SPEAKERS WILL CARRY BOND SALE CAMPAIGN INTO ALL DISTRICTS

Eight Hundred Meetings Are Scheduled for the Present Week in Oregon Towns.

HENRY REED IN CHARGE

Each District Will Have Talker From Portland and One From Home; Speakers Are Listed.

In all parts of Oregon today the great speech-making campaign for the Liberty loan begins. It will reach its climax towards the end of the week, although the speakers will be out until the end of the campaign.

Henry E. Reed, in charge of the speaking arrangements, worked almost day and night for a week to complete the program, and was able to announce a complete list of the speakers for the various counties Sunday afternoon. In each district there will be one speaker from Portland, one from the Speakers—W. H. Hornibrook, former minister to Siam, of Albany; B. F. Irvine, and in some instances a third speaker has been provided for.

Soo Meetings Set for Week

The program through all the counties will be going at the same time. The most remote corners of the state are to be reached in this activity of the drive,

Many of the speakers are traveling from point to point in automobiles, and some have to go to their destinations by stage. There are over 800 meetings for this week. In Benton and Lake counties, to show the intensity
