Lumber Costly in France.—Raphael Zon, chief of forest investigation, who is visiting the officers of the United States forest service in this city, received a letter Friday from T. S. Woolley Jr., major in the Tenth engineer (forest) regiment, now "swoning" where in France, which tells something of the conditions there.

Want Unions Recognized San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 20.—(U. P.)—Only recognition by the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company of the unions formed by girl telephone operators will avert a strike of electrical workers and other employees of the company, numbering about 6000 on the Pacific coast, according to a statement tonight by J. S. Wilson, member of the district council of the Electrical Workers.

Tacoma Girls Keep Jobs Tacoma, Wash., Oct. 20.—(U. P.)—The telephone operators of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company who left their posts or failed to report for duty this morning, when a strike was ordered, but later called off, will not lose their positions, telephone officials said today.

Prefers Newspaper Work to Class Room Ray Frohman, son of Mrs. I. Frohman, Stelwyn apartments, might be developing the students of the fashionable California boys' school at Montecito into disciples of Walter Pater or drilling University of Texas freshmen in the rudiments of English, but, instead, he chose a wider field of endeavor and by his work as a feature writer on the San Francisco Examiner is justifying his preference for newspaper work over an academic career.

Oregon City Has Hopes Oregon City, Oct. 20.—Oregon City seems to stand a better chance of maintaining its telephone service in the event of a strike of the union girls of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company of the Pacific coast states for the reason that the girls of the local office do not belong to a union organization. The linemen and electrical workers do, however, and they will walk out if a strike is called.
