

OAKLAND RALLIES IN 8TH AND GRABS FIFTH GAME FROM BEAVERS

Farmer Knocks Ball Into the Bleachers and Puts Portland Club in Lead.

JAMES BLOWS UP TO SKY

Southpaw Gets Cracked for Two Runs in Third and Gardner Has to Come to His Relief.

San Francisco, Oct. 20.—(I. N. S.)—The fighting Oaks fought an uphill battle this afternoon and with the score standing 5 to 2 against them, staged a rally in the eighth which netted them four runs. It was their fifth straight victory of the week over the Beavers, who are now just a game and a half ahead of them.

James, who had held the Oaks down except in the third, was bombarded all over the lot and was relieved by Gardner in the eighth, but not until after the winning run had come in. With two on and one out, Gardner rattled the side in the first inning, knocked one of Krause's offerings in the bleachers for a home run.

URBAN FABER OF CHISOX LATEST TO JOIN THE INNER CIRCLE OF WORLD'S SERIES PITCHERS

Quartet of pitchers who have written their name large in the pitchers' hall of fame. They are among the few who have won three games in one world's series. From left to right they are: Faber, Chicago Americans, against New York, 1917; Christy Mathewson, New York Nationals, three against Philadelphia Americans in 1905; Jack Coombs, Philadelphia Americans, against Chicago Nationals in 1910, and Joe Wood, Boston Americans, against New York Nationals in 1912. Perhaps the most sensational trio of wins was that of Babe Adams of Pittsburg against the Detroit Americans, for Adams lacked the seasoning of the usual world series selectivity. The best three game pitching was done by Matty against the 1905 Athletics, when he shut them out in three games, 3 to 0, 9 to 0 and 2 to 0.

VERNON TIGERS GET FOUR SWATS OFF O. GRANDALL

Los Angeles Wins From Tail-Enders by Score of Two to Nothing.

Los Angeles, Oct. 20.—(I. N. S.)—The Angels turned on the Tigers today and beat them handily in a fast game 2 to 0. The series now stands three to two in favor of the Tigers and to win the series the Angels must take both games tomorrow. Grandall was put into the game by Manager "Red" Killifer to halt the Bengals' winning spurt and the veteran finished them off in fine style, allowing only four scratch hits. Marion pitched good ball for the Tigers up to the seventh, allowing but four scattered bingles through six innings. He retired in the eighth and Slagel finished. The score:

PLAYERS DEVELOPED BY RIVAL MANAGERS AID GIANTS AND SOX

Six Members of New York Club Learned Game Under Other Leaders.

New York, Oct. 20.—(I. N. S.)—Players developed by rival managers were largely responsible for the success of the Giants and White Sox.

Without these players the two world's series rivals would have been among the also rans, and they might have been wallowing in last place. With them in the lineup the two champions have the strongest combinations in the majors today.

Look at the lineup of the Giants for a vivid example. No less than ten men on McGraw's roster were developed elsewhere than New York. Several others were cut loose by McGraw and sent over to the Polo Grounders in a moment's later, scored Corhan with a safe knock.

Koerner's double, Corhan's single and Baker's sacrifice scored one in the seventh frame. Baker, by the way, was a pretty handy bird on the squeeze game today, for, all told, he went over three runs in this manner. In the ninth Downs singled and Koerner walked. Corhan sacrificed them along a base.

Baker, "double squeezed" this time for both Downs and Koerner came in. The latter scored while the catcher was telling Koerner to field the ball to first instead of to the plate. Score: SAN FRANCISCO 1, ATLANTA 0.

Atlanta, Oct. 20.—(I. N. S.)—The Seals hopped rough shod over Jean Dubuc's frame this afternoon and piled up a seven run lead in the first three innings, which was never overhauled by the Bees. It won for Jerry Doans' crew, 10 to 7.

Koerner beat out an infield hit in the second and then the Bees put on a double for Dubuc but he walked Johnson and Fitzgerald cracked one to left, scoring Koerner. Pick hit for two bases and sent over Johnson and Fitzgerald.

In the third Maisel singled and Orr hooted Downs' grounder. Koerner hit to left for a pair of bases and scored Maisel. Corhan also laced out a double and sent over the other two men Johnson, a moment later, scored Corhan with a safe knock.

WALK OVER JEAN DUBUC AND TAKE ANOTHER JUMP

San Francisco Makes Seven Runs in First Three Innings of Game.

