Currying Favor Is Important Political Stables Like Others

By Ralph Watson
"Robert Crawford said that Governor Withycombe's flax plant is worth $300,000. T. Paar said, gazing across at Mr. Paar while he held his finger on the figure..."

It was this way, Crawford thought he was running the flax plant, and he didn't confide in Joe and some of the other fellows around there, and they got to know him, and the governor tied a can to him...
