At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Murphy in Laurelhurst, the newly organized Altar society of the Laurelhurst Catholic church, the All Saints church, now under construction, entertained the Catholic people of the city with a silver tea to raise funds for their work. Card tables were arranged for those who wished to play and many guests came in later for tea and for the musical program given by Mrs. E. Frankie Walker, Mrs. Raymond Sullivan and Mrs. Petronella Connally-Peets. The guests were received by the matrons of the parish and Rev. Father William Cronin of the Cathedral parish, who is to be the pastor, and his mother, Mrs. P. J. Cronin.

The elaborate plans for the allied bazaar in December are being whipped into shape and prove more promising for this auspicious occasion every day. Mrs. J. J. Pantoni's committee of girls who will assist her in serving at one of the booths will meet at the bazaar rooms, in the Corbett building, Wednesday afternoon, October 24, at 4 o'clock to make plans for the fancy costumes which they will wear and arrange the serving of refreshments. Mrs. Justin Jensen of San Francisco is a charming matron, who is passing the winter in Portland with Mrs. Paul Whiteside. A number of social affairs have been arranged for the visitor, whose picture was reproduced in the society section today. Mrs. Johnson is possessed of a beautiful voice, and has studied extensively in the east. She is working this winter with Mrs. Maud Bohman while in Portland.

SOCIETY PERSONALS

Miss Hazel Isakson has returned to Portland after being absent for more than a year. She is a member of the Good Samaritan hospital in 1916. Miss Isakson left for the east, completing a post-graduate course in Chicago. She also spent several months visiting relatives and friends in the middle west, returning home by way of California. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Isakson, who reside at 210 North Twenty-second street, this city. Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schmidt (Lizzie Krug), accompanied by Mrs. Schmidt's cousin, Benhard Krug of West Bent, Iowa, arrived last Thursday for an extended visit with Mrs. Schmidt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John...

WEDDINGS

A quiet wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hennhofer, October 3, at 8 o'clock, when their oldest daughter, Anna, became the bride of Delmar Eddy, the Rev. T. J. Cooking officiating. Only relatives and friends were present. Susan Welsenborn, the bride's sister, was bridesmaid and S. L. Eddy, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. The bride and groom were lovely in their beautiful dresses. The bride's dress was of white silk net and silver silk. The bride carried a large bouquet of orange blossoms. She carried a large bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaid wore a yellow silk net and tulle, and carried a bouquet of white and blue flowers. The wedding march was played, Dr. Sam Grover sang, "She Is My Sweetheart Forever," also "At Day's Dawning." After the ceremony, a supper was served. The home was beautifully decorated in autumn leaves, ferns and yellow chrysanthemums. Delmar Eddy is a graduate of Oregon agricultural college, class of 1914. He is a member of the Alpha Kappa Psi. He is connected with the Oregon Fruit company. The young couple took a short wedding trip and are now at home in the Wellesley Court. Lieutenant E. C. Willey and Miss Ruth Lamme, both formerly of Coquille, Or., were married at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Fields, 35 North Eighteenth street, October 12, the Rev. H. H. Hold, pastor of the First Christian church, officiating. The couple were attended by the sister and brother of the bridegroom, Miss Edith Willey and Charles Willey of Coquille. It was a simple wedding, being solemnized at 7:30 o'clock, before an assemblage of a few old time friends. The couple were college chums at the O. A. C. The wedding was the culmination of a childhood romance. Mr. and Mrs. Fields, at whose home the ceremony was read, were present at the marriage of the parents of the bridegroom in Peoria, Ill., 27 years ago. The couple went to the Hazelwood for their wedding supper when they were laid for the relatives and friends, and a large party. Lieutenant Willey is acting captain of the One Hundred and Sixty-sixth Depot brigade at Camp Lewis, American Lake, and Mrs. Willey will make her home at Tacoma for the present. The wedding of Miss Helen L. Wiegand to Roger Jayne, which took place Wednesday at the home of the bride's parents, was a great surprise to the friends of the couple. Dr. E. H. Pence, pastor of Westminster Presbyterian church, officiated. Only relatives of the bride and bridegroom were present. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Wiegand, 349 Ross street. She is a graduate of the University of Oregon and a member of the Delta Gamma sorority. The bridegroom is also from the University of Oregon and a member of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity. The young couple will be at home after November 1 in Raymond, Wash., where Mr. Jayne is in business. Miss Esther Aileen Erickson and Dr. Arthur G. Rossman were married at the East Side Baptist church Monday, October 15, at 8 p. m. Dr. Hinson, pastor of the church, was the officiating minister and the bride was attended by her sister, Miss Helen...

