

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Monday, January 14
Informal dance at Murlark hall, given by Mr. and Mrs. George Love, for the members of the Thursday Night Subscription club.

CLUB CALENDAR

Monday, January 14
Army and Navy auxiliary at headquarters, 411 Morrison street, at 2 p. m.
Chapter A of P. E. O. Sisterhood luncheon with Mrs. E. A. Taft, at the Hotel Astor, 8 p. m.
Montessori association, 8 p. m., with Mrs. H. L. Mayhew, 523 East Twenty-fifth street north.

"Il Trovatore" Will Be Sung Tonight

San Carlans Offer Splendid Entertainment; Large Audience Calls for More.

By J. L. Wallin
WITH the production of Verdi's "Il Trovatore," the season of the San Carlo Grand Opera company will close tonight at The Auditorium.

Friday night the company sang Ponchielli's "La Gioconda" to a large house so brilliantly that those who heard it were delighted to live the evening all over again.
The opera is sung less frequently than the average Italian opera, one of the reasons being the many vocal difficulties it presents.

FRATERNAL NOTES

Multnomah camp, W. O. W., Friday night initiated a class of 38 candidates. A large number of such splendid members were present. A party of neighbors from Bay City, Tillamook county, attended especially to witness the new ritual work.

Kirkpatrick council, Knights and Ladies of Security, was surprised Friday night at the large attendance secured at the first open meeting, card party and dance given under the auspices of the Moose temple, at Fourth and Taylor streets.

Applications for degrees are coming into the hands of Brydon H. Nicol, secretary of the "valley" of Portland, Or., Scottish Rite Masons, and a good-sized class is expected to take the degrees beginning next Tuesday.

The Patriarchs Militant of Canton Portland, I. O. O. F., are arranging for a number of special features in connection with their play at the Baker theatre on the night of Tuesday, January 29. They ask all their members, friends and families to save the pennies and prepare for a succession of good laughs.

Sir Edward Carson Approves U. S. Aims

London, Jan. 12.—(U. P.)—There is no difference between President Wilson's views and those of the British government, declared Sir Edward Carson, member of the war cabinet, in an interview granted the United Press Friday. "However, if these mean abolishing the blockade as a weapon of war, I hope I will never see the day when Britain agrees—that is, unless war is abolished."

"It would greatly assist in safeguarding the future of our country, there will be no conscription after the war."
Carson denied he had opposed the league of nations idea and declared that the only way certain practical difficulties could be solved was by the league. "If the league can be evolved," he said, "it will be the greatest blessing ever conferred upon mankind."

Try Kondon's for the baby's cold (at no charge to you)
A neglected cold in a child's head often leads to chronic catarrh and catarrhal deafness, which hinders the child's mental growth, making them appear stupid.

WAR FEATURES OF PARAMOUNT INTEREST IN THE SUNDAY JOURNAL TOMORROW

CLARA HOWARD, former cabaret singer of Portland, who is now one of the principal acts of the Orpheum show, opening next Sunday at the Heilig. Miss Howard is programmed as the "Musical Comedy Girl."

The Social Side of City Life

Stage Gamut Presents a Wide Field

Coming Week Promises to Be a Busy One for the Portland Theatregoers.

THEATRE-GOING Portland will be very busy this coming week, with a very large and motion picture houses will be light from Sunday to Sunday, and the list of attractions to be given promises a variety of attractive bills. The four first days will be Shakespeare with John E. Keller at the Heilig, for the last three days of the week; three starred vaudeville, at the Orpheum; and the four first days will be much promise at Pantages, the Hippodrome and the Strand; a romantic comedy, "The Cinderella Man," at the Baker and the Heilig; and the four first days will be the Lyric, which this time is to be called "The Gibson Girl."

