

INFORMATION

(28TH DAY OF 1917) Coming Events, Portland, beginning October 20. Lead Products Show, Portland, beginning October 20.

Today's Forecast Portland and vicinity—Tonight and Sunday fair; northern part of the state moderate to light rain; elsewhere moderate to light rain.

Weather Conditions The pressure is high, morning over the southwest and northeast to interior-western Canada then eastward to the St. Lawrence valley and precipitation has occurred on the north Pacific coast and in the North-western states. A high pressure area is moving eastward over the Pacific northwest, while the central "high" has shifted eastward and is central this morning over Tennessee. It has caused cooler weather in the western part of the Mississippi valley. The weather is warmer in interior-western Canada and southward to Texas. Temperatures continue above normal in Oregon and Washington.

Table with columns: STATIONS, Maximum, Minimum, Precipitation, etc. Lists various cities like Abilene, Texas; Baker, Or.; Boise, Idaho; Boston, Mass., etc.

TOWN TOPICS

To Attend Conference—Miss Florence M. Reed, secretary to the president of Reed college, went to San Francisco Wednesday night to attend a conference of the Y. W. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. workers beginning today.

New Auto Club East of Mountains Freewater, Or., Oct. 13.—A delegation from the Walla Walla Commercial club visited the Freewater Commercial club Tuesday evening for the purpose of organizing a new auto club in the Eastern Washington and Eastern Oregon, with headquarters at Walla Walla.

Slacker Is Sentenced—Jefferson New of Jennings Lodge was convicted in the federal court today of failing to register for conscription. He was sentenced to 60 days in jail.

Benefit Show October 30—Arrangements have been made by friends of Battery B of the Oregon field artillery for a benefit play night at the Baker theatre, Tuesday, October 30.

McMurray Goes East—William McMurray, general passenger agent of the O-W-R-N, left Friday night for St. Louis to attend the meeting of the American Association of Passenger Traffic Officers, October 16 to 20.

To Fight Forest Fires—M. L. Merritt and N. G. Jacobson, forest examiners stationed at the local office of the United States forest service, left Thursday night for the water national forest, where a spreading forest fire is reported.

Diamond Ring Stolen—A platinum ring set with three diamonds that has been in the family for two generations was reported stolen by F. S. Stanley, Alvarado Apartments, Mr. Stanley told the police that the theft occurred some time during the past 10 days.

Sunday Evening Open Forum—I. B. Rhodes, Y. M. C. A. army secretary

First Presbyterian Church 12th and Alder Sts. 7:30 P. M. TOMORROW "What Is God Doing During This War?" Rev. John H. Boyd, D. D.

RESIDENT OF OREGON FOR SCORE OF YEARS GOES TO LAST REST

Louis H. Sandoz, Veteran of Spanish-American War, Dies at St. Vincents. Louis H. Sandoz, a native of Switzerland, aged 86, and a resident of Oregon for over 20 years, died at St. Vincents hospital Thursday after suffering from a complication of diseases for some time.

MRS. MILLIE BERWICK Daughter of Portland Minister Dies at Heppner, Or. Mrs. Millie Berwick, wife of Dr. Brullette, died at Heppner, Oregon, Wednesday following an operation. Mrs. Berwick was well known in Portland, where she resided for many years.

Physician of Athena Is Found Dead with Bullet Hole in Head Death of Dr. William R. Scott Indicates Suicide Although It May Have Been Accident Pendleton, Or., Oct. 13.—With a bullet hole through the head, the body of Dr. William R. Scott, for a number of years a practicing physician at Athena, was found at noon Friday in the bath-room at the Claude Reeder farm home four miles east of Heppner.

Aged Woman Passes Away Pendleton, Or., Oct. 13.—Mrs. Ernestine Geisler, 80 years old, a resident of Umatilla county since Pendleton was a hamlet, died last night at her home in this city of pneumonia.

Tract of Land Sold Pendleton, Or., Oct. 13.—Thomas Thompson has purchased 440 acres of land near Athena from V. H. Rogers and it is said the consideration was near $50,000.

