

WHAT SOCIETIES ARE DOING

Miller, Mrs. Anna C. Gardner, Mrs. Hattie Phebus, Mrs. Mildred Newell, Mrs. Julia Taylor, Mrs. Susan Keene, Mrs. Maggie Prentiss, Mrs. Jennie Burnett, Mrs. Emma K. Tomlinson, Mrs. Eunice Sargent, Mrs. L. A. Cummins, Mrs. M. H. McMahon, Miss Maude L. Burnett, Mrs. Annie M. Young, Mrs. Katherine C. Griffith, Mrs. Gertrude Fargo, Mrs. Clara Tefft, Mrs. L. S. Seal, Mrs. M. Taylor, Mrs. Anna Hubbard, Mrs. S. M. LaFollette, Mrs. Alts Hohansheit, Mrs. M. C. Henderson, Mrs. Ella Bates, Mrs. Cora McBride, Mrs. Sarah C. Eastman, Mrs. Rebecca Gray.

Visiting cards. William Klump—Ad.

SOCIETY PERSONALS

Miss Isabel Steele, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edson J. Steele, will leave Sunday for Corvallis, where she will enter the State college. Miss Steele attended the college last year and was recently notified that she had been chosen as concertmaster of the college orchestra. She is a gifted violinist, and this honor is most gratifying to her and to her friends.

Mrs. J. Andie Poulhoux will leave early this week for Fort Hill, accompanied by her little daughter, Anita, and will be with Captain Poulhoux in Oklahoma until his departure for France, when she will join her sister, Miss Beattie Clark, in Baltimore, Md. for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Chesman are being showered with congratulations on the arrival of a baby daughter, Marjorie Dale, whose advent Sunday evening was the occasion of much rejoicing. Mrs. Chesman was Miss Marjorie Pike, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Pike.

Mrs. Samuel D. Smith has as her house guest her daughter, Mrs. Richard Schofield, who arrived recently from Honolulu, where Colonel Schofield is stationed. Miss L. A. Smith, who has been in San Francisco visiting, returned home with her sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul B. Powers are receiving the congratulations of their friends on the birth of a daughter, Genevieve Marguerite, Tuesday morning. Mrs. Powers was formerly Miss Edith M. Dufur.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Myers are recipients of numerous congratulations on the birth of a son. The baby was born Friday night at St. Vincent's hospital. Mr. Myers is cashier at the Benson hotel.

Dr. and Mrs. Edgar H. Anderson, the latter formerly Miss Nellie Mullaney, are receiving congratulations on the arrival last week of a little son, Edgar Harrison Anderson, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Davis, Miss Lilla L. Bush and Miss Elsie Benedict, prominent society people of San Francisco, motored up this week and are guests at Hotel Portland.

Prominent Californians who have been registered at the Portland hotel on a motor trip north are Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Davis, Miss Elsie Benedict and Miss Lilla L. Bush.

Miss Margaret West, after spending some time at Seaside as the guest of her cousin, George W. McFah, has entered Monmouth normal school for her senior year.

Mr. and Mrs. Tyler Henshaw and Mrs. Pearl Filmore of Oakland are guests at Hotel Portland. Mr. Henshaw is a capitalist and sportsman of note.

Elbert S. Robb, assistant manager of Hotel Portland, and Mrs. Robb are in Eastern Oregon visiting relatives and attending the Prineville fair.

Miss James Miller of Uplands, Cal., is the house guest of Miss Irene Steele. When she returns south she will be accompanied by Miss Steele.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Cook are receiving messages of congratulation on the arrival Thursday, August 27, of a son.

Miss Maizie MacMaster will leave this week for Omit to take up her duties at the Hostess house at American Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Brantwhait of London are guests at Hotel Portland. Mr. Brantwhait is a lecturer on Christian Science.

Mrs. J. L. Wells will leave Saturday morning for Wilhoit Springs to remain for a week or 10 days.

Mrs. Cleo Corbett Herron leaves shortly for an extended eastern trip to visit relatives and friends.

Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Macrum of Mosier are in the city for a few days and are staying at Hotel Portland.

Captain H. A. Pearson of the British army, whose home is in Toronto, is a guest at Hotel Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. James Paul Cooke left Tuesday for a few weeks' visit in San Francisco.

James T. Pershing, brother of General Pershing, is at Hotel Portland from Chicago.

