

UNCLE SAM TO HOLD BARGAIN SALE OF MONEY

Beginning December 3 "War Savings" Stamps Worth $5 Will Be Sold at $4.12; Increase in Value 1c Month

Small Investors Can Buy "Thrifty" Stamps for 25 Cents Each, Redeemable in "War Savings" Stamps.

Washington, Nov. 14.—(WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE JOURNAL.)—Secretary McAdoo today announced appointment of state directors for war savings certificates campaign. The following: Oregon, C. S. Jackson; Washington, Daniel Kelleher of Seattle; Idaho, former Governor James H. Hawley of Boise; California, G. A. Davidson of San Diego.

Directors in each state have been called to Washington.

December 3 the United States government will begin what amounts to a regular Saturday afternoon bargain sale of $5 pieces. On that date $5 of United States money will be sold at $4.12.

Every month after January 2, 1918, the date the bargain money will be dated, the $4.12 will be worth 1 cent more. That is on February 1 it will be worth $4.13, on March 1, $4.14, etc.

This cent a month increase in value will continue until January 1, 1923, when the $4.12 will be worth $5.

In the meantime, if anyone has to "cash in" his bargain money he will be paid $4.12 plus the number of months he has owned it.

Investing Is Simple Matter

With the entire wealth and security of the United States behind them, a nationwide campaign for the sale of the "war savings" stamps as the bargain money will be called, will be conducted, according to an announcement from Washington of Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo. Practically all of the money thus derived will be used within the United States.

To invest in the stamps will be as simple as buying postage stamps. They will be on sale at postoffices, banks and trust companies and at many other public places under the direction of authorized selling or accredited agents.

Everybody will be given the opportunity to purchase them and anyone may invest amounts as low as 25 cents at a time. The certificates will yield 4 per cent interest and the interest will be computed quarterly.

January 2, 1918, will be the date of the certificates and they will mature January 1, 1923.

"Thrifty" Stamps Also

No person, however, may purchase more than $100 worth of the certificates at one time or hold more than $1000 worth at any one time. These government obligations will be shown by stamps of two denominations, one to be known as "war savings" stamps, costing $4.12 at first and a cent a month thereafter, with a $5 maturity value, and another known as a "thrifty" stamp, costing 25 cents. "War savings" stamps will be sold for $4.12 each during the campaign, beginning January 1, 1918, and on the first of each month in 1918, beginning February 1, the cost of a stamp will increase 1 cent. All the war stamps issued during the coming year will mature January 1, 1923, and can be redeemed at $5 each, the difference between the purchase price paid at any time during 1918 and $5 being the interest to be paid the holder by the government.

The purchaser, upon buying his first "war savings" stamp, will be given a certificate having spaces for 20 stamps. If the spaces are filled before February 1, 1918, the cost will represent $5.00.

Can "Cash In" Any Time

This $2.40 certificate, on the first of January, 1923, can be redeemed at $100. After the redemption date the certificates will cease to bear interest. On "thrifty" cards, to be supplied without cost, will be placed the "thrifty stamps," which will cost 25 cents each. The cards when filled will represent a point of purchase of small amounts, and the cent a month increment can be exchanged for a war savings stamp. Such an exchange may be made merely by turning the card in at postoffice or direct sales agent together with payment of the difference between $4 and the price of the "war savings" stamp at that time.

The tax exemption provisions of the certificates, especially from the standpoint of purchasers of small amounts, and the thrifty stamp feature afford splendid opportunity for the small investor to place his money at interest with 4-1/2 per cent security.

For those who may later need their money, provision is made for surrendering a certificate to the government and getting back the cost, together with interest. This will require 10 days' written notice to the postmaster through whom the certificate is to be surrendered.

Mail From Trenches Reaches Pendleton

Pendleton, Or., Nov. 14.—As an illustration of the increased dispatch in the mail service between Europe and America since the United States entered the war is a letter just received by Grover Despain of this city from his brother, Private Joe Despain, of the Canadian expeditionary force. It was postmarked at a field postoffice on October 19 and reached Pendleton November 10, just 21 days after being mailed. Private Despain tells of the loss of many of his chums lately, but expresses confidence in ultimate victory. The letter was written in a dugout on the front line trenches and was interrupted by an airplane battle which the young soldier went to witness.

O. & C. GRANT LANDS MAY BE THROWN OPEN IN SPRING NEXT YEAR

Commissioner Tallman Thinks All Questions Should Be Settled During the Winter.

Washington, Nov. 14.—Commissioner Clay Tallman of the general land office, back from his far western trip, is well pleased with the progress made toward classification of the lands in the Oregon & California grant, and with the final payment of taxes to the counties of Oregon.