O-W-R. & N. Shows Increase Revenues Salem, Or., Oct. 12.—Operating revenues of the O-W-R. & N. company for the year ending December 31, 1916, were $18,850,253, which is an increase of $2,861,262 over the previous year.

Will Inspect Hospital Salem, Or., Oct. 12.—Secretary of State Olcott and State Treasurer Kay, two members of the state board of control, will leave tonight for Roseburg to inspect and accept from the contractor the new hospital building, erected at the Oregon Soldiers' home.

Fire Companies to Be Enlisted for Camps Adjutant General White of the local national army headquarters has received notice that organization of a company for guard and fire duty will begin immediately.

Fathers and Mothers Greeting Commencing Tuesday, Oct. 16, 1917, I will open to the public a free and open office for children, realizing that the majority of diseases begin in the early life of childhood.

British Red Cross—Meeting Saturday night, Woodmen hall, Eleventh and Alder, 8 o'clock. Good program. Mrs. St. Clair Stobart will give an interesting talk on Serbia.

Steamer Jessie Marking for Camas, Washington and way landings, daily, except Sunday; leaves Washington street dock at 2 p. m. (Adv.)

Many Railroaders Enlist for Russia Reconstruction of Roads in Slavic Country Object of Organization Now Fairly Under Way.

Several Portland railroad men already have enlisted in the Russian railway corps and will contribute 224 men to the transportation system of that country. Men employed by the S. P. & S. who have made application for this service and been accepted are J. Z. Stansbery, superintendent; E. M. Herting, chief dispatcher; James Welch, trainmaster; H. Barnick, master mechanic; F. S. Barlow and E. A. Gagnon, train dispatchers; James W. West, traveling engineer; and B. F. Fisher, boiler foreman.

Physician of Athena Is Found Dead with Bullet Hole in Head Death of Dr. William R. Scott Indicates Suicide Although It May Have Been Accident Pendleton, Or., Oct. 13.—With a bullet hole through the head, the body of Dr. William R. Scott, for a number of years a practicing physician at Athena, was found at noon Friday in the bath-room at the Claude Reeder farm home four miles east of Heppner.

Tract of Land Sold Pendleton, Or., Oct. 13.—Thomas Thompson has purchased 440 acres of land near Athena from V. H. Rogers and it is said the consideration was near $50,000.

O-W-R. & N. Shows Increase Revenues Salem, Or., Oct. 12.—Operating revenues of the O-W-R. & N. company for the year ending December 31, 1916, were $18,850,253, which is an increase of $2,861,262 over the previous year.

Will Inspect Hospital Salem, Or., Oct. 12.—Secretary of State Olcott and State Treasurer Kay, two members of the state board of control, will leave tonight for Roseburg to inspect and accept from the contractor the new hospital building, erected at the Oregon Soldiers' home.

Fire Companies to Be Enlisted for Camps Adjutant General White of the local national army headquarters has received notice that organization of a company for guard and fire duty will begin immediately.

Fathers and Mothers Greeting Commencing Tuesday, Oct. 16, 1917, I will open to the public a free and open office for children, realizing that the majority of diseases begin in the early life of childhood.

British Red Cross—Meeting Saturday night, Woodmen hall, Eleventh and Alder, 8 o'clock. Good program. Mrs. St. Clair Stobart will give an interesting talk on Serbia.

Steamer Jessie Marking for Camas, Washington and way landings, daily, except Sunday; leaves Washington street dock at 2 p. m. (Adv.)

Dancing at Riverside Park every Sunday afternoon and evening. New pavilion, open place orchestra. Ladies in 10 p. m. Saturday. (Adv.)

Steamer Iraida for St. Helens and Rainier, daily at 2:30 p. m. foot of Alder street; Sunday, St. Helens only. 1:30 p. m. (Adv.)

CITY FISH MARKET IS HOPING TO GET SUPPLY DIRECT FROM COAST

Seattle Combination Seeks to Control Halibut Fishing Industry Off Newport. While sales at the municipal fish market are increasing, Commissioner Dan Kellaher and Ivan Humason, manager of the market, are making a thorough investigation of the possibility of securing a daily supply direct from the fishermen at Newport and other points along the Oregon coast.

