All plans are open to criticism and am not saying that the step we have taken is the last in the progress to be accomplished.

Application of strategy devised by civilians instead of by military ex-perts is what the London press fears dustrial enterprise. nost from the council. The assiduous comment against such a scheme to-day was mixed with violent assaults on Premier Lloyd George for his frank speech at the Paris luncheon. Most newspapers, and particularly the publications, expressed Northcliffe fear editorially today that the new war council would seek to displace British commanders as Sir Douglas Haig and General Robertson "The premier is anxious for closer unity in the control of allied armies," declared the Morning Post. way lessen the force that has made our city famous for its excellent milk supply and low death rate among infants, believing the efficiency of the department has already been sacrificed enough to make places for noncompetents and that public health should not be sacrificed by further cutting down or doing away with so important a part as milk chemist.

> War Insurance Is Desired Salem, Or., Nov. 14 .- Senator Mc-Nary Tuesday afternoon sent a message to Newton D. Baker, secretary of war, asserting that no provisions have been made for soldiers at Camp Mills L. I., where the Oregon boys are stationed, to take out war risk insurance His message says: "Many of the Oregon soldiers now at Camp Mills, L. I., desire policies of insurance as provided in the war risk insurance bill. Am advised that there is no governmental agency at Camp Mills through which the soldiers may invoke the benefit of this law. Inas much as the soldiers desire this insurance before embarkation I respectfully call your attention to this situation and request that immediate provision be made whereby this form of insurance may be made available to the soldiers."

How to Reduce Cost of Living

When butter sells at over 50 cents a pound, flour at $12 a barrel, and other foodstuffs in proportion, any bint to reduce the cost of living should be welcome. The great trouble is that rats and mice destroy many dollars' worth of food a month. Exterminate these pests with Stearns' Paste, which has been used with great success by national and local authorities thirty-five cents, will often rid the home or barn of a family of rats or mice in a single night.