While this is going on in the "speaking" theatres, the "moses" will not be idle by any means. The Columbia has prepared one of their most interesting attractions in some time, a problem play, "Mrs. Dane's Defense," with Pauline Frederick in the principal role, at the Liberty from Sunday on, Taylor Holmes will show us how it feels to be the possessor of "Uneasy Money," and one way of getting rid of it; "The Mormon Maid," at the Sunset; Madge Kennedy, delightful comedienne, is making up her mind to appear at the Heilig; the deep will be presented to our astonished vision at the Star, where "The Submarine Eye," is being shown.

LIBERTY—Taylor Holmes, in "Uneasy Money" is to be featured at the Liberty this coming week, commencing tomorrow, Sunday. In the play, Mr. Holmes is the part of Lord Dunsany, an English nobleman, who inherits a great amount of money, from an eccentric American, who should have left it to a niece and her son, but he is determined to return her share to the very attractive niece that the complications ensue. The play is the same name, which ran serially in the Saturday Evening Post. Virginia Valli plays opposite the star.

COLUMBIA—One of the star films of the season is that of "Mrs. Dane's Defense," featuring the beautiful emotional actress, Pauline Frederick. The play is of the problem variety, and tells the story of a woman straining with every nerve to hide the wrong of her early life, and to win the happiness which should have been hers. The play is a sacrifice for the good of those she loves. The Paramount screen version follows very closely the original stage version. The picture is the same name, which created a real sensation at the time of its stage presentation. The different scenes were filmed in private homes, and the picture is a reproduction of wonderful country estates. The picture is the same name, which was written by Miss Frederic and especially stunning.

FRONTIER—The eagerly awaited Douglas Fairbanks production of "A Modern Musketeer," will be the attraction at the Peoples commencing tomorrow and running for the balance of the week. The picture is a story of a young man, who through a series of adventures, finds himself in the hands of a desperado, who is determined to kill him. The picture is a story of a young man, who through a series of adventures, finds himself in the hands of a desperado, who is determined to kill him.

SUNSET—Mae Murray, in "The Mormon Maid," a story of the early days of one of the Mormon settlements, will be the picture at the Sunset, from Sunday to Thursday of next week. In addition to Miss Murray, Hobart Bosworth, Frank Borzage and Elythe Chapman, have promised to appear. The story is that of a young girl, who is the wife of a Mormon elder, and who is determined to win her freedom. The picture is a story of a young girl, who is the wife of a Mormon elder, and who is determined to win her freedom.

STAR—"The Immigrant," by the only original play at the Star, commencing today, is one of the most remarkable films from a photographic standpoint that has ever been screened. The picture is a story of a young man, who is determined to win his freedom. The picture is a story of a young man, who is determined to win his freedom.

ST. LOUIS—The picture at the Strand this week is "The Girl by the Roadside," with beautiful Violet Mersereau in the leading role. The picture is a story of a young man, who is determined to win his freedom. The picture is a story of a young man, who is determined to win his freedom.

ST. LOUIS—The picture at the Strand this week is "The Girl by the Roadside," with beautiful Violet Mersereau in the leading role. The picture is a story of a young man, who is determined to win his freedom. The picture is a story of a young man, who is determined to win his freedom.

How Jimmy Coon Lost His Supper

JIMMY COON had forgotten to call and eat Mrs. Quail's 22 eggs in her prettiest cabinet, which she had watched and he was startled to see the head of one of her little children sticking out from under her wing.

And Jimmy Coon crept very softly nearer the nest; and he could hear pretty Mrs. Quail, singing to her little children, who were all in bed with their dear mother. "Now hush, little ones, and go right to sleep. No one will harm you. You are safe in your home. You have only had some bad dreams, now go right to sleep!"

And Jimmy Coon was awfully hungry; and his mouth was open, showing all of his little white teeth, as he crept so silently close to the nest. And Jimmy Coon said to himself, "I'd just as soon have a whole cabinet full of eggs as my supper as her fresh eggs! So here goes," and Jimmy Coon reached his two little clever hands for that soft bed, bidding adieu to the nice fat babies of pretty Mother Quail.