Physician of Athena Is Found Dead with Bullet Hole in Head Death of Dr. William R. Scott Indicates Suicide Although It May Have Been Accident Pendleton, Or., Oct. 13.—With a bullet hole through the head, the body of Dr. William R. Scott, for a number of years a practicing physician at Athena, was found at noon Friday in the bath-room at the Claude Reeder farm home four miles east of Heppner.

Tract of Land Sold Pendleton, Or., Oct. 13.—Thomas Thompson has purchased 440 acres of land near Athena from V. H. Rogers and it is said the consideration was near $50,000.

O-W-R. & N. Shows Increase Revenues Salem, Or., Oct. 12.—Operating revenues of the O-W-R. & N. company for the year ending December 31, 1916, were $18,850,253, which is an increase of $2,861,262 over the previous year.

Will Inspect Hospital Salem, Or., Oct. 12.—Secretary of State Olcott and State Treasurer Kay, two members of the state board of control, will leave tonight for Roseburg to inspect and accept from the contractor the new hospital building, erected at the Oregon Soldiers' home.

Fire Companies to Be Enlisted for Camps Adjutant General White of the local national army headquarters has received notice that organization of a company for guard and fire duty will begin immediately.

Fathers and Mothers Greeting Commencing Tuesday, Oct. 16, 1917, I will open to the public a free and open office for children, realizing that the majority of diseases begin in the early life of childhood.

British Red Cross—Meeting Saturday night, Woodmen hall, Eleventh and Alder, 8 o'clock. Good program. Mrs. St. Clair Stobart will give an interesting talk on Serbia.

Steamer Jessie Marking for Camas, Washington and way landings, daily, except Sunday; leaves Washington street dock at 2 p. m. (Adv.)

Dancing at Riverside Park every Sunday afternoon and evening. New pavilion, open place orchestra. Ladies in 10 p. m. Saturday. (Adv.)

Steamer Iraida for St. Helens and Rainier, daily at 2:30 p. m. foot of Alder street; Sunday, St. Helens only. 1:30 p. m. (Adv.)

White Slave's Mate Jailed as 'Slacker'

Young Methodist Minister, Whose Girl Wife Was Found in Dive, Had Served Time in Spokane. Police and federal officers, who have been looking into the case of Ella Morgan, a 21-year-old girl alleged to have been brought to Portland for immoral purposes by Mabel Hazel, have discovered that the girl's husband, a Methodist minister, has just finished serving a 30-day prison term in Spokane for dodging the draft.

Physician of Athena Is Found Dead with Bullet Hole in Head Death of Dr. William R. Scott Indicates Suicide Although It May Have Been Accident Pendleton, Or., Oct. 13.—With a bullet hole through the head, the body of Dr. William R. Scott, for a number of years a practicing physician at Athena, was found at noon Friday in the bath-room at the Claude Reeder farm home four miles east of Heppner.

Tract of Land Sold Pendleton, Or., Oct. 13.—Thomas Thompson has purchased 440 acres of land near Athena from V. H. Rogers and it is said the consideration was near $50,000.

O-W-R. & N. Shows Increase Revenues Salem, Or., Oct. 12.—Operating revenues of the O-W-R. & N. company for the year ending December 31, 1916, were $18,850,253, which is an increase of $2,861,262 over the previous year.

Will Inspect Hospital Salem, Or., Oct. 12.—Secretary of State Olcott and State Treasurer Kay, two members of the state board of control, will leave tonight for Roseburg to inspect and accept from the contractor the new hospital building, erected at the Oregon Soldiers' home.

Fire Companies to Be Enlisted for Camps Adjutant General White of the local national army headquarters has received notice that organization of a company for guard and fire duty will begin immediately.

Fathers and Mothers Greeting Commencing Tuesday, Oct. 16, 1917, I will open to the public a free and open office for children, realizing that the majority of diseases begin in the early life of childhood.

British Red Cross—Meeting Saturday night, Woodmen hall, Eleventh and Alder, 8 o'clock. Good program. Mrs. St. Clair Stobart will give an interesting talk on Serbia.

