TO BEGIN FRIDAY AT THE CATHEDRAL

High Mass of Exposition Will Be Sung at 6 o'Clock in the Morning-Service in Evening.

SATURDAY IS A FEAST DAY

Special Mass at Noon on Sunday With Sermon in Afternoon by Very Rev. Prior Olson, O. P.

The 40 hours' devotion will begin at St. Marys cathedral next Friday and last until the following Sunday afternoon. High mass of exposition will be sung on Friday morning at 6. On Friday evening at 7:45 there will be a solemn procession of the blessed sacrament in which the children of the parish and the members of the Cathedral Holy Names society will take part. Saturday is the feast of the immaculate conception, a holy day of obligation and the patronal feast of the cathedral church. There will be masses at the same hours as on Sundays, with a special mass at 12:20 noon instead of the usual mass at 11. High mass will be sung at 8:30 a. m. The 40 hours will conclude on Sun-Wery Rev. Prior Olsen, O. P., and the solemn procession and benediction of the blessed sacrament in which the members of the Holy Name societies from the city parishes will take part. This Sunday is the first Sunday of advent, the first day of the Christian year according to the calendar of the Catholic church. At the 11 o'clock high mass at St. Marys cathedral, Father O'Hara will preach a special sermon on the subject of "The Pope's Plea for a Lasting Christian Peace."

Dr. Stansfield to Discuss Germans

Sunday evening, Rev. Joshua Stansfield, D. D., will discuss the "German Mind and Movement Preceding and During the War and the Why and How of the Hun Today." He will take up some peculiar characteristics of German fatalism, their fierceness and folly. This will be a candid study of the why and how of the Huns' life and the grounds of his fatalism and fierceness and the foolishness of it all.

In the morning Dr. Stansfield will preach on "Unsearchable Riches of Christ." The sermon will be preceded by the first of a series of five minute addresses to children on the "Proverbs and Mottoes of Different Lands and

WHEN we grow into the highest and truest conception of what it really is to be released from the physical realm and enter upon "The Life More Abundant" with its larger development, and greater opportuni-ties, its charms and radiance and hap-piness then shall we really live, the faith of the Christian which now we profess. To this result Cremation is an immeasurable factor bi aid and really one of the most potent
