Food Warehouses Are to Be Inspected

Salem, Or., Oct. 15 .- Harvey Wells, state fire marshal, announced today that in the near future W. J. Dutton of San Francisco, chairman of the department of national service, which is working with the department of United States food administration, will come to Oregon to inaugurate a com-plete survey of all warehouses and other places where food supplies are kept. This will be for the purpose of eliminating all possible fire hazards. Mr. Wells recently conferred with Dutton in California and invited him to come to Oregon when he learned of the work that had been done in California and other states. Dutton will first meet with the state council of defense and others interested in protectng food against fire.

Pendleton Teachers Are Given a Raise

Pendleton, Or., Oct. 15.—In recogni-ion of the high cost of living, the Pendleton school board has adopted a new schedule of salaries, which gives all teachers a raise of $10 a month more. The minimum salary for grade teachers is raised from $75 to $85, and of grade principals from $100 to $110. Principal Drill of the high school is raised from $1350 to $1500, and three men assistants are raised to $1200. All other high school teachers are raised $10 a month, making the minimum $105. Men were giving higher increase than women because war has caused shortage of men in the teaching profession.

CENTRAL OREGON IS KICKING IN LOYALLY FOR LIBERTY'S SAKE

'Million Dollar Special," Out to Spread Gospel of Bonds, Gets Big Results.

With the Million Dollar Special, Redmond, Or., Oct. 15 .- They call it the "million dollar special" now. John H. Stevenson and John L. Etheridge, auto campaigners to Central Oregon, have actually received applications for over $14,000 in Liberty bonds. They began to hit their gaits in Dufur Saturday when farmers showered upon them applications for $6250, with the necessary deposits. At Mau pin Sunday morning they added $3000 to the total. A farmer at a cross roads en route, who waited hours for them to appear, made it another $1000. Million Is Expected

"We'll make it $1,000,000 before we get back to Portland," said the campaigners for Liberty bonds as they pulled into Redmond for their meet-

At Maupin, a town of 150 popula-tion, the $3000 subscribed to the campaigners' made a total of $10,000 in Liberty bonds sold in that city, although Portland had not even had any report about the campaign there. It was at The Dalles that both speakers created a sensation. The court house was packed for them and they poured hot shot into the audience. Germans Give Punds

Max Vogt presided at the meeting, He said he was of German birth, but all American now, and without even the suggestion of a hyphen. "Wasco county will buy $250,000 of Liberty bonds," said the banker, "and I will lead the way."

Redmond was reached just in time for the meeting at night, and immediately thereafter the travelers set out for Bend in order to have a full day's campaign Monday. Klamath Falls will see them Tuesday, where they will speak in the Houston opera house, Merrill will hear them Wednesday and Lakeview Thursday. Fridley and Silverlake will hem Friday, and Burns Saturday, while next Sunday will see them a Drewsey, Crane and Lawen.

696,809 New York Voters Registered

New York, Oct. 15.—(I. N. S.)—The ing municipal election as shown by the completion of the count Sunday of that day, I request that patriotic meetings be held in every city, town morning is 696,809. The vote for New York city candidates will proband hamlet throughout the land, unably be much larger than the registration figures would indicate, for there are about 100,000 young New Yorkers, nearly all of voting age, serving the United States in training camps or in France.