Steamer Jessie Marking for Camas, Washington and way landings, daily, except Sunday; leaves Washington street dock at 2 p. m. (Adv.)

Dancing at Riverside Park every Sunday afternoon and evening. New pavilion, open place orchestra. Ladies in 10 p. m. Saturday. (Adv.)

Steamer Iraida for St. Helens and Rainier, daily at 2:30 p. m. foot of Alder street; Sunday, St. Helens only. 1:30 p. m. (Adv.)

"TONY" FOLKS STILL WASTING FOOD, SAYS HEAD OF CREMATORY

William Helber Declares People in Better Class Homes Are Not Conserving. While the amount of foodstuffs hauled to the municipal garbage incinerator has decreased 30 per cent within the past year, an enormous amount of food is still wasted, according to William Helber, in charge of the incinerator.

Physician of Athena Is Found Dead with Bullet Hole in Head Death of Dr. William R. Scott Indicates Suicide Although It May Have Been Accident Pendleton, Or., Oct. 13.—With a bullet hole through the head, the body of Dr. William R. Scott, for a number of years a practicing physician at Athena, was found at noon Friday in the bath-room at the Claude Reeder farm home four miles east of Heppner.

Tract of Land Sold Pendleton, Or., Oct. 13.—Thomas Thompson has purchased 440 acres of land near Athena from V. H. Rogers and it is said the consideration was near $50,000.

O-W-R. & N. Shows Increase Revenues Salem, Or., Oct. 12.—Operating revenues of the O-W-R. & N. company for the year ending December 31, 1916, were $18,850,253, which is an increase of $2,861,262 over the previous year.

Will Inspect Hospital Salem, Or., Oct. 12.—Secretary of State Olcott and State Treasurer Kay, two members of the state board of control, will leave tonight for Roseburg to inspect and accept from the contractor the new hospital building, erected at the Oregon Soldiers' home.

Fire Companies to Be Enlisted for Camps Adjutant General White of the local national army headquarters has received notice that organization of a company for guard and fire duty will begin immediately.

Fathers and Mothers Greeting Commencing Tuesday, Oct. 16, 1917, I will open to the public a free and open office for children, realizing that the majority of diseases begin in the early life of childhood.

British Red Cross—Meeting Saturday night, Woodmen hall, Eleventh and Alder, 8 o'clock. Good program. Mrs. St. Clair Stobart will give an interesting talk on Serbia.

Steamer Jessie Marking for Camas, Washington and way landings, daily, except Sunday; leaves Washington street dock at 2 p. m. (Adv.)

Dancing at Riverside Park every Sunday afternoon and evening. New pavilion, open place orchestra. Ladies in 10 p. m. Saturday. (Adv.)

Steamer Iraida for St. Helens and Rainier, daily at 2:30 p. m. foot of Alder street; Sunday, St. Helens only. 1:30 p. m. (Adv.)

Baseball Identifies American Soldiers Skeptical Boches Convinced by Game

American Field Headquarters, France, Sept. 20.—(U. P.)—(By mail)—Boche prisoners working near one of the American camps would not believe our troops were really Americans until they saw them play ball. It happened thus: The Americans used to meet a little bunch of the German prisoners on the road every day. Once in a while they would strike one who could speak English—the story was always the same.

Physician of Athena Is Found Dead with Bullet Hole in Head Death of Dr. William R. Scott Indicates Suicide Although It May Have Been Accident Pendleton, Or., Oct. 13.—With a bullet hole through the head, the body of Dr. William R. Scott, for a number of years a practicing physician at Athena, was found at noon Friday in the bath-room at the Claude Reeder farm home four miles east of Heppner.

Tract of Land Sold Pendleton, Or., Oct. 13.—Thomas Thompson has purchased 440 acres of land near Athena from V. H. Rogers and it is said the consideration was near $50,000.

O-W-R. & N. Shows Increase Revenues Salem, Or., Oct. 12.—Operating revenues of the O-W-R. & N. company for the year ending December 31, 1916, were $18,850,253, which is an increase of $2,861,262 over the previous year.

