SOCIAL CALENDAR

'clock. Benefit for soldiers' Christmas boxes.

Friday Social Calendar Laurelhurst club dance at Cotillion hall for members only. Irvington club formal dance at clubhouse.

Eastern Star Red Cross auxiliary card party at Masonic Temple, 2

"The Fallacy of a German Peace," by Andre Cheradame, in Next Sunday's Journal

The Social Side of City Life

CLUB CALENDAR

program by Treble Cleff club, Rose Coursen Reed directing.

Friday, November 28 Red Cross unit of First Presbyterian church in church house, to Portland Woman's club at Hotel Multnomah at 2 p. m. Musical

Each Will Bake Six Pies and Six Cakes

Members of Refreshment Committee for the Allied Bazaar Will Meet.

By Nona Lawler

mittee for the Allied Bazaar will meet Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Allied Bazaar headquarters on the fourth floor of the Corbett building to plan arrangements for their part in the big fete. Each of the girls and young matrons who is assisting on this committed is to furnish six cakes and six pies to the refreshment store and these contributions are to be spread out over the four days of the fete as specified by the chairman of the committee.

The clever Priscilla costumes which the girls will wear in serving are now occupying the time of the committee Arrangements have been made by the committee for all those who have not completed their costumes to meet at the Olds. Wortman & King store all day Monday on the fourth floor where some of the women will assist those who need help in cutting or fitting the dresses. Portland Girl to Wed

Word has been received from Chicago that a marriage license was issued there Wednesday, November 21, for Miss Maude Meservey of Portland and Delos S. Knapp of Winona, Minn. Miss Maude Meservey is the daughter. of Mrs. Caroline Meservey and the late S. S. Meservey of Portland. She left a ew weeks ago to visit her sister, Mrs. G. F. Sexton, in Chicago, and the wedding was expected to take place early month at that city. Mr. Knapp resided in Portland for a short time being employed with the Mitchell, Lewis Staver company at their Portland branch. He was transferred to their Chicago house about two months ago. The Meservey family have made their home in Portland for about five years, coming here from Wisconsin. The bride has many friends in the city, who will be much interested in the news of her marriage. No formal announcement was made of the engagement prior to he

SOCIAL NOTES

Miss Inez Stamper, the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Stamper, became the bride of William A. Ho-decker on Wednesday evening at the First Presbyterian church, Rev. J. H. Boyd officiating. The wedding was informal, only immediate relatives and friends being present. The church was a profusion of chrysanthemums and

The bride, who was given in mar

Miss Julia Hodecker, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. Her suit was of blue bolivia with black hat and furs. Arthur D. Hosfeldt was best sohn's Wedding March. The ushers committees as then, were: T. B. Collins, James W. Malley! and Carl Edwin Braun. A banquet for 25 was served immediately after at the Hotel Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Hodecker will spend their honeymoon in Seattle and British Columbia and will be at home to their friends after December 1 at the Irving- Bodley. ton apartments. bridge and "500" at the club house, the most attractive and largest.

proceeds going toward the purchase of a new flag. Mrs. J. S. Montgomery and Mrs. C. L. Sersanous were hostesses and were assisted by Mesdames Perdinand E. Reed, Roy S. Stearns, D. A. Fellows, Stanley Lamb, George G. Matlack, Miss Julia Joyclin and Mrs. Wentworth, J. P. Buchanan and Guy George Williams. Johnson. Thirty-two tables were filled, the prizes in bridge falling to Mrs. J. L. L. H. Kluge. This evening members and prospective members of the Laurelhurst drill team will, after drill, enjoy a smoker, speaking and a musical program. An elaborate luncheon will assist to make the evening an enjoyable one.

only, will be held at Cotillion hall. The new service flag of the club will to "note the styles." contain about 75 stars, that many mem-of the president, Helen Otto, as pre-siding officer, and Conductor Anna Cloudius. Miss Otto presented to Mrs. Baird in behalf of the corps a beautiful in the furniture department.

All residents or former residents of Frazar reading room of the church Colorado are urged to come and get ac- will be one of up-to-date interest, inquainted with the Coloradoans. The cluding many phases of food conserva-party will be held on the second floor tion, demonstrations and food formu-of the Oregon building, Fifth and Oak las, where meat substitutes, uses of streets. The ladies are requested to bring sandwiches.

