

TRANSPORT SINKING GIVES LIBERTY LOAN A RENEWED IMPETUS

Shocked by the submarining of the transport Antilles and the death of 70 of Uncle Sam's men, the nation rose today to unprecedented support of the second Liberty loan.

$45,000,000 ADDED IN N. Y.

San Francisco Has Best Half Day Since Campaign Opened—St. Louis Far Above Daily Average.

New York. Oct. 20.—(U. P.)—America is awake. The submarining of the transport Antilles and the death of 70 of Uncle Sam's men, the nation rose today to unprecedented support of the second Liberty loan.

Returns gathered by the United Press tonight from all parts of the country showed that Germany has given the Liberty loan its biggest boost. Record breaking subscriptions were reported from many cities.

Indications are that Germany has delivered the needed punch to make millions of Americans realize they are actually in war.

Big Half Day Reported. New York reported $45,000,000 subscriptions today—the biggest half day since the loan was launched.

San Francisco. Today's subscriptions, $3,000,000; bringing the total to $17,000,000. The quota is $55,000,000. Biggest half day since campaign opened. Bank of California directors held quick meeting after Antilles sunk, decided to make $1,000,000 subscription at once.

Los Angeles—Busiest day of the campaign. Officials believe undoubtedly due sinking.

Tacoma, Wash.—Sales today $29,500, considerable increase since Antilles sunk.

Chicago—Advance reports indicate Monday's returns will be very heavy, believed due to submarine attack.

Marked Effect Is Seen. St. Louis—Subscriptions reached nearly $7,000,000 in short day after sinking announced. Previous unofficial daily averages have been about $2,000,000.

Kansas City—No figures announced. Loan officials declared transport destruction increased subscriptions here so it is assured Kansas City will reach its quota.

Lincoln—Officials said sinking greatly increased sales. Columbus, Ohio—Today's subscriptions $235,800, above the average.

Indianapolis—Marion county reported with subscription today over $2,000,000. Hinesday day $900,000.

Boston—$5,000,000 bonds purchased in half day. Officials believe sinking had marked effect. Big returns reported throughout state.

BOND SALES NOW EXCEED 8 MILLIONS

When Saturday, with its banking and business half holiday all over the state, produced $1,708,950.

Day's Sales $1,000,000

Saturday's bond sales in Portland, as far as reported by the banks, were $988,300. The reports from outside for the day amounted to $729,650. But these Saturday reports from Portland are not complete and C. A. Miller said Saturday night that the day's sales in Portland alone were probably over $1,000,000.

For instance, the Inman-Poulsen Lumber company subscribed $100,000 through the Bank of California. This came too late for the official bank report. The United States Steel Products company, from its gross subscription in the east, apportioned $50,000 to Oregon through the Ladd & Tilton bank. This is not in the official report.

cial total. Incidentally this is one of the few outside corporations that have apportioned the state a rightful share of the gross subscription total.

Lakeview Jumps $100,000. Outside, William Hanley of Burns doubled his $5000 subscription, according to a late Saturday announcement.

Goal Still More Distant. The Oregon quota has been raised to a minimum of $18,000,000 because the recent completion of the bank deposits of Oregon has been recorded.

Big Sales Promised Monday. This week will see the climax as well as the finish of the big drive.

Booths in the Hotels. Mr. Abel said he was making preparations to establish booths in the post-office, the library, the courthouse and the city hall for the last week of the drive.

Speakers Redouble Efforts. Again, at the Eleventh street playhouse Monday night, when the conference for men of draft age is held, the speakers will tell of the Liberty loan and urge subscription.

Eastern Oregon Liberal. Ione, the little city in Morrow county that was the first to make its apportionment and pass it, was well up to the front among the honor roll cities Saturday. It had subscribed $34,500, of which one subscription was for $30,000.

Phil Metchner, Jr. and C. E. Cochran, speakers at Enterprise, reported that $2,000 had been subscribed there, and that house to house canvasses were being made in Union and Wallawa counties.

The complete program for the noon day meetings in connection with the flag raising at the postoffice has been completed.

These are only a few of the scores of activities that are scheduled to take place. Hundreds of speeches are to be made throughout the state, according to the schedule completed by Henry B. Clegg, who has charge of this part of the campaign.

reported by banks, both Portland and outside, late Saturday night:

Table of bank subscriptions: Geo. W. Bates & Co. $6,100; Bank of California 30,975; Citizens bank 4,230; First National bank 3,430; etc.

EMPLOYEES OF S. P. & S. SUBSCRIBE LIBERALLY TO BIG LIBERTY LOAN

Over 10 Per Cent Have Made Purchases and Applications Pour In.

The honor roll of S. P. & S. employees who are subscribing for Liberty bonds is growing in bounds. Over 10 per cent of the 3000 employees of the company had subscribed, and new subscriptions by the score are being made daily.

President L. C. Gilman addressed employees at the Vancouver shops at noon Saturday, and made it a feature of his talk that the bonds were the very best investment obtainable.

After his talk, President Gilman answered many questions, the principal of which were in regard to the nature of the investment. He explained that the bonds were almost as negotiable as currency.

The S. P. & S. employees expect to subscribe between $40,000 and $50,000 to this loan. Over 1000 of them subscribed $75,000, but all of these bonds were taken on the installment plan offered by the company.
