in San Francisco and together they will leave within a few days for the Hawaiian Islands to visit Mrs. Courson's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond E. Courson, who are living at Waialoa, Kauai on the island of Maui. Mrs. Courson Jr. will be remembered as Miss Frances Cabell of Portland and Mrs. Curtis is her mother. Mrs. Courson and Mrs. Curtis plan to be in the islands for several months.

Mr. and Mrs. Donohoe, who have been visiting their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Allen Reed, at their Hood River ranch for the last few months, during Mr. Donohoe's convalescence from a motor accident, are going to their home in Los Angeles on Arlington Heights to pass the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Tyler Henshaw of Oakland, who are guests at Hotel Portland, entertained Thursday evening with a small dinner party. Covers were laid for seven.

The Misses Harriet and Florence Leach were hostesses for several informal affairs for Miss Frankie Heath and her accompanist, Mr. Litchfield, who played at the Orpheum the early part of the week.

As this was the visitor's first time to the coast, a trip up the Columbia highway was greatly enjoyed. The Misses Leach and Miss Heath were members of the same company touring the southern states last winter.

Mrs. T. M. Hurlburt entertained the nurses of the Emanuel hospital Friday evening at her home at 1243 Francis avenue. The home was prettily decorated with autumn leaves and gladiolas. The nurses present, who were chaperoned by Sister Betty Hansen, matron of the hospital, were: Miss Wozniak, Miss Anderson, Miss Peterson, Miss Burch, Miss Murh, Miss Ebe, Miss Dora Johnson, Miss Swenson, Miss Lindquist, Miss Olga Peterson, Miss Nordling, Miss Minnie Johnson, Miss Olsen, Miss Lund, Miss Edna Pearson, Miss Dalbeck, Miss Emma and Miss Swanman.

Other guests present were: Dr. and Mrs. Carl Swenson, Dr. and Mrs. F. S. Post, Mrs. and Mrs. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Lunegren, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Waldemar Seton, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Richton, Mr. and Mrs. Martin T. Pratt.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy M. Standifer left for the east last week, accompanied by Miss Virginia Meneffe, who will enter Oakmere school, Mamaroneck, N. Y., and Miss Elizabeth Huber, who will attend Miss Evans' school in Boston. Mr. and Mrs. Standifer will make an extended stay in the east.

The members of the Portland Hunt club and their friends are anticipating with a great deal of pleasure the fall meet, which is to be held at 2:30 Saturday afternoon, October 13. Tea and light refreshments may be had at the club house at any time during the afternoon, and at the close of the meet dinner will be served to those who have made reservations in advance. These glorious autumn days have filled everyone with more than the usual amount of enthusiasm, and have made it possible to put in much time in practice at the track, judging from the way the men are making use of the polo field, a very close and interesting game can be expected on next Saturday. This game and the exceptionally good entry lists in the nine other scheduled events, promise a very entertaining afternoon.

On Saturday, at the invitation of Miss Sadie Noyes, 31 members of the staff of the Portland Public library had supper at the club house.

Invitations have been received for a dance to be given by Mr. and Mrs. George E. Love, Thursday evening, October 8, at Muriark ballroom. It will be a formal subscription dance. The patrons and patronesses are: Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Farrell, Mr. and Mrs. Woodard, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Mackenzie, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. C. Whittaker, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. McCulloch, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Shea, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Guild, Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Brink, Dr. and Mrs. William Shea and Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Brookings.

The first informal dancing party of the fall season under the auspices of

Mr. and Mrs. Warren E. McCord have left for Superior, Wis., their former home, to make an extended stay of a month or six weeks. They will be joined there later by Mrs. J. Sherman O'Gorman and Miss Virginia McDonough and later will all go to Chicago and New York, returning west in time for the season in California.

Miss Jean Morrison is being extensively entertained in Eastern Oregon, where she is visiting her sister, Mrs. Thomas Sharp.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy M. Standifer left for the east last week, accompanied by Miss Virginia Meneffe, who will enter Oakmere school, Mamaroneck, N. Y., and Miss Elizabeth Huber, who will attend Miss Evans' school in Boston. Mr. and Mrs. Standifer will make an extended stay in the east.

The members of the Portland Hunt club and their friends are anticipating with a great deal of pleasure the fall meet, which is to be held at 2:30 Saturday afternoon, October 13. Tea and light refreshments may be had at the club house at any time during the afternoon, and at the close of the meet dinner will be served to those who have made reservations in advance. These glorious autumn days have filled everyone with more than the usual amount of enthusiasm, and have made it possible to put in much time in practice at the track, judging from the way the men are making use of the polo field, a very close and interesting game can be expected on next Saturday. This game and the exceptionally good entry lists in the nine other scheduled events, promise a very entertaining afternoon.