EVENTS OF WEEK

A most delightful social event of last week was the crystal wedding or celebration of the fifteenth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Everts at their home, 1580 McKenna avenue, Sunday afternoon, October 14. Miss Della Gorin and E. E. Everts of Ashland, Wis., were married at the home of the bride in Memphis, Mo., October 14, 1902. Three years later they moved from Ashland to Portland. More than one hundred guests assembled for their crystal wedding, and all expressed their appreciation of the friendship of Mr. and Mrs. Everts. Mr. Everts has long been engaged in the lumber and timber business, having been identified with the Acme Lumber company, and the Brewer-Knapp company, since coming to Portland. Mr. Everts was graduated from the Chicago training school and was engaged in Deaconess work in Wisconsin before her marriage. Among the guests were four deaconesses: Misses Nellie Curtiss (superintendent Portland Methodist Deaconess home), Della Milligan, Margaret Davies and Sadie Smith; also Mrs. A. H. Sproul, formerly a deaconess. The two latter were schoolmates of Mrs. Everts in the Chicago training school; also one Congregationalist and six...

MRS. JOE M. JORDAN JR. (EDITH PETTIGREW)

Erickson, maid of honor, and Miss Myrtle MacLean and Miss Margaret Dixon, bridesmaids, Dr. M. Luther, Dr. J. D. Neidigh, Dr. C. Moore, M. H. Word and Mr. Maris ushered the guests. Pink and white chrysanthemums with palms, ferns and autumn leaves made a most effective setting for the bridal party. The bride was radiant in a gown of white satin with opalescent trimming and a tulle veil wreathed with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and jessamine. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Erickson of 21 North Nineteenth street.

Dr. Rossman was graduated from the University of Minnesota and the North Pacific Dental college, and is a member of Alpha Tau Omega and Psi Omega fraternities. A wedding which came as a surprise to the friends of the couple was that of Miss Ellen Dixon Wood and Lieutenant Louis B. Goman in San Francisco, October 18. Miss Goman, who is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wood of this city, graduated from the Washington State Normal at Bellingham last May. Lieutenant Goman is the son of Dr. Ka'ierine Goman of Bellingham, Wash., and was a resident of that city until his enlistment in his country's service last spring. He is attached to Motor Truck Company 322, which is now en route to New York, bound for immediate service in France. As there are a large number of Portland boys in this company, their many friends here will follow their career and that of Lieutenant Goman with much interest. Mrs. Goman will remain in Portland for the present.

A quiet wedding was solemnized Thursday morning, October 18, at St. Mary's cathedral, by Rev. Edwin V. O'Hara, when Miss Rose Adele Keegan was united in marriage to William Francis Malloy. The bride was attired in a tailored suit of cream serge, with a white velvet hat to match, and wore a corsage bouquet of baby roses. Miss Margaret Malloy, sister of the bridegroom, attended the bride, and wore a blue tailored suit with hat to match and had a corsage bouquet of violets. Daniel Sullivan attended the bridegroom. Miss Keegan is the youngest daughter of Mrs. Alexander Keegan, and Mr. Malloy is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Malloy of this city. After a short honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Malloy will be at home to their friends after October 30 at 723 1/2 Kearney street.