At that very instant, Jimmy Coon looked over his left shoulder and he trembled all over as he saw, an awful sight. Two eyes gleamed in the darkness, like coals of fire right behind him. And Jimmy Coon shuddered and almost fell down, with a terrible fear in his little beating heart. Jimmy Coon saw at a glance it was Mr. Red Fox.

And Jimmy Coon gave an awful squeal of terror, and ran for his life to find his mother. Mr. Red Fox gave some terrible barks as he leaped to catch Jimmy Coon. And while Mr. Fox was trying to catch Jimmy Coon Mrs. Quail quickly woke her children with a wild scream; and she called loudly, "Children, look out! Use your little wings and fly with me to the lower limbs of the Oak tree." And here they were all safe, while Mother Quail comforted her frightened children, by clucking words of comfort to her little chicks, when frightened by the big Hen-hawk. The next day Jimmy Coon was very fit for his duty.

At the same time I have kept up my regular work. Before the war I often thought my day was crowded to capacity. Many other women feel that they get three times as much work, yet I show no signs of exhaustion and feel fit for even more duties. Fatigue may overtake me before I retire, but I am ready for any extra duty when the sun puts its nose over the horizon.

I am sure it would be impossible for me to do the work I am doing at present without a great deal of rest. I gained through making physical culture a religion. Even with my time so fully occupied, I devote daily periods to exercise and live rightly upon food. It is high time that we should be teaching for years. I owe my strength and vitality and my ability to work to the course I have followed.

Many other women feel that it is their duty to work in a big way in the interests of the nation and our soldiers. If they are not physically strong, their spirit may be willing but they will not be able to render full service. The women who are devotees of physical culture will not have any difficulty in performing the duty.

If you have not started to give your body the attention it demands, begin to do so at once. Look at the workers about you and you will find the physically strong in the lead. The ones they lead make them fit for service. By paying attention to exercise, diet, fresh air, rest and recreation they are able to heed the call of duty.

Two eyes gleamed in the darkness

all her children with a wild scream; and she called loudly, "Children, look out! Use your little wings and fly with me to the lower limbs of the Oak tree." And here they were all safe, while Mother Quail comforted her frightened children, by clucking words of comfort to her little chicks, when frightened by the big Hen-hawk. The next day Jimmy Coon was very fit for his duty.

At the same time I have kept up my regular work. Before the war I often thought my day was crowded to capacity. Many other women feel that they get three times as much work, yet I show no signs of exhaustion and feel fit for even more duties. Fatigue may overtake me before I retire, but I am ready for any extra duty when the sun puts its nose over the horizon.

I am sure it would be impossible for me to do the work I am doing at present without a great deal of rest. I gained through making physical culture a religion. Even with my time so fully occupied, I devote daily periods to exercise and live rightly upon food. It is high time that we should be teaching for years. I owe my strength and vitality and my ability to work to the course I have followed.

Many other women feel that it is their duty to work in a big way in the interests of the nation and our soldiers. If they are not physically strong, their spirit may be willing but they will not be able to render full service. The women who are devotees of physical culture will not have any difficulty in performing the duty.

If you have not started to give your body the attention it demands, begin to do so at once. Look at the workers about you and you will find the physically strong in the lead. The ones they lead make them fit for service. By paying attention to exercise, diet, fresh air, rest and recreation they are able to heed the call of duty.

Women of middle age, like men of the same age, are not so strong as they once were. Some believe they have no spare time and other are lazy. Many think they have an abundance of strength until they are placed under the strain of additional work or sickness. Then comes the break.