WEDDINGS

Astoria, Or., Oct. 6.—At a nuptial mass in St. John's church at 9 o'clock on Wednesday morning, September 19, Joseph P. Limerick of Portland and Miss Agnes S. Leahy of this city were married by the rector, the Rev. Father John Waters. The altar and sanctuary were tastefully decorated with palms, ferns, hydrangeas and dahlias. Miss Josephine McCann played the "Wedding March" from Lohengrin as the bridal party entered the church. The bride was given in marriage by her father. During the services, Miss Minnie German of Chicago most delightfully rendered Gounod's "Ave Maria" and "Come Unto Me." The bride was gown in a beautiful French creation of white satin and lace with full court train and with a flowing veil caught up with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of Bride roses and Cecil Brunner buds. Miss Eulalia Leahy, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and her frock was of pale pink taffeta with trimmings of silver lace. She wore a beautiful picture hat of white tulle and pink roses and carried a bouquet of Bride roses.

MRS. RAYMOND B. WILCOX. PHOTO BY W. B. DILL.

The four little flower girls, Coyle Noonan, Eileen O'Brien, Helen Graves and Anna Marie Friedrich, were artistically gowned in embroidered organdie and carried quaint flower baskets of pink sweet peas. J. Joseph Leahy, brother of the bride, attended the groom.

Immediately following the services a wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Leahy. In the afternoon a reception was held from 2 o'clock until 4, where the happy couple received the congratulations of their many friends.

They left on the evening train for Puget Sound cities and after a short trip will be at home, after October 15, at 415 Going street, Portland.

Among the out of town guests who attended the wedding were: Mrs. M. Limerick, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hayward, Miss Helen Graves, Mrs. Frank X. Grussal and Miss Armella Grussal, all of Portland; Mrs. M. Leahy, Miss Alice Leahy, Miss Helen Leahy and Will Leahy of Olney, and Roderick Noonan of the United States army, Fort Stevens.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Leahy, pioneer residents of this county, and is a very accomplished young lady.

Mr. Limerick is the son of Mrs. M. Limerick of Portland and is a promising young business man.

Miss Fern Nickum and F. Clair McDougal were married at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Mildred Kingsley.

Only the relatives of the couple and a few close friends were present. The bride is a sister of Mrs. Alfred Grandstrom (Mayde Nickum), whose wedding was an event of a few weeks ago. Mr. McDougal is a prominent young attorney of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. McDougal have left for San Francisco, where they will pass their honeymoon.

Saturday, September 29, at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Jennie Remington, 148 East Alberta street, at 9 p. m., Percy J. Bailey and Miss Hazel E. Soldren were married wedding march was played by Miss Mildred Kingsley. Only the relatives of the couple and a few close friends were present. The bride is a sister of Mrs. Alfred Grandstrom (Mayde Nickum), whose wedding was an event of a few weeks ago. Mr. McDougal is a prominent young attorney of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. McDougal have left for San Francisco, where they will pass their honeymoon.

Saturday, September 29, at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Jennie Remington, 148 East Alberta street, at 9 p. m., Percy J. Bailey and Miss Hazel E. Soldren were married wedding march was played by Miss Mildred Kingsley. Only the relatives of the couple and a few close friends were present. The bride is a sister of Mrs. Alfred Grandstrom (Mayde Nickum), whose wedding was an event of a few weeks ago. Mr. McDougal is a prominent young attorney of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. McDougal have left for San Francisco, where they will pass their honeymoon.

Saturday, September 29, at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Jennie Remington, 148 East Alberta street, at 9 p. m., Percy J. Bailey and Miss Hazel E. Soldren were married wedding march was played by Miss Mildred Kingsley. Only the relatives of the couple and a few close friends were present. The bride is a sister of Mrs. Alfred Grandstrom (Mayde Nickum), whose wedding was an event of a few weeks ago. Mr. McDougal is a prominent young attorney of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. McDougal have left for San Francisco, where they will pass their honeymoon.

In the presence of about 30 invited guests. The parlors of the Remington home were beautifully decorated with autumn leaves, ivy, asters and dahlias. Miss Pearl West attended the bride and W. A. Hutton was best man. T. M. Yoder and his son, T. B. Yoder, furnished the music for the occasion, playing the wedding march and entertaining the guests with some fine selections at other times during the evening. The officiating clergyman was Dr. W. C. Kantner of Pilgrim church.

A pretty, though quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of Mrs. J. Mackie, 610 Grand avenue, on the evening of October 1 when her son, Arthur Ernest Mackie, of the firm of Coleman & Mackie, was married to Claire C. Caldwell, late of Kansas City, Mo. There were no attendants, and only relatives and a very few close friends of the family were present. The Rev. D. C. Thompson of Mizpah church performed the ceremony. The young couple will be at home to their friends at 221 East Fifty-fourth street after November 1.