On Saturday, at the invitation of Miss Sadie Noyes, 31 members of the staff of the Portland Public library had supper at the club house.

Invitations have been received for a dance to be given by Mr. and Mrs. George E. Love, Thursday evening, October 8, at Muriark ballroom. It will be a formal subscription dance. The patrons and patronesses are: Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Farrell, Mr. and Mrs. Woodard, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Mackenzie, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. C. Whittaker, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. McCulloch, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Shea, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Guild, Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Brink, Dr. and Mrs. William Shea and Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Brookings.

The first informal dancing party of the fall season under the auspices of

Mr. and Mrs. Warren E. McCord have left for Superior, Wis., their former home, to make an extended stay of a month or six weeks. They will be joined there later by Mrs. J. Sherman O'Gorman and Miss Virginia McDonough and later will all go to Chicago and New York, returning west in time for the season in California.

Miss Jean Morrison is being extensively entertained in Eastern Oregon, where she is visiting her sister, Mrs. Thomas Sharp.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy M. Standifer left for the east last week, accompanied by Miss Virginia Meneffe, who will enter Oakmere school, Mamaroneck, N. Y., and Miss Elizabeth Huber, who will attend Miss Evans' school in Boston. Mr. and Mrs. Standifer will make an extended stay in the east.

The members of the Portland Hunt club and their friends are anticipating with a great deal of pleasure the fall meet, which is to be held at 2:30 Saturday afternoon, October 13. Tea and light refreshments may be had at the club house at any time during the afternoon, and at the close of the meet dinner will be served to those who have made reservations in advance. These glorious autumn days have filled everyone with more than the usual amount of enthusiasm, and have made it possible to put in much time in practice at the track, judging from the way the men are making use of the polo field, a very close and interesting game can be expected on next Saturday. This game and the exceptionally good entry lists in the nine other scheduled events, promise a very entertaining afternoon.

On Saturday, at the invitation of Miss Sadie Noyes, 31 members of the staff of the Portland Public library had supper at the club house.

Invitations have been received for a dance to be given by Mr. and Mrs. George E. Love, Thursday evening, October 8, at Muriark ballroom. It will be a formal subscription dance. The patrons and patronesses are: Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Farrell, Mr. and Mrs. Woodard, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Mackenzie, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. C. Whittaker, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. McCulloch, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Shea, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Guild, Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Brink, Dr. and Mrs. William Shea and Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Brookings.

The first informal dancing party of the fall season under the auspices of

KEY TO THE PICTURES

MRS. ANDRE FOULHOX, whose photograph, posed with her little daughter Anita, is reproduced in the society pages today plans to leave soon to join Captain Foulhoux, U. S. R., who is now at Fort Sill, Okla.

Mrs. Raymond B. Wilcox, one of the popular young matrons of Portland society, will be missed this fall, as she plans to pass the next month or more in Boston with her relatives, leaving for the East next Saturday.

Mrs. G. L. Boyden (Zella Thompson) is a popular Pendleton girl who, with her husband, Dr. Boyden, is in Portland on their honeymoon. Dr. and Mrs. Boyden were married Wednesday, September 26, the ceremony being one of the smartest of the season in Eastern Oregon. Dr. Boyden is on the examining board at Camp Lewis and his wife will accompany him to American Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Watson, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Hurlburt, Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Hurlburt, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Hurlburt, daughter Helen, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Winters, Mrs. Charles Doty, Mrs. Anselm, Miss Lunegren, Misses Ella and Lillian Swanson, Mrs. Anna Linder, Misses Clara and Beulah Marr, Miss Selma Schuholm, Miss Eva Johnson, Miss Elizabeth Dart and Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Hurlburt.

The first of the season's orchestra night dancing parties was given on last Monday evening, the Cotillon hall having been comfortably filled. Friday evening the members were entertained at cards, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Williams presiding over the tables, and Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Holmes held their first class in dancing, these classes to be held weekly until 10 will have been given. The classes in French will commence study Wednesday evening, October 10. A number having been enrolled, in fact so very many have taken advantage of this opportunity to become members that the class will need to be divided. In order to accommodate them all, the first class will meet at 7:30 and the second at 8:30 o'clock.

The reception and welcome back to Portland, after 22 years of medical missionary service in Korea, to Dr. and Mrs. J. Hunter Wells, at the First Presbyterian church on Thursday evening, was a very pleasant and enjoyable occasion. Dr. Boyd introduced them, referring to the fact of their going to Asia from the Presbyterian church, and read the Korea mission's resolution reciting their long and successful service, the regret of the mission on their leaving, with best wishes for their future success. Mention was made of the strenuous and original work of the doctor in cholera epidemics, in surgery, along hygienic lines and endeavor, in training medical students and in aiding in the foundation work of that very successful mission. Special mention was made of Mrs. Wells' work among women, of her hospitable home and of her successful endeavors. Dr. and Mrs. Wells gave an instructive, entertaining and amusing scene from the hospital, Mrs. Wells and her two children being in Korean costume. Dr. Wells gave a brief sketch of the work in Korea, and Mrs. Wells impersonated, in costume, one of the noted Bible women, whom she trained and developed.