Heed the lessons that are being taught to the men of the nation. That which is good for the gander is good for the goose.

that he gave last season, during his three months' engagement in New York. Thursday, January 17, the play will be "The Girl by the Roadside," with beautiful Violet Mersereau in the leading role. The picture is a story of a young man, who is determined to win his freedom. The picture is a story of a young man, who is determined to win his freedom.

that he gave last season, during his three months' engagement in New York. Thursday, January 17, the play will be "The Girl by the Roadside," with beautiful Violet Mersereau in the leading role. The picture is a story of a young man, who is determined to win his freedom. The picture is a story of a young man, who is determined to win his freedom.

Books Made For Soldiers In Hospital

By Vella Winner
CHAPTER F. P. E. O., held an all day meeting on Thursday at the home of Mrs. D. L. Drake to make hospital books to be sent to soldiers and sailors through the Public Library. At a short business session in the morning the chapter assumed the support of a French war orphan for at least one year. In the afternoon after having enjoyed a Hooverized lunch the chapter continued its work on the books while Mrs. Charles Seeburger gave a talk on the constitution, bringing out many helpful and important points.

By vote of the association, Miss McGregor, president of the Portland Grade Teachers' association, was authorized to call a special meeting of the association on Wednesday afternoon, January 16, at 4:30 o'clock in Library hall. The purpose of the meeting is to complete the unfinished business relative to appropriations from the patriotic fund to act on resolutions, notice of which has previously been given, and to transact such routine business as the interests of the hour prevented being brought before the regular meeting. A full attendance is urged.

The ladies of the Mental Culture club of Roseburg met Wednesday afternoon in their rooms at the parish house and current events were discussed, the leader being Mrs. E. A. Hinkle. At the conclusion of this interesting feature of the program, the ladies repaired to the high school building where Professor Lansbury, of the University of Oregon school of music, gave a splendid talk on the subject of "The Mental Culture Club Ladies, under the auspices of the club. Professor Lansbury chose as his topic "Peeps Into the Workshop of the Mind." He discussed in a clear, concise manner of the relation of music to education, how it should be a part of one's education and considered a science.

A most enjoyable meeting of the Liberty club of Burns was held at the home of Mrs. J. H. Husted with Mrs. Frank Triska as joint hostess. The Red Cross spirit was evident in the fact that nearly every one present was knitting a sweater, sock or wrist band and when letters were read from various recipients of Red Cross kits sent by the Liberty club, needles seemed to click faster than ever. Several letters read Oregon boys are the envy of the lads from other states and are most eager to be "adopted" by Oregon women.

The subject of the literary part of the program, an address by Mrs. M. Triska gave a splendid talk on Bolivia. Henry P. Davison, chairman of the war council of the American Red Cross, sent the following New Year's message to the Red Cross division managers throughout the world: "The latest reports available indicate that the Christmas drive for 10,000,000 new members for the American Red Cross has resulted in the addition of fully 10,000,000 new members to its rolls. This number added to the more than 6,000,000 members before the Christmas campaign makes the total present enrollment fully 22,000,000. This is a magnificent record in the law offices of Len J. Parkes, secretary, formed a Red Cross unit. Mrs. A. M. Crawford was elected permanent chairman.

Bill Wood Draft Aliens Washington, Jan. 11.—(U. P.)—Drafting into the American army of all aliens not of enemy nations between 21 and 31 years, who have lived in this country two years, and of citizens of the United States who have resided in length of their residence here is demanded in a bill Representative Tague of Massachusetts introduced in the house today.

"But the wonderful achievement of enrolling one fifth of the entire population of the United States as members of the American Red Cross is a triumph that is a call to greater service. The Red Cross is not merely a humanitarian organization separate and distinct from others, but it is the mobilized force of the people, the whole American people. The American Red Cross is carrying a message of love and sympathy to American soldiers and sailors and to the troops and civilian population of our allies in the world. It is a force that is seeking to shorten the war and it is seeking to lay a foundation for a more enduring peace when the war is over. As we stand on the threshold of a new year in this hour of the world's tragedy there can be but one thought in the minds of the 22,000,000 members of the American Red Cross, and that is to serve and sacrifice as never before."