The Thursday Dinner dance club will meet this evening at Hotel Portland, Covers will be laid for 14. Following the dinner, which will be chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. George E. Love, the guests will attend the dance given by the Thursday Subscription club at Murlark

COMING EVENTS

The benefit dance to be given by Company H auxiliary, One hundred and Sixty-second infantry, November 26, at W. O. W. hall, East Sixth and Alder treets, promises to be an enjoyable affair. A large detail of soldiers will be present who will greatly appreciate the presence of the Honor Guard girls. Patronesses are: Mesdames Hoggartt, Gentry, Doeneka, Whitlock, Smith, Wolf, E. B. Brown, Dahl, Rea, Hage-man, Cummings and McMahon. Floor managers are: Messrs. Gentry, Hog-gartt, Hageman, Grooms, McMahon and Milton Stacy.

MRS. WILLIAM A. HODECKER (Inez Stamper), whose marriage took place at the Birst Proches marriage took place at the First Presbyterian church Wednesday evening. Mrs. Hodecker is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Stamper.

Rummage Sale Red Cross Puts At Unitarian Church Open

THE Unitarian Woman's alliance. In spite of previous announcements with Mrs. Richard W. Montague as that the American Red Cross does not president and Mrs. Noble Wylie Jones approve the chain-letter system of as chief assistant, with their efficient The bride, who was given in morriage by her father, wore a smart tailtail for today's grand opening of a authorized any chain-letter promoters leur suit of midnight blue velour cloth three days' rummage sale, together with to use the with taupe fur and hat. She carried a daily program. The latter is of a a shower bouquet of dainty pink rose-buds.

The latter is of a any way, letters of this nature are in circulation and many copies of them in charge of Mrs. John Risley.

It was on April 26 and continuing quarters for explanation. through May in 1901, that the first The American Red Cross reiterates rummage sale was held in Portland. It that no chain-letter project has its apwas then as now, conducted by the Uni-tarian women. Some of the same may have been started in good faith, Miss Marie Roos played Mendels- women are now working on the same mention of the Red Cross is not war-

Most of the goods to be sold have public in general, are warned that been arriving for a week, including a there is no assurance that donations large consignment of millinery, which in response to any chain letters will was unpacked by its committee: Mrs. reach the Red Cross treasury, and are J. B. Comstock, Mrs. A. L. Pease, Mrs. urged to pay no attention to such ap-Anna Bernard, Mrs. Elliott Habersham, peals, whose sincerity is always open Mrs. John Dudley and Mrs. Majerie to doubt.

Laureihurst club ladies and their cially those of Mrs. Edward Hosea, soon friends turned out in force on Tuesday made over, reshaped and retrimmed unafternoon. November 20, and played til now this department is one of the

The shoe department has some of the

In the women's clothing department are Annett Cotter, Mrs. Roy Slocum, Will and Mrs. A. H. McCurtain, and in Mrs. C. W. Hayhurst and Mrs. C. H. Weatherby.

In the men's department are Mrs. W. F. Weedward, Mrs. Clarence Brown, Mrs. C. J. Schnabel, Mrs. Pew and Mrs. M. A. Warner. Mrs. C. M. Dewey, Mrs. Charles Fety,

Mrs. John Butterworth and Mrs. L. R Friday evening the regular semi- Alderman have charge of children's and monthly dancing party, for the members infants' wear, which will interest the visitor as well as others who may wish

If there are any who care not for bers having joined the colors since war styles, they can visit the book and mag-Lincoln-Garfield corps No. 19 was inspected by Department President Mrs. Martin Winch, Miss Jessie Miliard, Mrs. George Schalk, Mrs. Young and Mrs. Pearsons, will offer a yariety of subjects, including fiction, history, positive fairy and nursery rhymes at small

Mrs. H. J. Wilkins, Mrs. T. T. Geer and Mrs. G. H. Strout will be hostesses Friday evening at 8 o'clock the Colorado club will entertain with a card party at the regular monthly market.

