Dr. Stansfield of the First Methodist church will show the great worth the regard and appreciation of the of prayer at this time to the soldiers parish toward Mr. Jenkins. and sailers who can feel the highest thought of their people behind them and to the people who pray. The subject of Dr. Stanfield's sermon will be, "A Nation at Prayer-the Why, What and Worth of Prayer."

Special services have been arranged by the Christian Science churches, At all places of worship special prayers will be offered. The Catholic and Episcopal churches will continue to give prayer for the success of the allies forces.

Pastor to Defend. "Affairs of God"

At the East Side Baptist church Sunday morning, Dr. Hinson will reach on "The Failure of God." There is loud and persistent talk today of the failure of the church, the failure Christianity and in some quarters the failure of God himself.

The sermon will be an attempt to vindicate the ways of God to men and to show that the American poet was right who declared that within the shadow of perplexed belief and seem-

SERVICES ON AT 8 P. M.

Meetings in Celebration of Event Wil Be Held in All Parts of the Civilized World.

The quadri-centennial anniversary of the Protestant reformation will be celebrated by thousands of members of the Lutheran congregations and churches of Portland and vicinity to be held in the new Portland Auditorium, Sunday evening at 8 o'clock.

The jubilee festival service will be an occasion of great celebration in commemoration of 400 years of Protestantism and the Free Evangelical church, dating back to October 31, 1517. The quadri-centennial is being ob served by millions of Protestants gratitude for the blessings of religious and civic liberty and freedom. Millions of Protestant peoples of all nations living in America and in all Protestant countries of Europe will observe this anniversary of the reformation with great gatherings and services everywhere.

The program of festivities in this city will be given under the auspices of the Lutheran Ministerial association and Federation of Luther Leagues of Portland. The program will begin at 8 p. m.

The Rev. G. A. Brandelle, D. D., of

Denver, Colo., one of the noted ministers of the Lutheran church, will be the speaker of the occasion. A large chorus of several voices from the churches of Portland and vicinity will render the beautiful cantata entitled "The Reformation," specially written and composed by the Rev. Wilhelm Pettersen and E. Melius Christiansen of Portland.

Professor Charles Swenson will direct the chorus, assisted at the organ by Miss Hedwig Haehlen. The services at the Auditorium will be open to all. The following program will be rendered:

Dr. Boyd's Themes

At the First Presbyterian church Rev. John H. Boyd, D. D., will be in his pulpit Sunday both morning and evening. Both of the subjects will be concerned with the questions of the present hour in local and national interest. The morning subject will be, "The Duties and Opportunities of Our Church Under the Stress of the Present Hour," In this discourse Dr. Boyd will deal with the general question of putting the church on a war basis. Dr. Boyd is one of those who believe that we have not yet begun to realize the enormity of the struggle which we are engaged in, and how it will be necessary to mobilize all the strength which we have.