The Woman's Missionary society of the First Congregational church meets on Wednesday, January 16, in the church parlors. All members and friends will be interested in hearing Miss Jones of the Y. W. C. A. tell at the meeting the story of a new year in association is doing. Devotional exercises will be led by Mrs. W. K. Royal, and Mrs. Nettie Greer Taylor is soloist for the evening. The meeting will be an appreciation of the life and work of the late pastor, Dr. Doyt, by Mrs. W. D. Palmer, Mrs. F. M. Warren and Mrs. D. D. Clarke.

A most interesting and instructive program was given at the Portland Women's club Friday by the citizens committee. Marshall N. Dana gave a talk on parks and playgrounds—their advantages to a city. Mayor George L. Baker spoke of the importance of the necessity for the upbuilding of humanity, both in morals and health. He emphasized their proper supervision. Judge Taylor spoke of the importance of the drive that is now on for the Y. W. C. A.

MRS. R. R. ROHR, president Self Culture club, which recently entertained with a holiday party.

CHAPTER F. P. E. O., held an all day meeting on Thursday at the home of Mrs. D. L. Drake to make hospital books to be sent to soldiers and sailors through the Public Library. At a short business session in the morning the chapter assumed the support of a French war orphan for at least one year. In the afternoon after having enjoyed a Hooverized lunch the chapter continued its work on the books while Mrs. Charles Seeburger gave a talk on the constitution, bringing out many helpful and important points.

By vote of the association, Miss McGregor, president of the Portland Grade Teachers' association, was authorized to call a special meeting of the association on Wednesday afternoon, January 16, at 4:30 o'clock in Library hall. The purpose of the meeting is to complete the unfinished business relative to appropriations from the patriotic fund to act on resolutions, notice of which has previously been given, and to transact such routine business as the interests of the hour prevented being brought before the regular meeting. A full attendance is urged.

The ladies of the Mental Culture club of Roseburg met Wednesday afternoon in their rooms at the parish house and current events were discussed, the leader being Mrs. E. A. Hinkle. At the conclusion of this interesting feature of the program, the ladies repaired to the high school building where Professor Lansbury, of the University of Oregon school of music, gave a splendid talk on the subject of "The Mental Culture Club Ladies, under the auspices of the club. Professor Lansbury chose as his topic "Peeps Into the Workshop of the Mind." He discussed in a clear, concise manner of the relation of music to education, how it should be a part of one's education and considered a science.

A most enjoyable meeting of the Liberty club of Burns was held at the home of Mrs. J. H. Husted with Mrs. Frank Triska as joint hostess. The Red Cross spirit was evident in the fact that nearly every one present was knitting a sweater, sock or wrist band and when letters were read from various recipients of Red Cross kits sent by the Liberty club, needles seemed to click faster than ever. Several letters read Oregon boys are the envy of the lads from other states and are most eager to be "adopted" by Oregon women.

The subject of the literary part of the program, an address by Mrs. M. Triska gave a splendid talk on Bolivia. Henry P. Davison, chairman of the war council of the American Red Cross, sent the following New Year's message to the Red Cross division managers throughout the world: "The latest reports available indicate that the Christmas drive for 10,000,000 new members for the American Red Cross has resulted in the addition of fully 10,000,000 new members to its rolls. This number added to the more than 6,000,000 members before the Christmas campaign makes the total present enrollment fully 22,000,000. This is a magnificent record in the law offices of Len J. Parkes, secretary, formed a Red Cross unit. Mrs. A. M. Crawford was elected permanent chairman.

Bill Wood Draft Aliens Washington, Jan. 11.—(U. P.)—Drafting into the American army of all aliens not of enemy nations between 21 and 31 years, who have lived in this country two years, and of citizens of the United States who have resided in length of their residence here is demanded in a bill Representative Tague of Massachusetts introduced in the house today.

