

WASHINGTON STATE IS VICTORIOUS OVER THE OREGON AGGIE ELEVEN

Stites Blocks Lodell's Punt in Third Period and Hamilton Carries Ball Over for Touchdown — Contest Is Hard Fought.

By R. A. Cronin
Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, Or., Nov. 10.—When Left Guard Stites of the Washington State college football team blocked Carl Lodell's punt on the Oregon Aggie's 13 yard line in the third quarter, Hamilton caught the ball as it bounded toward the Orange and Black goal and rushed across the line with it safely tucked against his stomach for the only touchdown of the game.

It was one of the hardest battles seen on Corvallis field and the condition of the Pullman men showed to an advantage, for they made but one substitution throughout the game and that when the Aggies began pounding McCroskey and his sore kidneys. Coach Pipal made numerous substitutions toward the end of the game in an effort to provide sturdier defense against the plunging backs on the Dietz team and to provide the desired punch in the Aggie's offense. However, the Dietz team continued hammering away back of its formations and the local players were unable to stop the drive. When the game ended the ball was just about the center of the field and in possession of the Aggie.

It was one of the hardest games played here in a number of years and the terrific game put up by the Aggies surprised the 3000 fans. It was conceded that a heavy field would favor the local, and it probably did. However, the O. A. C. field has a bare center surrounded by turf and it was noticeable that when the Staters went driving toward the goal in the third quarter, they veered over toward the west side of the enclosure, where the grass was luxuriant and the footing suitable for the local players' results of their strong hooved backs.

Backs Found Line
Dietz had his backs pound the line constantly and they resorted to a few short end runs. They found places in the O. A. C. line which were vulnerable and they began driving wedges into it. They hammered Johnston so severely that Perry was called in to relieve him. The long march of the Staters, however, was brought to a halt when the Aggies put up a valiant defense on their own 21 yard line. The constant butting bruised Doane's shoulders so much that he had to stop the game until a pair of shoulder pads could be found and adjusted to him.

Brought to a stop on the fourth down, with four yards to go, Dick Hanley, the Pullman quarter, concluded to try a drop kick. Schenley was called out to boot it over. Hubbard coaxed the starters' outflankers and blocked the ball, which went bounding toward the side line. Hubbard ran the oval down and captured it on his own 18 yard line. The Aggie made such a showing in the first half that Bill Dietz's red necktie gyrated around his throat like an electric fan. The first period was played almost entirely in Washington territory. Pipal uncovered a young end named Webster, who ripped up the oft-tackled backs and short runs in his territory. And his showing was the more remarkable because he was playing opposite Captain Zimmerman, the State college veteran.

Punting Weak
The Aggie ends were down nicely on punts and in this way Lodell gained more ground than McCroskey or Hanley. The punting was woefully weak for a big game. Lodell got away with only one good spiral and McCroskey with none that was sizeable. Lodell tried a drop kick in the second quarter from inside the

Fresno After Beaver Place In P. C. League

San Francisco, Nov. 10.—(I. N. S.)—Fresno business men have raised the fund spoken of as necessary to get the Portland franchise and a delegation will come to San Francisco within the next day or two to talk business with Walter McCredie. It is said that a definite appointment has been made with McCredie, who is in San Francisco waiting for a purchaser. The Fresno men are coming to hear McCredie's conditions and to submit the conditions under which the Rains City will buy. Fresno is anxious to beat out Sacramento in case the Portland franchise comes to a California city. Citizens, after opening negotiations when the Coast League directors were meeting here, have failed to show their hand.

30 yard line, but it went to one side. Late in this quarter the Staters awakened and showed that they had the ground gaining punch.

Scouts were as thick as German spies. Hugo Bezdek rolled in from Eugene to see what the Aggies had up their sleeves, while "Jump" Hunt came down from Seattle to get a line on the "cow college" from across the mountains.

The work of the officials was good and aside from the "safety" alias "the uncompleted forward pass" in the fourth quarter, everything went off nicely. Coach Pipal said, "You can't win a game on blocked kicks, and the fans filed out of the field."

Rowland Won't Try to Sing or Dance on Stage

Dubuque, Iowa, Nov. 10.—(U. P.)—Horror! Pants Rowland, giant-killer and manager of the world's champion White Sox, is barred from doing a dance and song kit in vaudeville.

The "bush league" manager, it was learned today, must confine himself to talking baseball. He can't even let forth one tiny melodious note, and if he starts shuffling his legs the move is likely to cost him a hundred dollar fine.

Rowland signed up to appear in vaudeville only after he obtained the consent of Charles Comiskey, White Sox owner. The "Old Roman" gave it, but made Rowland promise he wouldn't dance or sing.

Just why, isn't made clear, but it is suggested Clarence might break a leg trying to jig, or lose his "my you big" voice trying to reach a high note.

MICHIGAN TEAM BEATS CORNELL ELEVEN IN A ONE-SIDED GRID GAME

Ohio State Comes Back Strong and Beats Wisconsin—Nebraska Piles Up Big Score on Missouri—Missouri Title Play Saturday.

