

WHAT SOCIETY IS DOING

Women Will Aid the Great K. of C. Drive

Under the captaincy of Mrs. J. P. O'Brien, a number of Portland women will help in the drive this week which opens tomorrow for the Knights of Columbus war work fund. There will be booths in the various stores, bank and hotels where the women will solicit large and small contributions to the fund and supply the explanatory literature on the work being done by the Knights in cantonments in this country and abroad, also their activities on the Mexican border last year.

Their work has had the highest in-terest and will interest hosts of people. The expense of the campaign down to the most minute detail is being covered by the local council in this city, so that public subscriptions will go directly to the relief fund. The drive this week is being carried on throughout the United States.

In charge of the booth at the Hibbernia bank will be Mrs. Andrew C. Smith, Mrs. T. H. McCallis and Mrs. Wilbur E. Coman; at the Northwestern bank, Mrs. John P. Cronan, Mrs. Jennie P. Cooke and Miss Clarissa Wiley; Ladd and Tilton bank, Miss Margaret Burke; United States National bank, Mrs. William D. Wheeler, assisted by a group of Honor Guard girls; the Multnomah hotel will be in charge of Mrs. William P. Sinnott, assisted by Mrs. John Twoby, Mrs. Horace Luckett, Miss Katherine Sullivan, Mrs. T. J. Sawyer and Miss Rosemary Baldwin; Mrs. M. W. Daily will have the Portland office; at the Benson, Mrs. Charles Cheney; and Mrs. James Cranston will have charge of the Imperial, Mrs. George Wentworth; the Oregon, Mrs. Charles Barenstocher; Roberts Brothers, Miss Mary Meehan and Mrs. Catherine Cook; Olds, Wortman & King, Mrs. Joseph McCusker; Meier & Frank store, Mrs. Chester G. Murphy; Lipman & Wolfe, Mrs. James Laidlaw; and at the Union depot, Mrs. Penton Michael and Mrs. Williams.

The Laurelhurst club drill team, assisted by the auxiliary, spent a most enjoyable evening at dancing at the clubhouse Thursday evening, January 10. A basket luncheon was provided for the ladies, and was served under the supervision of a most efficient corps of "kitchen police" consisting of Messrs. William S. Seales, N. Barde, Nell P. Bennett, F. H. Call, T. H. Drake and Dr. A. P. Pollock. An event of the next month that is being looked forward to with pleasure by the drill team is a military ball to be held at the clubhouse at a date to be announced later. It is imperative that those attending this dancing party dress in some sort of a military costume, whether of this generation or last is immaterial, according to orders from Captain Lee M. Clark.

Miss Anna Benoit was given a pleasant surprise party at her home, 836 East Twenty-ninth street, New Year's eve, by a group of friends. Those attending were Misses Irene Joslyn, Esther Stump, Mrs. S. J. Salter, Mrs. McFarland, Rose and Anna Benoit, Mrs. Helen Oatman, Mrs. A. John Benoit, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hoopes and son Robert, Messrs. Harry Oatman, Fred Suron, George Joslyn, Mr. and Mrs. A. Benoit. A pleasant evening was passed by all. Miss Benoit received a call to report for duty at the department as stenographer. She has two brothers in the army—James, in France with the U. S. engineers, and John in the aviation corps on route for Texas.

Dr. E. O. Holliday, president of Washington State college at Pullman, was the speaker at the meeting of the Portland Academy of Medicine, held Thursday evening at Hotel Vancouver. The meeting was preceded by a dinner, given in honor of Dr. Holland, in the grill. The subject of the address was "Changing Conceptions in Education."

The Illinois society held its regular monthly meeting at the Portland hotel last Tuesday evening. The assembly room was crowded with "Suckers," who had a delightful time. Miss Alice Mae Phelps provided a highly entertaining classical program as follows: Instrumental trio, Miss Gladys Johnson, cello; Louis Shurtliff, violin; and Miss Hulda Reynolds, piano; Harold Moore, tenor, sang "The Song" from "Robin Hood," and "A Scotch Lassie." Miss Alice Mae Phelps and Harold Moore sang a duet.

The evening of the evening was the patriotic speech of Senator Huston. The senator has two sons on their way to France. Municipal Judge Rossman interested all by referring to slackers appearing in his court. Dancing and cards concluded the evening. The February meeting will be held on Lincoln's birthday, February 12. A patriotic program will be given for that date.

The engagement of Miss Amy Gerstel and Ernest E. Hyland of Eugene was told recently at a luncheon given by Mrs. Erle Swanson. Miss Gerstel is a popular girl in an old Portland family, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. August Gerstel. She is a sister of Walter H. Gerstel, now with the One Hundred and Sixteenth engineers in France. She will doubtless be much interested before her wedding, which is planned for the early spring. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. R. A. Hyland of Eugene, of one of the old and prominent pioneer families of that place.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Trestrahl are recent arrivals in Portland, coming from Winnipeg, where they have made their home for several years past. They are former Minneapolis people where Mrs. Trestrahl was prominently identified with Woman's club activities.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Braund and their daughter entertained over last week end their nephew Edwin L. Ames of Denver, Colo. who is attached to the 248th field artillery Battery A.

Mrs. F. L. Wallace, wife of Dr. Wallace, will return home this week after a delightful visit in Los Angeles with Mrs. F. C. Mills of South Bright avenue, Whittier.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Rogers of Detroit are spending a month at Hotel Portland. They are making a leisurely trip on business and pleasure combined.

Mrs. L. M. Davenport, wife of the owner of the Davenport hotel of Spokane, is in the city for several days and is registered at Hotel Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Dover, Miss Elizabeth Dover and Miss Martha Albertson, prominent Tacoma people, are registered at Hotel Portland.