"But the wonderful achievement of enrolling one fifth of the entire population of the United States as members of the American Red Cross is a triumph that is a call to greater service. The Red Cross is not merely a humanitarian organization separate and distinct from others, but it is the mobilized force of the people, the whole American people. The American Red Cross is carrying a message of love and sympathy to American soldiers and sailors and to the troops and civilian population of our allies in the world. It is a force that is seeking to shorten the war and it is seeking to lay a foundation for a more enduring peace when the war is over. As we stand on the threshold of a new year in this hour of the world's tragedy there can be but one thought in the minds of the 22,000,000 members of the American Red Cross, and that is to serve and sacrifice as never before."

The Woman's Missionary society of the First Congregational church meets on Wednesday, January 16, in the church parlors. All members and friends will be interested in hearing Miss Jones of the Y. W. C. A. tell at the meeting the story of a new year in association is doing. Devotional exercises will be led by Mrs. W. K. Royal, and Mrs. Nettie Greer Taylor is soloist for the evening. The meeting will be an appreciation of the life and work of the late pastor, Dr. Doyt, by Mrs. W. D. Palmer, Mrs. F. M. Warren and Mrs. D. D. Clarke.

A most interesting and instructive program was given at the Portland Women's club Friday by the citizens committee. Marshall N. Dana gave a talk on parks and playgrounds—their advantages to a city. Mayor George L. Baker spoke of the importance of the necessity for the upbuilding of humanity, both in morals and health. He emphasized their proper supervision. Judge Taylor spoke of the importance of the drive that is now on for the Y. W. C. A.

Young Star Is Only Two Have Fascinating Picked Out and Clever Murderer

Katherine Grey, Leading Woman of "The 13th Chair" Company, Is Versatile Actress.

KATHERINE GREY, leading woman of the "13th Chair" company, has so much of interest to say and says it so delightfully, that one feels that no matter how much one gets out of an interview with her, there is a great deal more that is being missed. Her story is so fascinating and mystifying in her own personality and she is as Rosalie La Grange in the play; the main point of difference being that in the latter role, she is a white-haired elderly woman, and in the former she is a dark-haired, blue eyed youth, full of vitality and the expression of a heart that is being lived joyously, but with full realization of its serious aspects.

An interview with the young actress really means an interview with all the famous actors and actresses with whom she has been associated in San Francisco. She has been the fairy princess of theatrical life, in regard to the stage princes that she has been chosen to play leads with, and the expression of her own personality, all of those that are household words in the dramatic life of America that has not been associated with hers, in their most famous plays. Among others, there was Richard Mansfield, and by the way, Grey played in repertoire, doing among other parts, "Roxane," to his "Cyrano de Bergerac" and Louka, the Bulgarian girl, in "Arms and the Man," which was the first of the Bernard Shaw plays to be given in this country. Then there was Arnold Daly, with whom she played "Candida," "The Man of Destiny," and by the way, it was Miss Grey, who played Shaw for the first time in Australia. Another of the leads with whom she has played is "The Man of Destiny," and by the way, it was Miss Grey, who played Shaw for the first time in Australia.

"The Man of Destiny," and by the way, it was Miss Grey, who played Shaw for the first time in Australia. Another of the leads with whom she has played is "The Man of Destiny," and by the way, it was Miss Grey, who played Shaw for the first time in Australia.

"The Man of Destiny," and by the way, it was Miss Grey, who played Shaw for the first time in Australia. Another of the leads with whom she has played is "The Man of Destiny," and by the way, it was Miss Grey, who played Shaw for the first time in Australia.

"The Man of Destiny," and by the way, it was Miss Grey, who played Shaw for the first time in Australia. Another of the leads with whom she has played is "The Man of Destiny," and by the way, it was Miss Grey, who played Shaw for the first time in Australia.

"The Man of Destiny," and by the way, it was Miss Grey, who played Shaw for the first time in Australia. Another of the leads with whom she has played is "The Man of Destiny," and by the way, it was Miss Grey, who played Shaw for the first time in Australia.

