

DRIVE FOR FUNDS FOR SOCIAL WEEK TO OPEN MONDAY

Sum of $75,000 Sought for Y. W. C. A., Hostess Houses and Clubrooms in Portland.

WORKERS READY FOR START

Welfare of Army and Navy Men and of Girls Object of Campaign.

Red, white and blue pledge cards will be much in evidence in Portland during the next eight days while the campaign is on for the war work council, local and national; the Young Women's Christian Association, and the clubrooms which Portland desires to equip for the exclusive use of visiting enlisted men of the army and navy.

After a month of preparation and a week of drilling the teams, 200 women and men workers will plunge into the $75,000 drive next Monday. The results of the first day's round-up will be checked up and discussed at a "mess call" at the Portland hotel Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Three Activities to Share Of the $75,000 to be raised, one third will be used for the clubroom in Portland. The remaining $50,000 will be sought to finance the coordinating welfare work already established and being carried on by the Young Women's Christian Association. Of this, one half will go to the Y. W. C. A.'s national war work council, which maintains hostess houses at or near the war camps, inclusive of the one at Vancouver, which is proving a splendid success in exerting a home influence which is winning the boys in their leisure hours from hanging around the streets.

Hostess Houses at Camps There are also hostess houses at Camp Lewis and the Bremerton navy yard. The latter place is providing housing accommodations for girl "yeomanettes" now in the service as accountants, clerks, secretaries, stenographers, supply clerks, etc. Other hostess houses in the war camp communities will be provided as needed. A little later the national campaign for such funds will be conducted throughout Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana, but the larger proportion of the money is expected to come from the larger cities near the war camps. It is the larger cities that the boys go to to spend their leisure time.

Gifts Can Be Divided "While this joint financial campaign covers a three-fold object," said Campaign Managers Charles F. Berg and Miss Ida V. Jontz, "the subscribers will be afforded the option of designating the project to which they wish to contribute; or, they may, if they wish, divide their contributions."

Regarding the local work in Portland and vicinity of the Young Women's Christian Association, Miss Jontz, the secretary, says:

"Maintenance and extension of the local functions of the Y. W. C. A. normally call for about $15,000 per year. This is the difference between income and non-income producing activities. Heavy Responsibilities Added "Many heavy responsibilities have been added to our work for needy, stranded, homeless girls and women. Besides the Travelers' Aid workers, maintained at railway stations, our free service in behalf of women has been vastly increased during the last year. Employment was found for 3000 girls, hundreds were trained for positions; thousands of departing, worthy girls were taken care of; 3000 trained in the physical department; 5000 roomed in a year. Our big building requires repairs; fuel oil has gone up and, in one way or another, expense has increased so that our budget will require $25,000. This covers some outlays carried over from the previous year."

Meeting Tomorrow Night "The Y. W. C. A.'s war work for the soldiers in camp and the women at home is as important in its way as the Red Cross and other agencies," says General Chairman L. C. Gilman.

At headquarters in the Portland hotel tomorrow (Friday) evening a rally of the workers will be held and Robert J. Reid, western district manager of the Foudiek national commission, from San Francisco, will deliver an explanatory lecture upon war camp recreational work.

CROWDER WOULD PUT ALL MEN 21 INTO DRAFT

cause the large number of aliens, all of whom were exempt, caused the quotas to be much higher than the average. The per capita cost of drafting has been $4.93, which is about one fourth the amount it cost the government to get each volunteer into the army. The lowest per capita cost was in Oklahoma, where the average was $1.57, while Delaware led the list with $16 for each man. This includes all expenses necessary to get the men to the camps. Crowder's report was submitted to congress at noon.

Twenty-nine per cent of the men called for physical examination were found deficient, it shows.

The Middle West is producing the most stalwart fighters, the percentages of exemptions on account of physical disability lower there than in the east or Pacific coast. South Dakota leads this list, while Pennsylvania was the most deficient in this respect. The New England States in general and New York made a poor showing.

Oregon Gains Recognition

The fighters of today are superior to those of the Civil War, the report states, for the percentage of physical exemptions in the sixties was about 32, or 3 more than today. The love of the forerunner for the land of his adoption is shown by the fact that there are more than 76,000 aliens in the national army. They are volunteers, for it was necessary for them to waive exemption granted of all aliens before being accepted. A remarkable patriotic fervor existed in Oregon, where, the report shows, that for every 100 men taken in the draft, 154 volunteered. The other states range down to 65 volunteers for every 100 drafted.