Coming as a surprise to their many friends in Portland is the announcement of the marriage Monday evening of Miss Lillian Morgan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Morgan of this city, and Dr. August M. Kinney, a young physician of that city. The ceremony was arranged at the residence of M. C. and Mrs. C. A. Rusco Jr., 324 Eighth street, Astoria. The Rev. Mr. Boyd of the First Presbyterian church of Astoria officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Kinney plan to take an extended trip to Japan.

At the home of the bride's mother, the marriage of Miss Gladys S. Ward to Harold Edward Robinson was solemnized, Saturday, September 29, Rev. Harry Neal officiating.

Wedding invitations. William Klump—Ad.

EVENTS OF WEEK

A miscellaneous shower was given in honor of Mrs. H. Lorraine (Daisy Smith) at the home of Mrs. George W. Adams at Stanley station Thursday afternoon. Music was enjoyed, after which a dainty luncheon was served. Many handsome presents were received by the bride. The present were: Mrs. Jim Smith, Mrs. Jack Adams, Mrs. Will Bell, Mrs. J. P. Smith, Mrs. Thomas Gill, Mrs. C. Robbins, Mrs. Thomas Smith, Mrs. W. Anderson, Mrs. J. B. Doyle, Mrs. M. H. Lorraine, Mrs. J. D. Stevens, Miss Dorothy Stevens, Miss Phyllis Anderson, Mrs. George W. Adams and Miss M. Smith. Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Lorraine will make their home in Tacoma, Wash.

Mrs. Robert Smith (Edna Sattler), a recent bride, was the inspiration of a prettily appointed party Saturday night. The rooms were elaborately decorated with beautiful pink and white flowers. The present were: Mrs. Jim Smith, Mrs. Jack Adams, Mrs. Will Bell, Mrs. J. P. Smith, Mrs. Thomas Gill, Mrs. C. Robbins, Mrs. Thomas Smith, Mrs. W. Anderson, Mrs. J. B. Doyle, Mrs. M. H. Lorraine, Mrs. J. D. Stevens, Miss Dorothy Stevens, Miss Phyllis Anderson, Mrs. George W. Adams and Miss M. Smith. Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Lorraine will make their home in Tacoma, Wash.

The Misses Edith Suttie and Jess Gammell entertained a few of their friends Saturday evening at the home of Miss Suttie in Laurelhurst. The girls were attired in the youthful garments of their younger sisters. A delightful evening was spent, the program corresponding with the juvenile nature of the affair. Toy balloons were used in decorating, and the guests looked charming in checked paper sunbonnets provided as favors during the luncheon. Those present were: Mrs. Clifford Gray, Mrs. Stuart Pratt and the Misses Elma Johnson, Frances Riesch, Lillian Everest, Gladys Hutchina, Beatrice Simpson, Helen Brown and Ethel Penwell. Mrs. Mary Smyth gave a delightful dinner Sunday evening in honor of Earl Chapel. The invited guests were: The Misses Helen Parsons, Alts Case, Violet Grayson and Floy Smyth, Earl Chapel, Thomas Casavan and Harvey Utter. The same party of young people were the guests of Mr. Chapel on a camping trip a short time ago, having made the trip in his motor boat.

For the benefit of the Masonic and Eastern Star home fund, the social club of Multnomah chapter No. 104, Order of the Eastern Star, gave a card party on Wednesday evening, October 3, at the Masonic hall, Kenton, corner of Derby and Kilpatrick streets. Five hundred was the feature of the evening. Prizes were given and refreshments served.

The women of Ben Butler, W. R. C. No. 51, entertained the post with a dinner on Thursday at noon in Daway's hall, Thirty-fifth and Yamhill streets. Mrs. Elley, department junior vice president, gave an interesting talk. Mrs. Cook gave several selections on the piano. Mr. Chambers, department commander, gave the ladies and post an interesting talk on his trip to the national encampment.

The Iowa society held its first meeting of the season Tuesday evening at the Portland hotel and enjoyed the usual good time with dancing, cards and the social hour. An excellent program was given by Miss Mae Warman, reader, and little Virginia Dabney, pianist. The society will meet hereafter in the Hotel Multnomah the first Wednesday of each month.

Mr. Shaw of Anabel church and his

NORMAN BROS
Tailors
101-103 MEZZANINE FLOOR

An Atmosphere That Charms

The atmosphere that breathes exquisite taste in one's dress is charmingly reflected in the recent arrivals of Fall and Winter Fabrics embodying the latest in Women's Tailored Suitings.