Stenographer Kills Supposed Holdup

Minneapolis, Jan. 12.—(I. N. S.)—Mable Drummer, a stenographer in the employ of the McCoy Fuel company, Friday shot and killed E. F. Orr, who she believed, was attempting to rob the company's offices. Orr, she told the police, had come to a window where she was counting money and Orr was holding a gun.

Orr was identified by a card in the Switchmen's union. He has a wife and children living here. His acquaintances advance the theory that he had been drinking and was attempting to joke and that he had no intention of robbing the place. He carried no revolver, the police learned.

When writing to or calling on an advertiser please say you saw it in the Journal.

Today's Amusements

AUDITORIUM—GRAND OPERA company, "La Gioconda," San Carlo Opera company. "La Gioconda," 8:15 p. m. DRAMA "Chair."—Broadway at Taylor. "The 13th Chair."

COLUMBIA—Between Washington and Stark. Pauline Frederick, "Mrs. Dane's Defense," 10:30 a. m. to 11 p. m. LIBERTY—Broadway at Taylor. Taylor Holmes in "Uneasy Money," 11 a. m. to 11 p. m. MEXSTO—Washington at Park. "For the Freedom of the World," 11 a. m. to 11 p. m. PEOPLES—West Park at Alder. Julian Eltinge in "The Immigrant," 11 a. m. to 11 p. m. SUNSET—Broadway at Washington. Madge Kennedy in "Baby Mine," 11 a. m. to 11 p. m. STAR—Washington at Park. "The Masque of Life," 11 a. m. to 11 p. m. ST. LOUIS—Broadway at Taylor. "The Girl by the Roadside," 11 a. m. to 11 p. m. AUDUBON—Broadway at Alder. Headliner, "The Girl by the Roadside," 11 a. m. to 11 p. m. HIPODROME—Broadway at Yamhill. Headliner, "The Girl by the Roadside," 11 a. m. to 11 p. m. PLAY feature, Viola Dana in "Aladdin's Other Shoes."

ST. LOUIS—Broadway at Alder. Headliner, "The Girl by the Roadside," 11 a. m. to 11 p. m. HIPODROME—Broadway at Yamhill. Headliner, "The Girl by the Roadside," 11 a. m. to 11 p. m. PLAY feature, Viola Dana in "Aladdin's Other Shoes."

Beauty Chat

THE Y. M. C. A. and other organizations in inaugurating campaigns to encourage men of middle age to devote a portion of each day to physical culture, the part of the physical culture program may be supported by strong and vigorous men at home, are outlining a course that should be followed by men of middle age who desire to perform in this great war, and it is essential that they should be in physical condition to shoulder their share of the nation's burden.

Many other women feel that it is their duty to work in a big way in the interests of the nation and our soldiers. If they are not physically strong, their spirit may be willing but they will not be able to render full service. The women who are devotees of physical culture will not have any difficulty in performing the duty.

If you have not started to give your body the attention it demands, begin to do so at once. Look at the workers about you and you will find the physically strong in the lead. The ones they lead make them fit for service. By paying attention to exercise, diet, fresh air, rest and recreation they are able to heed the call of duty.

Women of middle age, like men of the same age, are not so strong as they once were. Some believe they have no spare time and other are lazy. Many think they have an abundance of strength until they are placed under the strain of additional work or sickness. Then comes the break.

Heed the lessons that are being taught to the men of the nation. That which is good for the gander is good for the goose.

that he gave last season, during his three months' engagement in New York. Thursday, January 17, the play will be "The Girl by the Roadside," with beautiful Violet Mersereau in the leading role. The picture is a story of a young man, who is determined to win his freedom. The picture is a story of a young man, who is determined to win his freedom.

that he gave last season, during his three months' engagement in New York. Thursday, January 17, the play will be "The Girl by the Roadside," with beautiful Violet Mersereau in the leading role. The picture is a story of a young man, who is determined to win his freedom. The picture is a story of a young man, who is determined to win his freedom.

