Ginger Nips Will

Be Discontinued

In Dry Territory

Those that have been able to secure their "nip," despite the dry laws by the purchase of Jamaica ginger are doomed to disappointment in the future. The manufacture, sale and importation of this product has been prohibited in this state, and similar action is to be taken in all dry territory. Manufacturers have found that the ginger has been purchased

SPITZENBERG SEASON COMING TO END WITH BETTER DEMAND Edited by Hyman H. Cohen

EGG MARKET CLIMBS HERE WITH OUTSIDE DEMANDS VERY KEEN

Portland Still Quoting Far Below All Other Big Markets of the United States; Extras Move to 54c Per Dozen Along the Street.

Price of eggs continues to gain strength for fresh offerings, in the local market, and the bulk of the sales of current receipts were made along the street during the last 24 hours at 49c a dozen. The latter sales were, however, for stock dozen, with a sprinkling or trade as high as 50c a from certain shippers who are known to send only good stuff to market.

Sales of candled stock were generally made a 51c a dozen for ordinary candling, with 53@ 54c for extras, the latter in cartons. While receipts of eggs here continue to show a rather fair increase, there is no surplus on the market. Demand from Pacific Northwest points is rather keen, and as Portland is the lowest big market in the United States, it is getting whatever business it cares to take.

Storage eggs locally are showing a good tone because holdings here are not heavy, even though they are greater throughout the country at this time than at the same period a year ago.

EASIER TONE SHOWN FOR VEAL While there is no accumulation shown in supplies along the street, the demand for country killed calves is not quite so keen and only a very small amount of stuff is moving at former

Late Movement Of Potatoes Is Worry to Trade

While there is a slight improvement in the demand and shipment of paratoes from Oregon, the trade here is somewhat alarmed as to what disposition will be made of remaining boldings. Many farmers are unwilling to sell holdings. Many farmers are unwiting to sen, and the fear is expressed that when all get ready to let go there will be an insufficient number of cars to take care of the offerings. Buying of seed stock slightly better.

TRIAL OF CELESTIALS ACCUSED OF MURDER BLOWS UP IN COURT

Four Suspected Chinese Gunmen and 40 Others Are Freed When Witnesses Fail Prosecution.

Four suspected murderers and about 40 others indicted for the same crime were turned loose Thursday afternoon by order of Circuit Judge Gantenbein. What promised to be the longest murder trial ever held in Oregon, and perhaps in the world, turned out to be

A jury was selected to try Chin Hing, George Chin, Seid Yew Coy and Wong eastern cities. Mr. Ladd reports busihung in the morning; opening statements of counsel were made just before moon; at 3 o'clock the four men were unprecedented prosperity is evident in freed by order of Judge Gantenbein, all lines of manufacturing industry. who instructed the jury to bring in a verdict of acquittal.

Men Accused of Complicity The men on trial were charged with complicity in the murder of Huey Back Yee, a reputed member of the Hop Sing-Suey Sing tong, which was at war with Bing Kung-Bow Leong tong. The accused were members of the latter society and were indicted jointly with the entire membership, charged with conspiring to kill members of the Hop Sing-

Suey Sings. Three men, who claimed to be members of the Ring Kung-Bow Leongs appeared before the grand jury and testified that they were present at a secret meeting of the Bing Kung-Bow Leongs, at which arms and ammunition were issued to the society's gunmen with instructions and authority to go out and kill the members of the rival society.

Witnesses Refuse to Testify That they were members of the so ciety was denied vigorously by the Bing Kung-Bow Leongs, who insisted that, on the contrary, they were Hop Sing-Suey Sings. At the trial Thursday two of them Lee Cue Wai and Wong Tye, were put on the stand by the state. On the advice of their attorney, Robert Maguire, all the state had to offer, the prosecuand interest yielding 61/4 per cent. These than the amount subscribed for. tion's case was closed, and nothing remained to be done except to order the discharge of the prisoners. The two witnesses, however, were ordered into the custody of the sheriff to be held pending a formal charge before the grand jury of perjury

Other Indictments Quashed Judge Gantenbein also ordered the dismissal of the indictment against the 40 odd members of the Bing Kung-Bow Leong tong. The third witness whom the state expected to call disappeared shortly after his testimony was given to the convicted slackers into service after the grand jury. The murdered man was found dead States court has committed such men on July 18, last, at the corner of Fourth to the county jail for but short senand Everett streets. No one, as far as is known, saw the crime committed, and no arrests for the actual killing were in the circuit court Thursday against Thomas Ingram, alleging cruelty, desertion and failure to provide. They were married at Milwaukie, Or., in 1914. Philo Guth, a streetcar conductor complains in his suit for divorce that his wife accused him unjustly of being too familiar with the "woman passengers," and further that she was a poor housekeeper. They have one child. He is willing that the court shall decide into whose custody it shall be given.