He believes it would not be wise to attempt opening of the agricultural lands to settlement during the winter season, even if everything were ready. It will be better, he thinks, to clean up the details of preparation for next few months, and begin the opening of the agricultural lands in the spring, when the settlers can begin immediately to make their improvements.

Mr. Tallman is devoting much of his time to the knots in the land grant problem, many of which, from an administrative standpoint, require extended study. The great body of the lands is free from further question, now that the taxes are paid. But there remain many unsettled problems in connection with lands under contract by the railroad company, lands within the forest reserves, and lands once conveyed by the railroad, but later exchanged.

The land office thus has to proceed by a sort of elimination process, dealing first with the lands concerning which there is no question, which can be opened, if agricultural, or sold, if timbered, and then in turn taking up the other classes where complications exist. Not until the suit for accounting with the railroad is concluded can finalities be reached as to what can be done in some cases, and it may be that congress will need to legislate concerning the lands under contract.

Indians Are Raiding In Southern Utah

Under Old Posey, Who Led in 1915, Raid Sheep and Cattle Ranches. Battles With Federal Officers in Salt Lake, Nov. 14.—(I. N. S.)—

Openly defying the white settlers of the San Juan valley, a renegade band of White River Ute Indians, headed by Old Posey, leader of the band which, in 1915, participated in several pitched battles with United States marshals, are nightly raiding sheep and cattle ranches near Bluff and other points in the southern part of the state.

Word of the Indians' depredations reached here today through Sheriff J. Elias of Grand county, who has been in consultation with the sheriff of San Juan county.

Unless the government takes immediate steps to bring the Indians under control, it is Sheriff Elias' belief that a reopening of the war between the whites and redmen is inevitable.

RIVALRY KEEN IN WAR FUND DRIVE

asserted that in many instances the gifts were not in proportion to the ability of the individual to give.

An analysis of the campaign is said to show that the wealthy class is making large contributions as a rule.

Special compliment is paid to the boys and girls of the city who have undergone personal sacrifice to aid in the cause. One lad gave the money which he had intended to spend for a new automobile.

Following the dinner at the Portland hotel at noon, where the totals were made up, the team workers marched to the big red triangle clock at Sixth and Alder streets, where the Y. M. C. A. hut was again on exhibition and where speakers told of the real work to be accomplished by the Y. M. C. A. forces in war-stricken Europe.

Notable instances of self sacrifice have come to the attention of the campaign management. The girls of Jefferson high school have decided to dispense with the purchase of fancy graduating dresses this year and devote their spare money to the Y. M. C. A. fund.

Outside Reports Encouraging

The reports from the city campaigners are gratifying to Colonel Devers and Ira F. Powers, who predict that the $300,000 goal will be reached.

Street speakers are obtaining excellent results, and the Y. M. C. A. forces in the Red Triangle clock at Sixth and Alder streets at noon are drawing hundreds of people.

Barbers and Bosses Agree to Arbitrate

Journeyman barbers and the master barbers have agreed to arbitrate a number of differences over the wage scale, and the negotiations will begin before an arbitration board about November 20, according to an agreement being signed up by practically all the master barbers today.

The agreement is being circulated by S. H. Howard, secretary of the Oregon Master Barbers association. The journeymen have already, through their union, agreed to arbitrate.

There are about 300 journeymen barbers in Portland. They have asked for a better offer than $18 a week minimum wage with a bonus of 50 per cent when the individual barber's receipts in a week exceed $28.

Aloha to Be Sung For Liliuokalani

The observance, which are to be an expression of steadfast regard by her former subjects, will be held in the throne room of the capitol, once the royal palace. The queen was the composer of Aloha Oe. An alleged secret will, which is said to be contrary to the claims of the Kalaianoa estate, has been submitted to government officials.

He was riding with William Lacourse of Adams, mixed blood, along the paved state highway when the car went over a 20-foot embankment. Both men had been drinking. It is said, Lacourse sustained only slight injuries, but Gaston died in a few minutes. He was brought to the hospital here.

Seattle, Nov. 14.—(U. P.)—Extension of Seattle's municipal carline into Ballard is assured this morning when the open sale of bonds to the public passed the necessary $40,000 mark. The issue will be over-subscribed by a large margin.

The city was excited from construction of the extension by enemies of municipal ownership on the ground that the car bonds were unsalable, the local banks and bond houses refusing to buy them. The bonds were placed before the public direct on Monday. In two days the necessary $40,000 to complete the line was heavily over-subscribed.