Salt Lake, Oct. 20.—(I. N. S.)—The Seals hopped rough shod over Jean Dubuc's frame this afternoon and piled up a seven run lead in the first three innings, which was never overhauled by the Bees. It won for Jerry Doans' crew, 10 to 7.

LARSON IS YOUNGEST TRAPSHOOTER TO WIN BLUE RIBBON CLASSIC

Waupaca, Wis., Shooter Is but 24 Years Old; Been in Game Short Time.

By Peter P. Carney

When the national amateur championship event was called in the Grand American Trapshooting tournament held recently at the South Shore Country club in Chicago, Ill., the word came down the line in the usual mysterious manner to "keep your eyes on Larson of Wisconsin."

Larson had broken 99 days to win the championship of his home state, and in those parts he has the reputation of being "somewhat of a crack" to ascertain what Mr. Larson was doing in the Chicago Overture and couldn't locate him. He had gotten off as the wrong station on his way to the shooting grounds and his squad shot without him. That left him out of that event.

There was only one event left in which Larson might distinguish himself. That was the Grand American handicap. It was this event in which Larson picked to do his best shooting. He went out on the first day with 79 targets at 98. Arle was shooting from 22 yards—the back mark.

Arle had been sweeping everything before him all week, and had done his best shooting on the 22 yard mark, naturally there were many who liked his chances for victory. But there was that same mysterious voice around to tell you: "Keep your eyes on Larson." Everyone did. And when he missed his first target in the shoot off, quite a number gave him a second look for they figured Arle wouldn't miss any; that Larson was beaten. After that miss Larson began to shoot, and he pounced on every one of the other 18 targets as they left the trap house. Arle missed one and another shoot off was necessary.

Owens Grocery Store

It isn't every shooter after missing his first target and shooting against one of the best trapshooters in the world would have had the courage to continue as Larson did. Larson is of the breed from which real champions are made. He missed his first target in the second string, giving Arle the advantage. Arle missed his thirteenth target, and Larson followed suit, Arle missed three more, but Larson was through missing. That is the reason that Waupaca, Wis., is talked about so much these days.

Larson is the owner of the general grocery and market in Waupaca. He opened he could make use of the $143.40 he won in putting a little paint on the old homestead, buying a few pairs of shoes and lifting the mortgage on the farm. Larson is 24 years old, the youngest trapshot to win the Grand American handicap. He is a sturdy youth, strong as the day was when the shootoff took place. Larson fired the first period and his down was the first period and his defensive may in the latter part of the game staved off all chances of a Whitman victory.

HUGO BEZDEK'S TEAM GOES DOWN TO DEFEAT BEFORE W. S. C. BOYS

Bangs Leads Lonestar Dietz's Players to 26 to 3 Victory Over Oregon.

TOUCHDOWN ON LONG RUN

Lemon-Yellow Unable to Gain Yardage Against Strong Defense of Pullman Team; Steers' Toss Nets Points.

Washington State College, Pullman, Wash., Oct. 20.—Showing the team work which characterized their playing in 1916, the eleven college football team, defeated the inexperienced State university of Oregon eleven here today by the score of 26 to 3.

At no time was the Washington State college in danger, most of the play being in the lemon and yellow territory. At all times the Oregon line was helpless before the onslaughts of Bangs, Douane, Glover and Hanley, who piled up a total of 499 yards from scrimmage to Oregon's loss of five yards.

The most exciting part of the play was a 72 yard return of a punt by Bangs for a touchdown in the third quarter. Bangs kept close to an impenetrable interference the entire distance, every man of Washington State college getting his man in the mad race for the goal line.

Steers Draws Attention

Steers, Oregon's wonderful punter, played the quarter of the Washington State college team in striking distance several times, only ragged playing on their part keeping the score down. He broke through the line once during the second quarter and the whole game for downs.

On the second play of the second quarter Bangs caught Steers' punt on the 28-yard line and carried it over for a touchdown in the most sensational run of the game. Bangs kicked goal, making the score 13 to 0.

W. S. C. used but four plays in all of their advancement of the ball down the field in this period, most of them being over the right side of the line. The last touchdown of the game came within two minutes of the end, when Bangs again kicked the ball over the right side of the line for a touchdown. By this effort was in vain, as the ball went over the line for a touchdown with two yards to spare.
