

APPLICATIONS FOR RELIEF CAMPAIGNS ARE PASSED UPON

Salvation Army Plea Denied Because Work Proposed Already Being Handled.

MANY REQUESTS HANDLED

Committee Finds War Camp Community Recreation Fund Worthy of Support.

The coordination committee of the state council of defense has passed on numerous applications for indorsement from "war relief" agencies since it was assigned to the work by H. L. Corbett, chairman of the state council of defense.

"We received the application of the officers of the Salvation Army in the Pacific Northwest for authority to conduct a drive in aid of the fund for Salvation Army work among the soldiers in France and in the United States," said Mr. Neuhausen.

"The committee found the war camp community recreation fund to be one of the three branches of work now being performed under the direction of the war department."

"The committee found the war camp community recreation fund to be one of the three branches of work now being performed under the direction of the war department."

"A request by the American committee for Armenian and Syrian relief for indorsement of proposed campaigns in Portland and other Oregon cities in aid of a fund for Syrian and Armenian refugees rendered destitute by the invasion of their territory was referred to the committee by Mayor Baker.

"The American Bible Society sought the coordination committee's approval of its plan for raising funds to furnish copies of the army and navy edition of the New Testament to soldiers and sailors desiring them."

"The coordination committee's indorsement was given to the sale of Red Cross Christmas seals and likewise to an appeal of the Serbian National league for Portland for clothing, shoes, and so forth, for Serbian and other refugees, the latter comprising men, women and children."

"A request from the American Defense society asking that a petition be circulated urging congress to enact forthwith a law imposing punishment upon all persons or organizations responsible for profane activities or for the public utterance of disloyal sentiments, was referred to Mayor Baker for action."

"The coordination committee is composed of Mr. Neuhausen, chairman; George L. Baker, Charles F. Berg, S. C. Bratton, Mrs. Charles H. Casner, Charles E. Cochran, Thomas H. Edwards, J. C. English, Max S. Hirsch, Victor A. Johnson, Miss Viola Orsich, John H. Stevenson, F. E. Taylor, H. H. Ward and William D. Wheelwright."

"All but two of the women employed walked out with us," said Forrest Serven, business agent of the organization.

"The women have asked us to obtain better wages for them. They are now paid $1.50 a day. A collection was taken up among the men to aid them during the strike while they are not working."

"Officials of the company say that they expect the men to return to work Tuesday, although no agreement has been entered into with them."

Knitted Goods Shipped. Castlerock, Wash., Dec. 11.—The local Red Cross made its first shipment of knitted goods Saturday, 17 sweaters, 16 pairs of socks, 10 wristlets and two mufflers, the result of two weeks' knitting.

Federal Loan Approved. Dallas, Or., Dec. 11.—The first federal loan made on Polk county land has been approved and the money paid on it. Jacob Van Well secured a loan of $5000 on his 201 acre farm on Salt creek.