Chicago, Nov. 10.—(U. P.)—The Big Ten gang, while settling a private scrap in its own backyard this afternoon, found time to wallop the stuffing out of a kid from the East who came over to play with the big Michigan boy.

Ohio State, who aspires to be the "champion" of the gang, again licked Wisconsin, 16 to 3, up in the Madison neighborhood, while Chicago and Illinois—also aspirants—stood around and sicked 'em on.

Meanwhile, that tough Michigan kid picked on little Cornell and gave him a 42 to 0 beating. This was the second time this year an easterner had got the worst of an encounter with a westerner. Notre Dame going right over into the Army's own hang-out to maul the latter a week ago.

Wisconsin, which surprises itself by eliminating Minnesota last Saturday, started off like a winner in this afternoon's tilt, taking the first round, 3 to 0. But Ohio's class showed itself, and the Badgers never had a chance after that. It was mostly an aerial game, through continual forward passing and punting.

Michigan won't have an opportunity to dispute the leadership of the Big Ten this year, meeting only Northwestern.

Aggies Lost Game
The title probably will be decided next Saturday, however, when Ohio State takes on Illinois at Columbus and Minnesota and Chicago mix at Minneapolis.

While Michigan was having his fun today, his kid brother, Michigan Aggie, got a lacing from Northwestern, 39 to 6.

The only other Big Ten fight was that between Iowa and South Dakota, which the former won, 35 to 0.

Nebraska and Missouri met for the first time since 1912. A 52 to 0 score failed to evoke any enthusiasm from Missouri over the resumption of relations.

Nebraska May Win Title
The football championship of the Missouri valley conference will be decided next Saturday by Lawrence, when Kansas meets Nebraska.

Kansas' chance of taking the honors from the Cornhuskers are decidedly slim. Although undefeated by a conference team, the Jayhawkers have been winning by only slight margins, being made to fight for every point.

Long Run for Touchdown
Ann Arbor, Mich., Nov. 10.—(U. N. S.) Michigan's championship eleven battered its way to a convincing victory over Cornell's big red team today at Perry field by the score of 40 to 0.

At no time during the battle did Coach Sharp's men have a chance. From the opening whistle, the powerful Maise and Blue backs plowed through the game Cornell line for long gains. Weston made the first touchdown on a 75 yard run on an intercepted pass.

Penn Battles to Victory
Boston, Nov. 10.—(I. N. S.)—After almost an hour of grim and bitter struggle, Pennsylvania's efficient football machine battered its way past Dartmouth's defenses here today and, with only five minutes left to play, scored the touchdown that gave it a victory over the Indians, 13 to 0.

Albany High School Beaten
Salem, Or., Nov. 10.—The Salem high school football team defeated Albany high this afternoon by the score of 35 to 6.

Hockey League Will Open December 7

Vancouver, B. C., Nov. 10.—(I. N. S.)—The 1917-18 season of the Pacific Coast Hockey association will open on December 7.

Officials of the association, at the annual session held here, agreed to a 24-game schedule with a split season. The first half season will close on January 19 and the second half will start on January 23 with the final matches scheduled for March 5.

Vancouver, Seattle, Spokane and Portland will comprise the league. Frank A. Patrick of Vancouver was selected president of the association. Other officers are vice-president, Edgar J. Bryan, Fortuna; secretary-treasurer, Arthur J. Small, Vancouver.

MARE ISLAND MARINES DEFEAT ARMY ELEVEN ON THE FOOTBALL FIELD

Tacoma, Wash., Nov. 10.—The Marines from Mare Island are football champions of the Pacific coast.

While 18,000 soldiers, sailors and marines looked on with a mere handful of civilians, this great football machine defeated the Ninety-first Division team from Camp Lewis, 13 to 0.

It was simply practice and team perfection being better than a collection of stars.

The great Marine team driven by Quarterback Brown worked as a perfect unit. Barrage open field running by Brown there was nothing outstanding in their play except this coherent action.

The Army, on the other hand, was a high of stars, trying from beginning to end, but lacking that understanding of one another which means victory in football.

Marines Score Early
The Marines had penetrated the Army defense before the olive drab men knew the game was on. They fought them on the defense largely, while the Army tried time and again to penetrate into Marine territory. They played careful football. McKay's work inside the line kept the Army on as good a footing as it was. It was Brown's work that brought the Marines close to a touchdown each time. It was he that was pushed over for the last score.

Brown and McKay Star
Along with Brown and McKay starred big Johnny Beckett and Bill Holden, two former Oregon tacklers. These two big boys, one on either team, were everywhere. Holden went into the game early in the first quarter, his head bandaged with tape yet, despite a painfully hurt jaw, he stuck and contributed the army's greatest defensive playing.

The Marines scored in the first quarter when, after an attempt at goal from the field had failed, Brown returned a punt early in the first quarter, circled right end for 25 yards to the Army five yard line. Hollis Huntington went over on the first down and Brown kicked goal.

The second score came after a long run from Brown in which he threw off several tacklers and played the ball over the 11 yard line. It was he that the ball was over the line. Brown himself slipping between guard and center for the score. He failed to kick goal.