Will Inspect Hospital Salem, Or., Oct. 12.—Secretary of State Olcott and State Treasurer Kay, two members of the state board of control, will leave tonight for Roseburg to inspect and accept from the contractor the new hospital building, erected at the Oregon Soldiers' home.

Fire Companies to Be Enlisted for Camps Adjutant General White of the local national army headquarters has received notice that organization of a company for guard and fire duty will begin immediately.

Fathers and Mothers Greeting Commencing Tuesday, Oct. 16, 1917, I will open to the public a free and open office for children, realizing that the majority of diseases begin in the early life of childhood.

British Red Cross—Meeting Saturday night, Woodmen hall, Eleventh and Alder, 8 o'clock. Good program. Mrs. St. Clair Stobart will give an interesting talk on Serbia.

Steamer Jessie Marking for Camas, Washington and way landings, daily, except Sunday; leaves Washington street dock at 2 p. m. (Adv.)

Dancing at Riverside Park every Sunday afternoon and evening. New pavilion, open place orchestra. Ladies in 10 p. m. Saturday. (Adv.)

Steamer Iraida for St. Helens and Rainier, daily at 2:30 p. m. foot of Alder street; Sunday, St. Helens only. 1:30 p. m. (Adv.)

PROPOSAL MADE FOR COUNTY TAKING OVER FAIR FROM GRESHAM

Association Offers Site to Commissioners; Muck Is Favorable to Project. A proposal for Multnomah county to take over the Gresham fair is before the county commissioners. A delegation composed of President H. A. Lewis, E. L. Thorpe, A. T. Miller and L. G. Nichols, director of the County Fair association, appeared before the county board and asked that Multnomah county take over the affairs and property of the association.

Physician of Athena Is Found Dead with Bullet Hole in Head Death of Dr. William R. Scott Indicates Suicide Although It May Have Been Accident Pendleton, Or., Oct. 13.—With a bullet hole through the head, the body of Dr. William R. Scott, for a number of years a practicing physician at Athena, was found at noon Friday in the bath-room at the Claude Reeder farm home four miles east of Heppner.

Tract of Land Sold Pendleton, Or., Oct. 13.—Thomas Thompson has purchased 440 acres of land near Athena from V. H. Rogers and it is said the consideration was near $50,000.

O-W-R. & N. Shows Increase Revenues Salem, Or., Oct. 12.—Operating revenues of the O-W-R. & N. company for the year ending December 31, 1916, were $18,850,253, which is an increase of $2,861,262 over the previous year.

Will Inspect Hospital Salem, Or., Oct. 12.—Secretary of State Olcott and State Treasurer Kay, two members of the state board of control, will leave tonight for Roseburg to inspect and accept from the contractor the new hospital building, erected at the Oregon Soldiers' home.

Fire Companies to Be Enlisted for Camps Adjutant General White of the local national army headquarters has received notice that organization of a company for guard and fire duty will begin immediately.

Fathers and Mothers Greeting Commencing Tuesday, Oct. 16, 1917, I will open to the public a free and open office for children, realizing that the majority of diseases begin in the early life of childhood.

British Red Cross—Meeting Saturday night, Woodmen hall, Eleventh and Alder, 8 o'clock. Good program. Mrs. St. Clair Stobart will give an interesting talk on Serbia.

Steamer Jessie Marking for Camas, Washington and way landings, daily, except Sunday; leaves Washington street dock at 2 p. m. (Adv.)

Dancing at Riverside Park every Sunday afternoon and evening. New pavilion, open place orchestra. Ladies in 10 p. m. Saturday. (Adv.)

Wounded Ambulance Drivers Reach U. S.

Two wounded American ambulance drivers arrived here today from a British hospital. They are Ernest Van R. Stires, 23, a Harvard student, and Lawrence Emes of Boston. Stires was injured by a bomb thrown from a German airplane while driving his ambulance from the front to a dressing station behind the firing line.

Physician of Athena Is Found Dead with Bullet Hole in Head Death of Dr. William R. Scott Indicates Suicide Although It May Have Been Accident Pendleton, Or., Oct. 13.—With a bullet hole through the head, the body of Dr. William R. Scott, for a number of years a practicing physician at Athena, was found at noon Friday in the bath-room at the Claude Reeder farm home four miles east of Heppner.