In charge of antique articles are Mrs. H. C. Holmes, Mrs. Harry Vorse, Mrs. J. B. Laber and Mrs. Ralph W. Wilbur.

cake, etc., are concerned. The Unitarian church doors will be open daily at 8:30 a. m., continuing through the evenings. All will be welcome, whether purchasing or not.

Stylish Women Agree that the special sale of Suits that is now being offered by CHERRY'S, for smart cuts, and best as well as latest materials, are wonderful, and all that you have to do to be convinced as well as suited is to look. 389-91 Washington street, Pittock block.—Adv.

Presidents Be Guests at Luncheon

Benson School for Girls Will Entertain Saturday: Affair Will Be Enjoyable,

By Vella Winner

given Saturday at 12 o'clock at the Benson School for Girls, corner Fourteenth and Morrison streets, for the Presidents' conference, gives promise of being a very large and enjoyable affair. products and will be furnished by the Home Industries league and will be cooked and served by the girls of the Benson school. The luncheon is for he presidents of all women's organizations, clubs, Parent-Teacher associations, church societies, Red Cross units, etc. A. G. Clark, secretary of the Home Industries league; L. R. Alderman, superintendent of schools, and Miss Edna Groves, supervisor of domestic science in the public schools, will be the speakers. For reservations, call by Friday noon, Mrs. J. Sherman Taylor, chairman for the day, Main 5213, or Miss Winner, Main 7173 or A-6051. The Methodist Deaconess home, $15

East Flanders, is to be given a "Harvest Home" by its friends on Friday. The home will be open all day for friends and visitors. At 3 o'clock short program will be given. Mrs. Mc Naught will give readings and Mrs. E N. Wheeler and Mrs. George Cross will sing. In the evening the Epworth leagues of the different chapters will be present with their donations. A program will be given also in the evening and a prize to the league bringing the largest donation. All kinds of supplies, such as groceries, jellies and jams fruit, second hand clothing and cash donations will be acceptable in order to carry on the work of the home. Over 800 people were helped by the workers last year and over 2000 garments given out. Many calls for help have come in already this year. It is hoped the "Harvest Home" will help materially in car rying on the year's work.

The Professional Woman's league will give a tea Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the University club to meet Miss Edith Guerrier, of the Boston public library, who organized the Food Facts center in Boston, and who is in charge of a branch library in the Ital-

MEET TOMORROW

10 A. M.—HIGHLAND RED CROSS UNIT in Highland schoolhouse. Women asked to bring their lunches.

A. M.—RED CROSS UNIT FIRST PRES-BYTERIAN CHURCH in church house for BYTERIAN CHURCH IN CALLED AND ALBINA W. C. T. U. in Forbes Presbyterian church to make comfort bags for soldiers.

10 A. M.—ANNUAL BAZAAR PILGRIM CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH in Ogden's hall, Mississippi avenue, corner' East Fifteenth and East Morrison streets. Review of department work.

will give a paper on "Industries of France," and Mrs. M. M. Miller will speak on "The History of France from the Rebellion to the Battle of Waterloo."

P. M.—PORTLAND WOMAN'S CLUB at Hotel Multnomah. Musical program at 3 o'clock by Treble Clef club, Rose Coursen Reed, directing. Open meeting. Members

Reed, directing. Open meeting. Remoers may bring guests.

P. M.—EAST, SIDE CENTRAL W. C. T. U. in First United Brethren church.

P. M.—PORTLAND RAILBOAD WOMAN'S CLUB, Room E. Central library. Address on "Patriotic Art and Demonstration of First Aid Work," by Miss Filestia Doweling.

P. M.—ANNUAL BAZAAR PIEDMONT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, afternoon and appropriate Finestia progenia at night. PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, afternoon and evening. Entertainment at night.

280 p. m.—DAUGHTERS OF THE TEMPLE will give a "well worth" sale in White Temple church parlors. Fancy and useful articles and cooked food for sale.

260 p. m.—Silver tea by RICHMOND PARENT-TEACHER ASSOCIATION at the home of Mrs. F. Moore, 1201 Mixter street. Bring tea towels to hem for the soldiers. sured that his gift is to reach the ob-

Ban on Chain

Letters

have been forwarded to national head-ranted. Red Cross members, and the Aid to the Red Cross should always be furnished through recognized chan-nels, if the donor wishes to be as

To familiarize you with our new shop and the beautiful stock we carry

(We carry a much better stock than on Fifth St.)

