

PATH OF PEACE LEADS TO BERLIN, DR. BOYD TELLS ROTARY CLUB

Pastor Says Germans Must Be Defeated and Permitted to Sleep Off Drunkenness.

"The path of world peace leads toward Berlin," declared Rev. John H. Boyd, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, in a talk at the noonday luncheon of the Rotary club Tuesday.

Dr. Boyd's talk was entitled "The Unmaking of Germany." Two hundred members of the club listened in rapt attention to an exposition of German perfidy and vaunting ambition.

"We all know that the real German, the German of a few years ago, carried with him an atmosphere of intense self esteem," said Dr. Boyd, "that he was inflated to the point of momentary explosion. Whenever he talked, he boasted; and whenever he walked, he strutted."

"We have now come to see that there is a difference between German egotism and English or American egotism. There is not only an intenser degree, but a different quality. It strikes deeper, it carries with it the sense of mission and destiny. It wraps itself around the life of the German nation. It inflames the imagination of the people. It becomes to the German a dream, an ideal, that is to be realized by force, if need be."

"It is because of his attempt to make his dream come true that the German is a menace to the world. But he failed with the statement of a belief in the ultimate usefulness to civilization of German thrift and German worth and progressiveness. Only first we must whip him into reason."

Proceeding the talk by Dr. Boyd, resolutions expressing the appreciation by members of the club of the splendid life and character of the late John P. Carroll were read and ordered placed upon the records of the club.

GERMANS MASS BIG FORCE AT CAMBRAI

tion dumps and supply stations. Unusual raiding activities, part of the same effort to obtain information as to strength of front positions, developed all along the line.

Reprise of a "local attack" north of Lavaquerie yesterday afternoon was reported by Field Marshal Haig today.

He also detailed successful raids, in which the British captured a machine gun and a machine gun in the neighborhood of Pentruet and northwest of St. Quentin.

A perceptible lessening of Teutonic pressure on the Italian front was reported today. It served to confirm belief here in London that considerable forces of Austro-Hungarian troops had been switched from that theatre to the west. Great numbers of the Austrian emperor's troops are reported already there, having been transferred from the Russian line.

The artillery duel along both French and British fronts today was attaining a maximum of violence. The Germans are assuming the initiative in this combat.

Berlin's official statements frankly admit a strong plan of reinforcement of its west front positions.

AMERICAN LINE MAY BE GOAL OF GERMAN CONCENTRATION, VIEW

New York, Dec. 12.—(U. P.)—American's battlefront in France may be the mysterious objective for which Germany is massing new troops in the west.

3-HEADED ALLIANCE PLANNING TO MAKE ITSELF FELT AT POLLS

Leaders of the three organizations are now working out a plan of campaign which they expect to serve as a common platform upon which all can stand. Once completed, and ratified, candidates who climb upon it will be given the support of the membership of the three organizations; those who do not will face the indirect if not the direct opposition of it.

Amalgamation Politically of the Farmers' Union, Grangers and A. F. of L. Is Scheme.

Candidates for office who run the gamut of the voting booths at the primary and general elections of 1918, in calculating the probability of their success or defeat, will be compelled to take into account a three-headed alliance of the Grange, Farmers' union and the State Federation of Labor, if the plans laid at the state convention of the Farmers' union recently held at Pendleton are satisfactorily worked out.

There has been a good deal of talk during the last two years of the impending invasion of Oregon at the coming general election by the Farmers' non-Partisan league.

It is now considered very probable that the non-Partisan league will come into Oregon as such, but it is certain that if the plan for a three-headed coalition discussed at the Pendleton convention can be worked out, the one labor and two farmer organizations of the state will go into the primary and general elections as an allied fighting force.

Working Out Plan

While there does not seem to be any over-arching sentiment calling for the Non-Partisan league to organize in Oregon, there is a united sentiment among the leaders of the three organizations, which in turn is most probably the reflection of the sentiment of the rank and file, calling for political cooperation between the tillers of the city and the tillers of the soil.

SOME DAY COAST LEAGUE WILL PAY PORTLAND CLUB

Judge McCredie Will Not Forget When Californians Want to Expand.

"Some of these days, when prosperity returns to baseball and the Pacific Coast league wants to expand into an eight club league along the entire coast, they are going to pay the price. All of the indignities heaped on the Portland club will be remembered and when the readjustment comes, as it is bound to do in a few years, we must be paid our price," says Judge W. W. McCredie.

"Just how the Sacramento business men want to pay us their price for our players, want our franchise as a gift and want to protect themselves against any kind of a chance by putting the money in escrow against the possible draft of some players on our club. Can you imagine the gall of some people?"

"When the meeting was held I set a figure that met with the approval of the other five directors of the league. It gave the franchise to Sacramento and we wanted part of the money we had paid for our ball players. This was put up to Sacramento. They wanted to cut it down by half and wanted to protect that half with lead pipe cinch methods. So the Sacramento people came out and stated that they wanted to bring about the much discussed session between the two major leagues.

HERE'S A REASON

Why—I have the very best selection of Watches in the City of Portland, because my specialty is good watches—

And I had sense enough to buy enough, they that keep time, no junk, all of quality.

I have one of the most sensible selections of the needed article in jewelry one could wish to look over—the largest and best stock of Clocks in the Northwest.

Diamond rings, diamond earrings, diamond stick pins, diamond brooches and diamond pendants.

Silver tea sets, cut glass vases, bowls and water sets. I haven't any Italian marble or French bronzes, but I have the goods that the people buy and ought to buy. I don't peddle hot air about nonsensical merchandise. Mine are the goods for the plain, common people and, thank the Lord, there are so many of them.

Anyhow, if you want good, reliable goods at the most reasonable prices, you will make a mistake if you don't look me over.