Doctor and Mrs. R. Hillier of Pendleton who spent the holidays with relatives and friends in this city, have returned home.

Mrs. S. E. Krohn of Roseburg, Or., has returned home after a delightful visit in Portland with friends.

The following wedding notice, taken from a recent issue of the East Oregonian, Pendleton, will interest many Portland friends of the couple:

"A quiet ceremony united in marriage Miss Edith Power, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Power, and William Kupers, prominent Umatilla county rancher. The impressive double ring service was read by the Rev. Andrew Lockwood, rector of the Episcopal church, at the apartments of the bride's parents, with only immediate relatives in attendance.

"The bride chose a smart tailor of taupe for her wedding frock with a chic corsage hat, and was most attractive and pretty. Neither she nor the bridegroom was attended. Immediately following the service a buffet luncheon was served, the rooms of the Power home being artistically decorated with quantities of delicate pink carnations. Miss Elizabeth Gardner, an intimate friend of the bride, who was the only guest other than the family, assisted.

"Mr. and Mrs. Kupers left for Southern California where they will spend six weeks or two months, devoting most of their time to Long Beach and Los Angeles. Upon their return they will make their home in Pendleton.

"Mrs. Kupers is a charming and popular girl who has many friends here and in Walla Walla where she attended Whitman college, as well as in Portland where she spent much time. Mr. Kupers is also well known throughout the state."

Mrs. May Aude of Portland and Frank Butler of Spokane surprised their many friends with the announcement of their marriage at Vancouver, Wash., January 4. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Ott of 981 Borthwick street, Portland, and later returned to Mr. and Mrs. Ott's home where a supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Butler will make their home in Portland.

Howard A. Underhill and Miss Julia Wiegardt were married Tuesday at 9:15 p. m. in the studio of Mrs. Ella B. Jones in the Russell building, 165 1/2 Fourth street, Rev. P. O. Bonebrake officiating. The bride carried a bouquet of narcissus and violets. The bridegroom was in full dress uniform. He is a nephew of Mrs. Jones and is a member of the United States coast guards at Fort Canby, Wash. He served his four years in the navy and was sent to Mexico a few years ago on the warship Maryland. Mrs. Ella B. Jones played Wagner's "Bridal Chorus" and a canary bird sang the obligato in sweet tones during the ceremony. Camellia and carnations were the beautiful flowers used in decorating. The young people will be at home in Fort Canby, Wash. The wedding guests were: Rev. P. O. Bonebrake, Violet M. Lewis, Herbert Boles, E. A. Rowe, Mrs. Ella B. Jones, Kathryn Rowe, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Boles, Mrs. Harry A. Rowe, Anna Wiegardt, Julia Wiegardt, Edwin Boles and Howard Underhill.

On Thursday evening, January 10, at the residence of James A. Leslie at Rivera station, Wilfred Randall and Miss Myrtle Olsen were married by Rev. J. Bowerox. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Smith, and the ceremony was witnessed by some 20 relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Randall will make their home at 855 Union avenue.

Squares for Serbs Must Be in Soon

KNITTED squares, either sewed into blankets or to be contributed singly, made for the Serbian wounded soldiers' coats, which are being made for the Oregon shipment, must be sent to Mrs. A. A. Morrison at 68 Trinity Place by Thursday noon. There are now 100 blankets ready for shipment which will be expressed through New York in time to catch the next Serbian relief ship. The blankets each contain 20 of the 12 inch knitted squares; therefore, the 1000 blankets now ready represent a great amount of work with their 2000 squares. This branch of war knitting is particularly interesting from an economic standpoint. All the odds and ends of bright colored yarns left from other garments or ravelled out of discarded woolen articles are cleaned and reknit into the little squares. These are fashioned into the blankets which will go directly from New York to the stricken district, to be used for the most part for bed covers for the wounded Serbian soldiers. The splendid response has been made to the appeals for these contributions which were started this summer and early in the fall Mrs. Morrison sent a large shipment contributed by people in all parts of Oregon. A number of grateful letters have been received acknowledging the receipt of these contributions and it is especially desired that this second shipment be a generous one. The finished blankets will be on exhibition at Trinity parish house Friday, January 18, from 11 a. m. until 3 p. m. All who are interested in seeing work that has been accomplished are invited to call.

The following letter from the Serbian people of Oregon expressing their gratitude to the women and children in Oregon for their interest in behalf of their stricken countrymen was received recently by Mrs. Morrison who, assisted by a few friends, has promoted this work in Oregon at the request of the American Serbian Relief society:

555 Yamhill Street, Portland, Or., Jan. 7, 1918.
Mrs. A. A. Morrison, Portland, Or.
My dear Mrs. Morrison: On behalf of the Serbians of Oregon and the members of the Serbian National Defense League of Portland, I want to thank you and the good people of Oregon who have been instrumental in helping you to get together those beautiful knitted woolen yarn blankets, which you have been sending from time to time to our Serbian soldiers in Europe. There are so few of us Serbians in America—especially here in the Pacific Northwest—and the demands so great upon us, that at times we are almost despondent when we realize that in spite of all we can do in the face of all the sacrifices we make, the sum total of our efforts is so small, because there are so few of us here, that were it not for the expression of love and help as you are so graciously and so good people of Oregon, give us, we would fall in a great measure to do that great work which we are now doing to help our dear ones across the sea.

Today is our Christmas day. This, you understand, is of course, according to the Greek Catholic church, which is the Serbian National church; so what day more fitting than this day, in which the allies of Oregon for your splendid work, your expressions of love and words of