Tract of Land Sold Pendleton, Or., Oct. 13.—Thomas Thompson has purchased 440 acres of land near Athena from V. H. Rogers and it is said the consideration was near $50,000.

O-W-R. & N. Shows Increase Revenues Salem, Or., Oct. 12.—Operating revenues of the O-W-R. & N. company for the year ending December 31, 1916, were $18,850,253, which is an increase of $2,861,262 over the previous year.

Will Inspect Hospital Salem, Or., Oct. 12.—Secretary of State Olcott and State Treasurer Kay, two members of the state board of control, will leave tonight for Roseburg to inspect and accept from the contractor the new hospital building, erected at the Oregon Soldiers' home.

Fire Companies to Be Enlisted for Camps Adjutant General White of the local national army headquarters has received notice that organization of a company for guard and fire duty will begin immediately.

Fathers and Mothers Greeting Commencing Tuesday, Oct. 16, 1917, I will open to the public a free and open office for children, realizing that the majority of diseases begin in the early life of childhood.

British Red Cross—Meeting Saturday night, Woodmen hall, Eleventh and Alder, 8 o'clock. Good program. Mrs. St. Clair Stobart will give an interesting talk on Serbia.

Steamer Jessie Marking for Camas, Washington and way landings, daily, except Sunday; leaves Washington street dock at 2 p. m. (Adv.)

Dancing at Riverside Park every Sunday afternoon and evening. New pavilion, open place orchestra. Ladies in 10 p. m. Saturday. (Adv.)

Game Regulations Effective Oct. 15

The proposed amendments to the migratory bird regulations affecting Eastern Oregon and prohibiting shooting before sunrise have been adopted, according to a telegram received Friday by Carl D. Shoemaker, state game warden, from W. C. Henderson, acting chief of the biological survey at Washington.

Physician of Athena Is Found Dead with Bullet Hole in Head Death of Dr. William R. Scott Indicates Suicide Although It May Have Been Accident Pendleton, Or., Oct. 13.—With a bullet hole through the head, the body of Dr. William R. Scott, for a number of years a practicing physician at Athena, was found at noon Friday in the bath-room at the Claude Reeder farm home four miles east of Heppner.

Tract of Land Sold Pendleton, Or., Oct. 13.—Thomas Thompson has purchased 440 acres of land near Athena from V. H. Rogers and it is said the consideration was near $50,000.

O-W-R. & N. Shows Increase Revenues Salem, Or., Oct. 12.—Operating revenues of the O-W-R. & N. company for the year ending December 31, 1916, were $18,850,253, which is an increase of $2,861,262 over the previous year.

Will Inspect Hospital Salem, Or., Oct. 12.—Secretary of State Olcott and State Treasurer Kay, two members of the state board of control, will leave tonight for Roseburg to inspect and accept from the contractor the new hospital building, erected at the Oregon Soldiers' home.

Fire Companies to Be Enlisted for Camps Adjutant General White of the local national army headquarters has received notice that organization of a company for guard and fire duty will begin immediately.

Fathers and Mothers Greeting Commencing Tuesday, Oct. 16, 1917, I will open to the public a free and open office for children, realizing that the majority of diseases begin in the early life of childhood.

British Red Cross—Meeting Saturday night, Woodmen hall, Eleventh and Alder, 8 o'clock. Good program. Mrs. St. Clair Stobart will give an interesting talk on Serbia.

Steamer Jessie Marking for Camas, Washington and way landings, daily, except Sunday; leaves Washington street dock at 2 p. m. (Adv.)

Dancing at Riverside Park every Sunday afternoon and evening. New pavilion, open place orchestra. Ladies in 10 p. m. Saturday. (Adv.)

Classes Reduced By Enlistments

When the Y. M. C. A. school of accountancy opened this week it was pointed out that four percent of those who completed the freshman requirements last year. All the rest had been enlisted in the military service of the United States.

Engineering Topics Will Be Discussed

Beginning Saturday evening a series of engineering lectures arranged by the front of the government has been given in the hall at Morrison and Third streets.