Summer Women's Relief corps gave a luncheon Thursday at which the following were in attendance: Mrs. Margaret Neal, Mrs. Alice Younger, Mrs. Alice C. Hanna, Mrs. Harriet Hendee, Mrs. Sarah Woodruff Wells, Mrs. E. F. McGowan, Mrs. Mary Gillis, Mrs. Hatfield Wiener, Mrs. Eva Dickinson, Mrs. Alice E. Grandorf, Mrs. M. J. Collin, Mrs. Louis Rader, Mrs. Mae Younger, Mrs. Hazel Rann, Mrs. Georgia Hoyt, Mrs. Agnes Ogilbee, Mrs. Sarah M.

(Continued on Following Page)

WHAT IS MORE EXASPERATING than to want and need smart clothes and not to have the money to buy them? ATIGEH BROS. has solved the problem for many a man and woman; buy on easy payments. Why don't you invest in a $85-$1 Washington street, Pittcock block.—Adv.

What is more exasperating than to want and need smart clothes and not to have the money to buy them? ATIGEH BROS. has solved the problem for many a man and woman; buy on easy payments. Why don't you invest in a $85-$1 Washington street, Pittcock block.—Adv.

Oriental Rugs

A Most Complete Assortment of the Highest Quality at the Most Reasonable Prices

We are enabled by our long experience and standing in the rug markets to maintain our collection of Persian rugs to its highest standard, in spite of the many difficulties in importation, and in addition we have a wonderful assortment of Chinese rugs.

Your Inspection Is Invited

Leading Importers in the West

Atigeh Bros.

Wholesale and Retail

391-395 Alder Street, Corner of Tenth

YOUTH—in All Her Various Stages

Correctly and Economically Appareled in Our Misses' Shop

Featured are garments specifically designed for the tall, slender miss—the short, petite maiden and the young lady of more robust figure—in all, the styles are considered with particular reference to the charm of every type. The prices, too, are graduated to suit the ideas of each individual as to what should be spent for the Fall apparel.

Suits

—Second Floor.

The new suits are jaunty, dignified, and truly refreshingly new. Attractive are the boyishly plain suits—braid trimmed suits, scarf suits, and a generous showing of the favored high-waist type, shirred below the belt. Many are modeled with tucks about the waist with large buckles to fasten. Priced from

$22.50, $30, $35, $42.50 and Up

Coats

—Second Floor.

Large "comfy" collars; soft, graceful fabrics and dashing embellishments augment the charm of the new coats, which in coloring and style development are distinctly smart as well as serviceable. Scores of new models to choose from at

$25, $32.50, $57.50 and Up

Dresses

—Third Floor.

Parisian ideas have been ingeniously developed in the new dresses for afternoon and street wear. Infinite taste in their design is evident and the excellence of materials and workmanship assure the thoughtful miss of full value for money spent.

$18.75, $22.50, $25 and Up

Misses' Frocks

—Third Floor.

Serge frocks of the sort every girl wants for school, business, travel and general utility wear. Some in plain models, others with a dainty bit of embroidery and others played out in prices from

$18.75, $22.50, $25 and Up

Show Your Patriotism and Buy a Liberty Bond

H. Liebes & Co.

ESTABLISHED 52 YEARS FURS

149-151 BROADWAY

W. G. SMITH & CO.
MORGAN BLDG.
and
WEDDING CARD EXCHANGES

Jantzen

Each one we make is a Jantzen design, all wool, and a perfect garment.

PORTLAND KNITTING CO.
150 Third Street, 145 Broadway.

Show your patriotism and buy a Liberty Loan.

Milady's Furs For Fall

PREPARATIONS made months in advance, and the experience gained in fifty-three years of producing and manufacturing furs, are back of our new showing of smart fur garments for Milady's winter wardrobe. By reason of producing, manufacturing and selling direct, the saving afforded our customers is of unusual interest.

QUALITY is a foundation stone here, as is EXCELLENCE of style, EXCELLENCE of workmanship and SUPREMACY of service. At your leisure, make it a point to inspect our new showing of

Animal Scarfs, Stoles
Coatees, Muffs
Sets, Coats

A complete showing of Furs for Misses and Children

H. Liebes & Co.
ESTABLISHED 52 YEARS FURS
149-151 BROADWAY