Members of D. A. R. Ready for War Duty

Washington, Jan. 12.—(U. P.)—Backed by practically every woman in the United States, the war relief service committee of the D. A. R. has subscribed $30,000 for the restoration of the village of Ypres in Picardy, it was announced Friday.

War service questionnaires issued by the committee show that practically every woman stands ready to cook, sew, knit and make surgical bandages as a part of her war service. The questionnaire also shows that the women are willing to collect and sell old paper, old rubber and other things as usual to defray the expense of the war relief service.

When writing to or calling on an advertiser please say you saw it in the Journal.

When writing to or calling on an advertiser please say you saw it in the Journal.

When writing to or calling on an advertiser please say you saw it in the Journal.

When writing to or calling on an advertiser please say you saw it in the Journal.

When writing to or calling on an advertiser please say you saw it in the Journal.

AMUSEMENTS

HEILIG Broadway at Taylor. "The 13th Chair." Last Time Tonight 8:15. GRIPPING DRAMA SUCCESS. The 13th CHAIR. EVENING PRICES: Floor, $1.50. Bal. $1.75c, 50c. Gal. 50c.

HEILIG Broadway at Taylor. "The 13th Chair." Last Time Tonight 8:15. GRIPPING DRAMA SUCCESS. The 13th CHAIR. EVENING PRICES: Floor, $1.50. Bal. $1.75c, 50c. Gal. 50c.

HEILIG Broadway at Taylor. "The 13th Chair." Last Time Tonight 8:15. GRIPPING DRAMA SUCCESS. The 13th CHAIR. EVENING PRICES: Floor, $1.50. Bal. $1.75c, 50c. Gal. 50c.

HEILIG Broadway at Taylor. "The 13th Chair." Last Time Tonight 8:15. GRIPPING DRAMA SUCCESS. The 13th CHAIR. EVENING PRICES: Floor, $1.50. Bal. $1.75c, 50c. Gal. 50c.

HEILIG Broadway at Taylor. "The 13th Chair." Last Time Tonight 8:15. GRIPPING DRAMA SUCCESS. The 13th CHAIR. EVENING PRICES: Floor, $1.50. Bal. $1.75c, 50c. Gal. 50c.

HEILIG Broadway at Taylor. "The 13th Chair." Last Time Tonight 8:15. GRIPPING DRAMA SUCCESS. The 13th CHAIR. EVENING PRICES: Floor, $1.50. Bal. $1.75c, 50c. Gal. 50c.

HEILIG Broadway at Taylor. "The 13th Chair." Last Time Tonight 8:15. GRIPPING DRAMA SUCCESS. The 13th CHAIR. EVENING PRICES: Floor, $1.50. Bal. $1.75c, 50c. Gal. 50c.

AMUSEMENTS

HEILIG Broadway at Taylor. "The 13th Chair." Last Time Tonight 8:15. GRIPPING DRAMA SUCCESS. The 13th CHAIR. EVENING PRICES: Floor, $1.50. Bal. $1.75c, 50c. Gal. 50c.

HEILIG Broadway at Taylor. "The 13th Chair." Last Time Tonight 8:15. GRIPPING DRAMA SUCCESS. The 13th CHAIR. EVENING PRICES: Floor, $1.50. Bal. $1.75c, 50c. Gal. 50c.

HEILIG Broadway at Taylor. "The 13th Chair." Last Time Tonight 8:15. GRIPPING DRAMA SUCCESS. The 13th CHAIR. EVENING PRICES: Floor, $1.50. Bal. $1.75c, 50c. Gal. 50c.

HEILIG Broadway at Taylor. "The 13th Chair." Last Time Tonight 8:15. GRIPPING DRAMA SUCCESS. The 13th CHAIR. EVENING PRICES: Floor, $1.50. Bal. $1.75c, 50c. Gal. 50c.