We Will Undersell All Our

Coats, Suits and Dresses To Almost Half Price

Every garment in the house is new. Up to date recent arrivals. Will mention a few prices at random:

Up to $35 Suits at $14.50
In the newest styles, colors and fabrics.

Up to $65 Suits at $24.50

Up to $22 Coats at $11.75 Stylish, serviceable coats in Velour, Melton or Kersey. All the latest shades-brown, green and taupe.

Up to $35 Coats at $19.75
Some fur-trimmed bottoms and collars.

Up to $95 Coats at $42.00 Bolivia Cloth, Silvertone, Hudson Seal trimmed; some

Beaver trimmed. Exclusive models. Evening Dresses Reduced to $14.75 and $17.50

ROSENTHAL'S

143 Broadway, Near Alder

ian district and who recently was sent service work founded the well known urban districts, may secure the tags will give their services to putting to Washington for two months to de-velop the Food Conservation library es-at the Baby Home office, Broadway strings in the tags to meet this after building, 345 Morrison street, this after- noon and all day Friday at the East tablished by the home economics section of the food administration. Miss to sell tags for the benefit of the m., at Hotel Benson.

H. Liebes & Co.

Guerrier, in connection with her social Baby Home on Saturday in the sub
An urgent call is given to all who car. Women and girls who are willing noon or Friday from 10 a. m. to 5 p. Side Clubhouse, corner East Tenth

H. Liebes & Co.

CRYDIESSINGTORE CERSONES Onsale FRIDAY

In This Pre-Thanksgiving Offering.

A most distinguished sale-distinguished for the reason that it involves every dress in our stock-every street dress, every afternoon dress, every dinner gown, every evening frock.

The Prices Have Been Lowered to an Unusual Degree

These Same Beautiful

GOWNS and DRESSES Were Admired by You

Only a Few Days Ago

and you hesitated on purchasing. You can scarcely realize that these same garments are now offered you at prices so greatly reduced that you cannot pos-sibly resist the inducements. Only a week before Thanksgiving, too, a most opportune time to select that desired Gown without taxing your purse.

A Practical Gown Is This One $24.75

The gown shown in this Illustration is made of a combination of serge and satin, daintily trimmed with hand embroidery in gilt and peacock, the handy pocket on each hip also embroidered, lend attractiveness to the skirt. Others in this group-

$14.75 $18.75 $24.75 $28.75 and $39.75

> Charming Dinner Gowns

This beautiful model pictured here is fashioned of silver cloth, overdraped with black net beautifully beaded with irridescent beads and silver thread embroidery. A band of taupe fur on the tunic adds richness to this costume. There are many others in this group equally as rich in color and material, specially priced as follows:

$39.75, $49.75, $58.75, $64.75, $89.50

Our Beautifully Illustrated Catalogue of FURS and FUR FASHIONS will be sent on request.

TO THE WOMEN OF PORTLAND_ A statement such as the above, with the integrity of this store behind it, covers so wide a scope that to describe its full meaning would be out of the question. However, we can assure you that even though we will maintain our usual policy of refraining from quoting comparative prices, this is unquestionably the most extensive offering and affords infinitely more Savings to you

For Street Wear— An Ideal Dress The costume shown at the right is of navy serge in excellent quality. The peg-top skirt, the plainly tailored sleeves, the trim podice make this an ideal dress for street wear. The collar is of white satin.

Others in this particular grouping priced $14.75, $18.75, $24.75, $28.75,

A Handsome Afternoon Dress

dresses you will find this blue charmeuse, rich and beautiful in color, the callot stitching of biege silk adding character. The sleeves, collar and vestee are of Georgette. Other Silk Dresses in this sale priced: $14.75 $18.75 $24.75 $39.75 $38.75 $64.75

One of Many Attractive Styles Is Pictured at the Right

This illustrates one of our many attractive styles this Portrayal. pleated over-skirt is trimmed with buttons, the sleeves and bodice are beautifully braided, combining quality, style and service:

Others interestingly priced as follows: $14.75 $18.75 $24.75

$28.75 and $39.75

149-151 BROADWAY