Attention!

Our repair shop is equipped to do all kinds of furniture repairing and upholstery by expert mechanics. We have a large line of tapestry fabrics and cretonnes, which are now on sale at great reductions.

S. KUGEL & SON
130 South St.

class of 14 junior boys spent Sunday afternoon on the banks of the Sandy, going by auto. The boys took a picnic lunch along for the evening. The return trip was made by the way of Troutdale and the Sandy boulevard.

The Masamas enjoyed a banquet and dance in the grill of Hotel Portland, Saturday evening. There were 60 in attendance and the affair was much enjoyed. Dr. C. V. Luther was chairman of the committee in charge. The Michigan State society met Monday evening in the gold and white parlor of Hotel Portland. Cards, dancing, a program and refreshments were the order of the evening. There were about 100 present.

Wedding announcements. Wm. Klump—Ad.

The Most Remarkable Values this shop has ever shown, on Display Monday Morning.

HERE are wonderful garments—afternoon and street dresses, suits, coats, blouses. A special trip to New York was made in order to secure them and place them before you for your enjoyment and profit.

There is no need to tell you they are worth far more than the prices named—the garments speak for themselves. This remarkable display is made in order to make this shop important to you—to make it indeed your shop.

Come tomorrow prepared to choose and to buy. The beauty of these garments and their value-appeal will be irresistible.

New Frocks $22.50

An assortment of wonderfully smart, graceful dresses, comprising serge, satin, taffeta, serge and satin, and georgette combinations; also including some beautiful foulard and georgette combinations. These are positively the smartest and most stunning frocks of the season.

Afternoon and Street Frocks $32.50

These are the garments de luxe—rich, handsome street frocks faultlessly designed in serge, serge and satin, georgette and serge, and georgette and satin combinations, and in georgette with beading.

To see them is to admire and covet them.

Special Lot New Coats On Sale at $32.50

Stylish, ample garments made of rich velours in all colors, with fancy linings of pussywillow type. Choose your Autumn coats from these tomorrow.

100 Clever Suits $25, $32.50, $37.50

Settle Shop Style—Settle Shop Quality

Just 100 plain and fancy tailored suits in gabardines, serges, velours, Oxfords, Poiret twills, and tricotees. They are the season's very latest individual models, and they are exclusive with this shop. On display tomorrow.

The Settle Shop
Pittock Block, 383 Washington St., Portland, Ore.

The Peasley's PHOTOGRAPHY and ART
407 MORRISON

Special for One Week Only, Introducing the New "DELPH PANELS"

12 (4x9) Panels
1 (6x10) Enlargement
4 Proofs to choose from Regular $8 Value ..... $4.00

Smartest and Most Distinctive of the Late Modes

are these new creations just received from New York's most exclusive work shops. A large and versatile assortment of exquisite outer garments, consisting of Coats, Tailleur Suits, Daytime and Evening Frocks, and "the new" in Blouses, all of which are full of expression and thrilled with typical Fifth Avenue charm.

PRICED AS USUAL
Coats $19.50 Upwards
Tailleur Suits $22.50 Upwards
Daytime and Evening Frocks $18.75 Up
Blouses $2.00 and Upwards

C. E. Holliday
355 Alder Street at Park

Exclusive Styles for Fall and Winter

Enke's CITY DYE WORKS

East
H. ENKE, Prop. 1194 7300

BUY A LIBERTY BOND—OUR MONEY MUST WIN THE WAR

The House of Courtesy

A Remarkable Sale of Dresses $12.50

Made possible by a big special purchase, sale Monday at $12.50

REMARKABLE—because dresses like these never sold at anywhere near the price of $12.50 before. A big manufacturer who was desirous of securing some of our dress business made this sale possible. Just 55 serge and silk dresses comprise this sale. Dozens of clever styles to select from in plain and loose effects—belted and gathered backs—draped effects—embroidered—silk and braid trimmed. These are dresses like you would pay $19.50 and higher for. For Monday, these beautiful dresses at $12.50.

Handsome New Blouses $8.95

Portland's Popular Priced Millinery Shop

NEVER before in our history have we had so many hats to show you. Those who have been around say, beyond doubt, we have more hats and prettier hats than any store hereabouts. Tomorrow we call attention to our exceptional group of new Fall hats at $10 and $12. You'll find that most $15 and $18 hats haven't such chic and individuality as these. Why not see them tomorrow?

EMPORIUM
124 to 128 Sixth St. Just of Washington