The married men loom up in the new army in greater force than was expected, more than 165,000 being in the service. In the compulsory service system the percentage December 1 of those who still had not been registered was .00026. Department of justice agents and police of the country made 870 arrests. Of these 2663 were registered and released. Only 235 men were prosecuted.

400 British Subjects Have Enlisted Here

Officer in Charge of Local Recruiting Station Says There Are Many More Who Will Be Subject to Draft Order.

During the four months that the British and Canadian recruiting office, Third and Oak streets, has been open, more than 400 British subjects have offered their services to their country. Although this number is considered fairly satisfactory, the officer in charge says that at least twice this number should be coming forward.

Lieutenant Simpson announces that he is now in possession of the names of nearly every British subject of military age in Oregon, preparatory to their being drafted, and hopes that those who wish to have the opportunity of selecting their branch of service will come forward now. A large number of trades are open to those who wish to follow their civil occupation while serving their country.

During the last week the following men from Oregon were accepted for the British or Canadian armies: From Portland J. D. Kaudy, J. Q. Church, E. Thiry, O. Wright, G. B. Capes, C. H. Hill, A. McKaren, W. W. Lyon, Henry Jones, Harry Ford, George F. Stoney, L. A. Wilkinson; J. J. Hornback, A. L. Marriott, The Dalles; W. C.

Maskell, Aurora; J. G. Ingram, MacLeary; W. G. Williams, Klamath Falls; J. J. Ramsay, Baker; C. S. Speechley, Post; Albert McLeod, Gaston; Peter Simpson, Reedsports; J. R. Powell, Cornelius.

U-BOAT FOLLOWS SHIP INTO HARBOR

which their officers were instructed to make. Further, they declared that they had their shore leave cut unless they bagged a certain number of ships and that they had run in hard luck on two cruises, sinking only a few small craft. Upon their return they had been deprived of all leave whatsoever.

Rather than put up with that the men mutinied, killing two commissioned and three non-commissioned officers. Then the sailors took charge of the craft. Two of the men had been killed during the fighting on board and another by a subordinate.

PRIZES OFFERED FOR FIRST 1918 BABY GO TO "MISS" PEABODY

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Peabody Arrived at One Minute Past Midnight.

A daughter, born to Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Peabody, 318 Fifth street southeast, at one minute past midnight on the morning of January 1, wins the prizes offered by The Journal and a number of merchants and institutions for being the first baby born in Portland in the year 1918.

Dr. C. G. Sablin was the attending physician and Mrs. E. M. Twitcheell was the nurse in charge. The Journal will give Mrs. Peabody an order on the various firms authorizing them to deliver the presents to Baby Peabody. According to the records of the health office the second baby was one born to Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. Nelson, 430 Glenn avenue, at 6:30 p. m. January 1.

Woman Found Dead With Joy Riders

Pontiac, Mich., Jan. 3.—(U. N. S.)—Frank Malecki and W. Sekonsky, discovered yesterday in a stalled automobile at Rockwood, with the dead body of Mrs. Broncia Kulenwicz, today are held on a manslaughter charge. The men, who are held at Detroit, assert the car skidded into a ditch, killing the woman.

The driver of the car, who has not been found, is thought to have been a member of an organized gang of auto thieves working out of Toledo, Ohio. Malecki and Sekonsky assert the woman was the guest of the driver, who had invited them for a day's outing.

Wireless Messages Sent 10,000 Miles

San Francisco, Jan. 3.—(U. N. S.)—The island of Java is in daily wireless communication with The Hague, 10,000 miles away, according to A. P. A. Klesing, resident of Batavia, Java, who arrived here today. This is the longest wireless communication ever achieved.

"Home bread-making is a triple waste," says Mrs. William Severin, chairman of the Women's National Advisory Council. "First, a waste of wheat. Second, a waste of time. Third, of your family's digestion."

You practice real food conservation when you buy Franz's BUTTER-NUT and WHOLE WHEAT! They are baked in Franz's United States Bakery, where every ounce of flour, every particle of shortening, yeast, etc., go to make wholesome, nutritious bread.

Let the bread plate on your table hold half of BUTTER-NUT and half of Franz's WHOLE WHEAT—the Liberty loaf. You'll find the WHOLE WHEAT is a big favorite—and it's the real health bread. Buy your bread from your grocer and tell him "Franz's." Both loaves in the sanitary waxed paper wrapping. This costs no more because it saves waste in handling.