Musical Concert to Open Fall Program

The trio—Susie Fennel Pipes, violinist; Ferdinand Konrad, cellist; and J. Hutchinson, pianist—will give their opening concert of the fall series this evening at the Little theatre.

Painless Parker—Outlaw His Confessions

CHAPTER LXVI. lot about the manner in which unethical dentistry is conducted—NOT! Here are a flock of ethical birds chirping about the unethical practices they haven't been themselves. What evidence have they had in conducting their dental work on modern business lines?

Men Plead Guilty Sentence Suspended

Four of the water barrels stolen from the Southern Pacific troop trains in the local yards here Friday day afternoon in a raid on a house at 275 North Twelfth street, where they were being used as receptacles for wine, are equipped in the house indicated that it was being used as an improvised distillery.

Proposal Made for County Taking Over Fair from Gresham

Association Offers Site to Commissioners; Muck Is Favorable to Project. A proposal for Multnomah county to take over the Gresham fair is before the county commissioners. A delegation composed of President H. A. Lewis, E. L. Thorpe, A. T. Miller and L. G. Nichols, director of the County Fair association, appeared before the county board and asked that Multnomah county take over the affairs and property of the association.

Wounded Ambulance Drivers Reach U. S.

Two wounded American ambulance drivers arrived here today from a British hospital. They are Ernest Van R. Stires, 23, a Harvard student, and Lawrence Emes of Boston. Stires was injured by a bomb thrown from a German airplane while driving his ambulance from the front to a dressing station behind the firing line.

Game Regulations Effective Oct. 15

The proposed amendments to the migratory bird regulations affecting Eastern Oregon and prohibiting shooting before sunrise have been adopted, according to a telegram received Friday by Carl D. Shoemaker, state game warden, from W. C. Henderson, acting chief of the biological survey at Washington.

Reliable Dentistry

We guarantee our work for 10 years. We will examine your teeth and tell you what they require and what it will cost. Gold Crowns.....$8.00 to $15.00. Porcelain Crowns.....$10.00 to $15.00. Full Set of Teeth.....$20.00. Silver Fillings.....$1.00. I give my personal attention to all my work.

Corvallis Milkmen Have Raised Prices

Corvallis, Or., Oct. 13.—The milk dealers here have agreed to raise prices and four of the dealers published their increased prices this week. The raise is 11 cents a quart 6 cents a pint and 40 cents a gallon. This scale of prices was agreed upon after the announcement by the Corvallis dairy that it had discontinued its service to the city over to the company at Scio. This dairy supplied about one-third of the people of Corvallis, and the milk will now go to the condenser.

Man Shot in Arm

Charles King, who lives at the U. S. hotel, was shot in the arm Friday night with a .32 calibre rifle at a shooting gallery at 27 1/2 B. side street. The wound was dressed by Dr. S. M. Brooks, who reported the matter to the police.

Painless Parker—Outlaw His Confessions

CHAPTER LXVI. lot about the manner in which unethical dentistry is conducted—NOT! Here are a flock of ethical birds chirping about the unethical practices they haven't been themselves. What evidence have they had in conducting their dental work on modern business lines?

First Christian Church

Corner Park and Columbia. HAROLD W. BLUFF, Minister. Preaching Sunday, 11 A. M., 7:30 P. M. Morning Theme, "A Man and His Money". Evening Theme, "The Good of Godliness". "The Church of the 80th Century". ALL PEWS FREE EVERYBODY WELCOME.

"EVERYTHING FOR THE SHIPBUILDER"

Pipe, Fittings, Valves, Steam and Engineers' Supplies. Best Quality, Prompt Service. Conveniently Located M. L. KLINE 30 Years' Wholesale Plumber, Heating and Steam Supplies in Portland 84-86-87-89 Front St.

Reliable Dentistry

We guarantee our work for 10 years. We will examine your teeth and tell you what they require and what it will cost. Gold Crowns.....$8.00 to $15.00. Porcelain Crowns.....$10.00 to $15.00. Full Set of Teeth.....$20.00. Silver Fillings.....$1.00. I give my personal attention to all my work.